

An Act to continue and amend certain Acts therein mentioned, relating to Summerside.

[Passed April 24, 1868.]

WHEREAS the Act of the twenty-first Victoria, chapter seven, intituled "An Act relating to accidents by fire in Summerside, and the removal of nuisances from the streets thereof," and the Act of the twenty-first Victoria, chapter ten, intituled "An Act to prevent the running at large of Swine in Summerside and vicinity," will shortly expire, and it is expedient to continue the same, and also to amend the first hereinbefore recited Act, as hereinafter mentioned. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Council and Assembly as follows :

I. The said recited Act of the twenty-first Victoria, chapter seven (except as the same is hereby amended), and the said recited Act of the twenty-first Victoria, chapter ten, shall be, and the same are hereby severally continued for ten years from the passing hereof, and from thence to the end of the then next session of the General Assembly of this Island, and no longer.

II. The assessors appointed under the said first herein recited Act shall have power to assess the inhabitants, owners and occupiers of property in Summerside in a sum not exceeding the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds in any one year.

III. The tenant or occupier of every house, shop, office, or store, in Summerside, of the yearly value of five pounds, and upwards, shall be provided with and keep one leathern bucket, capable of containing not less than two gallons, with the owner's name painted thereon, which bucket shall be kept hung up in the passage, hall, or entry of such house, shop, office or store, under the penalty of five shillings for every time the said bucket shall not be found hung up in its proper place, when such house, shop, office or store shall be visited by the firewardens in the said first recited Act named, and the said tenant or occupier, within three months after the passing of this Act, shall provide a ladder or ladders, corresponding to the height of his house, sufficient to enable water to be carried to any part of the same in the event of fire.

IV. All chimneys and flues in any house, shop, store or office, in Summerside, shall be built and constructed in every respect to the satisfaction of the firewardens now or hereafter to be appointed under the said first herein recited Act, and such firewardens may, if they see fit, order any chimney or flue in the said place to be altered or reconstructed in such manner as they may deem proper; and if any person shall be ordered by the said firewardens to cause any such chimney or flue to be reconstructed or altered, and shall neglect to obey such order for a period of forty-eight hours from the time such order shall be made, such person so offending shall be subject to a fine or penalty of five shillings for each and every day he shall refuse to comply with such order; which said fine or penalty and any other fine or penalty imposed by this Act, shall be recovered in the way and manner directed by the said first recited Act for the recovery of fines and penalties therein mentioned.

V. The wardens now appointed, or hereafter to be appointed under the said first herein recited Act, shall and may at any time, and from time to time, after the passing of this Act, have full power and authority to make and pass such by-laws as they may deem necessary for the more effectually carrying out the provisions and intentions of this or the said first recited Act: provided that no such by-law or by-laws shall have any force or effect until approved of by the Lieutenant Governor in Council and recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose by the collector in the said first recited Act mentioned, which said book shall be at all times, within reasonable hours, open to the inspection of any person liable to pay rates in Summerside under the said first therein recited Act

VI. The fifth and fourteenth sections of the said first herein recited Act shall be, and the same are hereby repealed.

VII. This Act shall remain and continue in force during the continuance of the said first herein recited Act, and no longer.

COUNCIL OFFICE,

6th August, 1868.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council has been pleased to appoint the following gentlemen Justices of the Peace for Prince County, viz:—
