THE RAVAGES OF WAR.—The grand total of Japanese killed in battle is officially set down as 623, and in addition 172 were reported to have died of their wounds. Those wounded, not fatally, are placed at 2891. There were 2178 deaths from cholera and 261 from other diseases. It thus appears that pestilence is mightier than war against the most populous country on the face of the globe.

PRELUDY.—Mrs. Ellis gave her seventh lecture in the Y. M. C. A. Hall this afternoon. It speaks well for Mrs. Ellis' ability as a lecturer and character reader that in spite of the many counter attractions the interest in her entertainments has not diminished in the least, in fact has very greatly increased. The demand for her office work has become so great that she has decided to deliver no more lectures until Tuesday evening when the most popular lecture of the course will be delivered. The subject, "Love, Courtship and Marriage seen from a Woman's Standpoint," is sure to draw a full house.

SPORTS AT GEORGETOWN.—The races and party to be held at Georgetown on July 17th promises to be a grand success. Both committees are diligently working to make it the best of the season. MISS FAY AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

There was a large audience at the Opera House last evening on the occasion of Miss Fay's second performance. Those present were both entertained and mystified goes without saying. The manner in which she does her work is so great a mystery as ever. Everyone is talking about the performance, and many ideas are advanced concerning it. But the solution seems as far off as ever it was.

PERSONAL.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor left this morning for Ottawa. Mrs. J. A. McInnis and daughter arrived here from Winnipeg last night. A. McDonald, Esq., Superintendent of the Island Railway, and Miss Nellie McDonald, were passengers on the mail express last night on return from Quebec.

Parties wishing to spend a gala day should not fail to attend. Liberal prizes are offered for the races and much excitement may be expected. See adv.

OBITUARY.—On the 16th inst., Matilda Boote, wife of Angus Gallant, and one of the oldest and most respected of the residents of Oyster Bed Bridge, passed away at the ripe age of seventy-six. In the death of Mrs. Gallant many persons have lost a kind and charitable friend, and her kindness will long be remembered by those who most regret her death. A solemn requiem High Mass was sung at her funeral by the Rev. R. B. McDonald. Her eleven sons, with two sons and a son-in-law, and her husband, are left to mourn their sad loss.

SPORTS AT GEORGETOWN.—The races and party to be held at Georgetown on July 17th promises to be a grand success. Both committees are diligently working to make it the best of the season. Parties wishing to spend a gala day should not fail to attend. Liberal prizes are offered for the races and much excitement may be expected. See adv.
