

ERNEST ELLIS

In the passing of Mr. Ernest Ellis in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, on Saturday, June 5, Prince County and especially Tyne Valley, where he resided, has lost one of its best-known and most highly-valued citizens — one whom it will be difficult to replace.

In April he had an attack of virus pneumonia at which time he spent about two weeks in the Tyne Valley Health Centre. This was followed by coronary thrombosis which, after almost three weeks' treatment in the Prince County Hospital, proved fatal.

The deceased was a son of the late William D. Ellis, and Angelina Glover Ellis, and was born at Bideford on Feb. 11, 1878. He was one of a family of ten and eight have predeceased him. One sister, Gertrude, Mrs. Burton Ellis lives at Everett, Mass. At the age of three years, he came with his family to Tyne Valley, and there almost his entire life was spent with the exception of a few years in his early youth when he lived in Massachusetts.

On Oct. 19, 1904, he married Florence May MacLeod of Hunter River, and from this union were born five children, three of whom survive, — namely, Olive Isabella, Mrs. John G. McCombe of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., (Jean Glover), Mrs. H. Gordon Williams of St. John, N. B., and (Ellie Geraldine) Mrs. Leonard V. MacDonald of River View, N. B. Surviving also is his wife who mourns the loss of a kind and loving husband. His only son, "William Vance" died in August 1914, and two years later a baby girl also passed away.

Blessed with a wonderful memory, he was able to recall events from childhood and being a good story-teller, was interesting company for both old and young. In the realm of music he excelled. His voice was not impaired as he grew older, and in spite of illness, just as long as he was able, he would be in his place in the Tyne Valley United Church choir, where his deep rich bass might be heard in all the hymns. He was also gladly welcomed in all neighboring churches. He will be sadly missed, not only in his home choir, but also in two male choirs in both of which he was an enthusiastic and much-prized member.

To any project for the betterment and uplifting of the community he always gave willingly of his time and talents. To make an impromptu speech, to act as chairman or auctioneer, never seemed to be a trouble to him and, needless to say, his services in this respect were much sought after, as he always performed functions of this kind in a highly creditable manner.

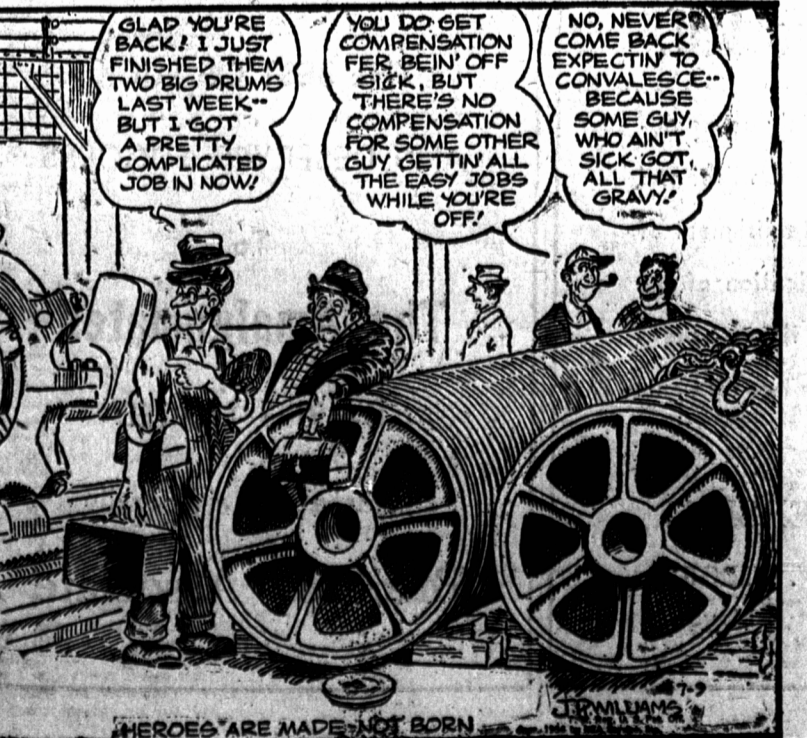

The funeral services, which were held on June 8, and were conducted by his pastor, Rev. A. J. MacDonald, assisted by a dear friend of long standing, Rev. Thomas Wilson of Charlottetown and Rev. David M. A. Whitney of the Tyne Valley Presbyterian Church.
