SOME STRAWBERRIES.—An EXAMINER reporter was today shown a quantity of strawberries grown in the garden of His Worship Mayor Dawson, which for size and sweetness it would be hard to beat. The strawberries are of the Sharpless variety.

THE OAR.—A Henley-on-Thames dispatch of the 9th says: In the final heat for the diamond sculls, the Hon. Rupert Guinness, of the Leander Club, holder of the trophy, beat R. K. Beaumont, of the Burton Rowing Club, who yesterday defeated Dr. McDowell, of the Delaware Boat Club, Chicago, in the sixth heat for the same trophy.

I. O. G. T.—The picnic at Vernon River Bridge yesterday under the auspices of the Independent Order of Good Templars, proved most successful in every way. The weather was fine, the attendance large and the lunch baskets well filled with the delicacies of the season. After luncheon an interesting literary and musical program was delivered in the large room of Gough Lodge.

BRACE HER WRIST.—This forenoon, as Mrs. Edward Pranght was standing in the front door of her residence, Water Street, East, she suddenly became faint and fell in the hall. In falling, Mrs. Pranght's arm went under her, and was broken at the wrist. She was unconscious for about an hour. At noon she was reported "resting easier," excepting for a severe pain in the head.

WELL WORTH SEEING.—A well-executed sign, presented to the Oldfellow's by Mr. Miller, of the Charlottetown Business College, may be seen at the entrance to Oldfellow's Hall, in the Brown Block. The sign is all done with the pen, and is newly framed. The Oldfellow's are greatly pleased with the gift, and those who have seen the sign fully appreciate the manner in which the work has been done.

When picked up by Mr. Campbell Clinton was insensible and bleeding profusely.

A KINDLY ACT.—The Halifax Herald says: The death of Robert Macmahon, of Mother's river, is announced. The deceased met with an accident, and died from its effects ten days later. He had an accident policy in the Travellers' Company for $1,000. This was made payable to a Granville street liquor dealer. The latter called upon Mr. Jones, the agent of the company, and requested that the $1,000 be paid to the widow of the deceased. Mr. Jones will therefore pay the money to the widow.
