Montague Branch Legion Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Montague Branch Canadian Legion was held in the Legion Home last evening with the president, Comrade Eric MacKinnon, presiding. There were thirteen members and two visitors present. The meeting opened with the two minutes silence followed by the reading of the minutes of the last meeting which were approved. Discussion followed relating to the March of Dimes campaign, and it was moved that the branch would donate $10.00 to the campaign. It was also moved that the branch would donate $25.00 to the coming Red Cross campaign. Bills were read and approved for payment. A brief report was also received from the rental committee. A lengthy discussion followed on the appointing of a delegate to represent the branch at the Dominion convention to be held at Toronto in August, and this matter will be discussed further at a later meeting. Following the meeting the members enjoyed a delicious lunch served by a committee of members.

Annual Meeting of Men's Association in Georgetown

The annual meeting of St. David's Men's Association was held on March 1, in the Church Hall. The customary delicious supper was first enjoyed by the members, followed by singing of hymns. During the business session, the sum of $10 was voted to the Church to assist in increased costs of lighting and heating. The sum of $4 was voted to the W. A. to defray the supper fees of the special guests entertained by the M. A. at the February meeting. The meeting proceeded to the election of officers for the 1954-55 period. Mr. Seymour Knight commended Mr. Harry Yorston on his fine work as the association's first president. His promotion of projects helpful to the church, and whole-hearted co-operation and generosity have done much to ensure the strong establishment and worthy motives of this newest affiliation of St. David's. Mr. Cecil LeLachur has also proved himself ably as secretary-treasurer of the M. A.; both men were unanimously re-elected to the same offices for the ensuing year. New appointments were as follows: Mr. Spurgeon Walker, vice-president. Members of the executive: Preston MacDonald, Spurgeon Walker, G. Hemphill, N. Hanson. Plans for a canvass for the new residence at Pine Hill came under discussion, and Mr. Yorston spoke strongly on this matter. He felt that donation to the Pine Hill project is a necessary part of individual effort in sustaining the work of the church. Although fault is found with the church in many instances, the world would be a sorry place indeed without her ministrations. Even though we may feel that they could give us extra at this time, a small curtailment of some personal indulgence, such as smoking, would add up to substantial aid in the grand over-all total. Candidates appointed were: Edward Easton, Spurgeon Walker, Nelson Hanson. Rev. Father Cotton who was to have been the special speaker for this meeting, was regrettably called away to Nova Scotia for several days, but the association hopes to hear his message at a future date. Two interesting films were shown before the meeting adjourned.

Plan Hockey Game Tonight At Montague

The ice sheet in most of the indoor rinks has been considerably diminished during the prevailing mild weather of the past two weeks, and only those which were fortunate enough to have a thick sheet of ice, retain sufficient for continued hockey this year. It has been learned that the Murray Harbour and Georgetown rinks have suffered severely, resulting in several bare patches showing up. It is unfortunate that this has occurred for several games still remain to be played in the Intermediate C League being played at Murray Harbour rink, and the intermediate series must still be played between Georgetown and Montague. The first game of this series will be played in Montague tonight where, owing to a thick ice sheet having been made during the earlier part of the season, there is still a thick layer of ice. The manager assures that it is hard and smooth and in readiness for tonight's game which is expected to draw a large crowd to watch the traditional rivals meet in another battle for the championship.

Championship Play Starts

Rinks representing nine provinces are shown at the opening play in the 25th annual Canadian Curling Championships in Edmonton this week. Seen in action are rinks representing Nova Scotia, Quebec, Northern Ontario, British Columbia, Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island, Ontario, Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan. The New Brunswick rink did not compete in the opening draw. All 11 rinks were paraded into the Edmonton Gardens by a highland pipe band and were welcomed by curling officials and representatives of the province of Alberta and the city. (CP Photo) 1954.

Curling Draw

Starting tonight the Dr. Barrett Trophy play will get underway at the Charlottetown Curling Club. Dr. Barrett has donated 4 high grade mystery prizes for the winning team; also there are 4 mystery prizes for the runner-up team. The players in this contest take in all 1st and 2nd year curlers making up 10 teams divided into 2 sections of 5 teams each. A section will play a round robin series and B section will also play a round robin series. Then the winners of each section will play off for 1st place; also the runners-up of each section will play off for second place. Following is list of teams to take part: Section A: No. 1: G. Stewart, C. A. Tall, J. Hornby, Dr. A. MacMillan. No. 2: W. Beer, Dr. K. MacEachern, D. Sedgwick, G. MacMillan. No. 3: Jas. Cameron, T. MacAdams, Dr. H. MacKenzie, M. P. Reed. No. 4: H. Dobson, D. Last of Ansons To Be Retired

OTTAWA, (CP)—The RCAF is retiring the last four of a venerable and honorable breed of aircraft—the Avro Anson. They are to be flown to Trenton, Ont., from Ottawa in the next few days and turned over to War Assets Corp. for disposal. The twin-engine Anson played a vital, if mostly unspectacular, role in the Second World War. Thousands of pilots, navigators, wireless operators and bomb aimers were trained in Canada on them in the British Commonwealth air training plan. The first British-designed Anson flew with the RAF in 1935. It was originally intended for coastal patrol, transport and photo survey. But it also saw action. During the Second World War, twin-engine Ansons filled Canadian skies. Were Reliable Though slow—the first ones had a speed of 110 miles an hour—the Ansons had a reputation for reliability. At one time, the RCAF had more than 4,000 of them. After the war, its use in the RCAF declined rapidly. The last four were used until recently to test equipment for various government departments and aircraft firms. They are being replaced by twin-engine Expeditors. In June, 1940, nine German Messerschmidt 109 fighters attacked three RAF coastal Command Ansons over the English Channel. The Ansons shot down two attackers and damaged a third. Ansons also took part in early bombing raids. The Anson was selected as one of the types to be used in the Commonwealth air training plan and 1,500 were shipped to Canada from Britain. The original plan was also to ship Anson parts to Canada and injury was not the Canadians' fault. But Sweden's biggest newspaper, the liberal Dagens Nyheter, disregarded Egen's statement and called it the Canadians' "worst crime in a match which has increased their deep-seated unpopularity here." "All European hopes will be for the Soviet Union against Canada next Sunday," the paper added.

Argentina Looms Major Threat In Grain Market

OTTAWA, (CP)—Argentina looms as a major threat to Canada in the fight for world grain markets in 1954. W. F. Hillhouse, Canada's agricultural secretary at Buenos Aires, says in a report to the trade department that Argentina "may be expected to provide strong competition in the international grain markets this year." Mr. Hillhouse's report, published in the department's magazine, Foreign Trade, says that Argentina's wheat crop, which failed in 1952, recovered in 1953 and may even increase this year. No official figures have yet been published, he said, "but on the basis of our private estimates of 5,250,000 tons of wheat, 5,500,000 tons of corn and a total of 2,500,000 tons of barley, rye and oats," it would appear that there will be more than 7,500,000 tons of these grains available for export in 1954. "As there seems little likelihood that the present export price policy will be altered in the near future, Argentina may be expected to provide strong competition to the international grain markets this year, especially in corn, wheat, rye and oats." Federal officials here said Argentina grain prices are a puzzle. Under the control of President Peron, Argentina sometimes sells wheat outright; sometimes barbers it for some other commodity. Highest Since 1948 "Grain exports from Argentina during 1953, at 5,000,000 metric tons, were the highest since 1948 and surpassed those for the two previous years combined," Mr. Hillhouse said. "The bumper crops of 1952-53, plus a realistic export price policy, especially during the second half of the year, permitted this high level of exports in the face of heavy international stocks of most grains. "Wheat at 2,500,000 tons, corn at over 1,000,000 and barley at over 500,000, accounted for more than 80 per cent of the exports." Mr. Hillhouse found that Brazil, which Canada long has courted as a wheat customer, bought 1,168,000 tons of Argentina's wheat in 1953. Canada recently sold Brazil about 200,000 tons. Among other major Argentina customers were Britain, Italy and India—all of them normally big buyers of Canadian wheat.

Russia Wants Hockey Ch'ship Play Next Year

STOCKHOLM, (Reuters)—Russia is going to put in a bid to have the 1957 world hockey championships in Moscow, Boris Miyakinkov Soviet team leader in the present matches here, disclosed Thursday. Two "ice palaces" are being built in Moscow to accommodate 10,000 and 5,000 spectators respectively, he added. Moscow now has only natural ice rinks. However, an artificial rink will be tried out at the Dynamo stadium next year, Miyakinkov said.

Declares Canada Should Not Enter World Hockey Play

STOCKHOLM, (Reuters)—Canadian team manager Don Preston angrily declared Thursday that Canada should not enter any future world ice hockey championships in Europe, because "we do not feel we are welcome here." Preston, managing Toronto East York in the world championships here, added: "If I had my way, it would be the last time Canada will send a team over to Europe." Referring to Swedish newspaper complaints about Canadian rough play, the former East York player said his team has had more injuries since coming to Europe than during a whole season at home. Calls It Crime The "rough Canadians" inflicted their worst casualty Wednesday when West German centre Marcus Egen had five teeth smashed. Egen told newspaper men the

King George Foundation Plans Are Announced

LONDON, (AP)—Plans for a £100,000 statue of the late King George VI, to be erected in a "mobile setting" in London, were disclosed today by trustees of the £1,630,000 King George VI foundation. Another £985,000 will be spent on training and recreation for British youth and £400,000 will go for adult recreational and welfare projects, the announcement said. Funds for the foundation were raised by public subscription after the King's death February, 1952. A booklet giving details of how the money will be used and Queen Elizabeth has approved the appointment of William McMillan as acupator of the statue. McMillan also created the statue of the late King's father, King George V, which stands in Calcutta. The booklet said the site of George VI's statue will not be disclosed until the Queen, now touring the Commonwealth, has approved it. Training Project The largest single allocation from the fund is £500,000 for the leadership training project for young people. Its purpose will be to enable voluntary organizations

Carter Is 4-1 Favorite Over Paddy DeMarco NEW YORK, (AP)—Lightweight champion Jimmy Carter, winner of his last three title defenses by knockouts, is a 4-to-1 favorite to whip rough Paddy DeMarco in their 15-round title fight in Madison Square Garden tonight. The 26-year-old challenger is given only the slightest chance to upset the 30-year-old champion, a hard man to down when his crown is on the line. Paddy has been stopped only once—on cuts by Sandy Saddler—in a nine-year pro career of 80 fights but he never has fought more than 10 rounds. A light hitter with only seven knockouts to his credit, DeMarco knows full well he'll have to go the route to win. This will be Carter's ninth title fight including his 14th round TKO of Ike Williams when he won the crown nearly three years ago. RUGGED COAST The irregular coastline of Newfoundland is studded with rocky cliffs rising from 200 to 400 feet.
