Driver Fined $40 In S'side

SUMMERSTIDE — Even MacKinnon was fined $40 with one cost in Summerside police court on a charge of driving without due care and attention.

Police evidence revealed that he accused went 30 miles per hour on Water street and slid around a corner near Civic Stadium on Notre Dame street. MacKinnon also failed to stop for a police officer who gave chase.

Magistrate R. Hinton, QC, told MacKinnon that he could be fined $100 since this was the second time he had been convicted on this charge.

Police Chief Peter White stated that though a cost of operator's license which may result from his second conviction was a severe enough penalty, considering that MacKinnon was only 19.

"You're saving $60 as it is," Magistrate Hinton told the accused, "you young fellows just don't seem to understand that this is the law. It's no use to bring you in here unless you are taught the hard way."

A Summerside man, was fined $20 and costs on a charge of having possession of intoxicating liquor in a place other than his residence.

Ernest Ye, Mount Pleasant, charged with having care and control of a motor vehicle while his abilities were impaired by alcohol, had his case heard yesterday.

'Daisy Duck' Is At S'side

One of the Daisy Duck's owners, Tieleman (Dutch) Erkelens, said that he expects her to remain in Summerside for the duration of the carnival.
