In Memoriam

MRS. ELLA CAMPBELL

The death occurred on Jan. 27th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bruce MacLeod, Kensington, of Mrs. Ella Campbell in her seventy-ninth year.

Born at Long River, the youngest and last remaining of the family of David Johnstone and Elizabeth Montgomery. After attending school at Long River and a musical training at Charlottetown under Prof. Earle, she moved to Park Corner the wife of George L. Campbell. Of this union a family of nine were born—four predeceasing her in early childhood. Her husband succumbing to influenza in 1918—to her remained the task of training and caring for the family.

Always an inspiration to her children and friends, this she remained to the end, which she met with abiding faith and trust in God.

After a short service in Kensington by the Rev. E. H. Bean and Rev. L. M. Murray, her remains were forwarded to Geddie Memorial Church, where the Rev. E. H. Bean conducted the funeral services and officiated at the grave. The twenty-third Psalm and the Christian's Good night, chosen by the deceased, were sung.

Remaining members of her family who will cherish her memory are: Donald of Los Angeles, California, (Amy) Mrs. Frederick Burk, Swampscott, Mass., (Maud) Mrs. Warren Sims, French River, (Georgie) Mrs. Bruce MacLeod, Kensington and James at Park Corner.

The pall-bearers were Oscar Johnstone, Heath Montgomery, Cuthbert Montgomery, Jas. Cousins, Ernest Johnstone and Bruce MacNutt.

ture here in your restaurant?"

"Yes, with a little chopped egg for a garnish. Serve whole wheat bread with this, and stewed or fresh fruit for dessert.

"As to dinner," Mr. Dempsey concluded, "eat whatever you like, but keep the foods plain and cook them so that all the food value is retained. Eat only a few fried foods. Use bread a day old. Eat lightly of sweets.

"If you want dessert, make a whole meal of it, but then don't eat the main course."

DINNER WITH JACK DEMPSEY

Tossed Salad with
Chopped Hard-Cooked Egg
Stewed Chicken and Vegetables in Broth
Baked Grapefruit
Cinnamon Style
Coffee Tea Milk

Tossed Salad with Chopped Hard-Cooked Egg: Prepare a salad bowl of crisp greens, shredded beets, celery, endive, lions, chicory, sliced tomatoes, chopped green and red peppers, and young onions. Pour in French dressing to moisten; toss with a salad fork and spoon. Serve garnished with chopped hard-cooked egg.

Stewed Chicken and Vegetables in Broth: Boil sectioned all-purpose chicken in salted water to half cover, with 3" stalks of celery (or celery hearts), young onions, young carrots and egg noodles. Serve with the natural broth in soup plates. If desired, a pound of lean beef may be added for flavor and to fortify soup.

Baked Grapefruit Cinnamon Style: Serve either as an appetizer or dessert. Prepare halves of grapefruit as usual; dust with sugar and cinnamon; bake in a slow oven until well heated throughout.

TRICK OF THE CHEF

Mrs. Hammond Rodd was hostess to the W. M. S. members of South Winsloe United Church on March 10th. Mrs. Heber Hardy was devotional leader and took for her theme, "Let This Mind Be In You." After the opening remarks by the leader, the hymn, Saviour Sprinkle Many Nations was sung Scripture Philippians 3. 8-16 was read by Mrs. Erith Hughes.

The programme from the Missionary Monthly was continued by the leader, followed by the prayer for the group's missionary by Mrs. Earle Rodd. A reading by the leader was followed by prayer. Mrs. Hammond Rodd gave a reading, "Christian Giving That Counts Something." The hymn, "In Christ There Is No East Nor West," closed this portion of the meeting.

The president, Mrs. Earle Rodd, presided over the business part of the meeting as follows. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Roll call was answered by seven members with a verse of scripture. There was one visitor present. Two membership fees were paid. Treasurer reported the study book paid for. Two thank-you notes were received for cards.

Letters from Mrs. Cutclife and Mrs. Sproule were read. Mrs. William Hambly was appointed leader for next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Harold Diamond with roll call to be answered with scripture verse, containing word "Rejoice." Mrs. Orville Turner is to have prayer for the missionary.

Mrs. Erith Hughes then presented very vividly two chapters of the Study Book on India. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Lona Turner and a social half hour spent.

SOUTH GRANVILLE W. I.

The South Granville W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Louis Corbett for its March meeting. The president, Miss Alexandra Keir, presided. The meeting opened with an Irish song, followed by repeating the Collect in unison. Members answered roll call by telling Irish jokes. Minutes of last meeting were read, approved and signed.

The committee in charge reported on the success of the Valentine Social held in the school. A tidy sum was realized, and $9.50 received from the auction of premium blankets. The secretary read the correspondence, which included a timely letter from Mrs. C. H. MacGuigan, Convener of Citizenship, who gave excellent suggestions for teacher retention and recruitment. The W. I. received a card from Mrs. Henry MacMillan who expressed appreciation and thank-you for the message of sympathy.

Mrs. Sheldon Abbott invited members to her home for next meeting. Roll call will be an exchange of plant slips.

New committees appointed this month are: school, Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. Louis Corbett; sick, Miss Helen Wall and Mrs. Stirling Corbett; programme, Miss Wall and Mrs. S. Corbett; lunch, Mrs. MacInnis and Mrs. L. Corbett.

The president extended a welcome and expressed the pleasure of the Institute to have Mrs. Coles at the meeting. A contest "Canadian Cities" put on by Mrs. MacInnis was won by Miss Alexandra Keir. One member contributed to Birthday Box. After singing "Happy Birthday" and "The Queen" lunch was served.

Mrs. Abbott entertained with Irish music and also was accompanist for other singers.

New Portrait Of Queen By Italian Painter

(By Alvin Steinkopf)

LONDON, (AP)—Italian painter Pietro Annigoni has completed a portrait of the Queen, and a few privileged art critics predict it will be hailed as "the picture of the year."

The critics had to be privileged because art authorities, looking forward to public exhibitions, still keep the portrait top secret. It remains unframed in the untidy Kensington studio in which Annigoni has finished everything except the final coat of varnish.

The portrait was commissioned by the Fishmongers' Company, one of London's ancient guilds, for presentation to the Queen. Annigoni dropped everything to devote four intense months to it, and the Queen gave him numerous sittings. The portrait will be submitted to Royal Academy for its summer exhibition.

PAINTER SATISFIED

Annigoni himself is satisfied with the five-foot canvas, a three-quarter-length portrait of the Queen standing in spring sunshine in the Windsor area.

He even admitted he had painted in a tiny joke.

Annigoni works in the style of old masters, giving painstaking attention to detail. His brush markings are almost invisible.

The little joke? It is a minute figure, distinct in the landscape, of a man fishing in a boat.

"That man is me, and it's a self-portrait," said Annigoni. "What you can't see is that under the water I have just hooked the biggest salmon you can imagine."

Select Committee To Study Estimates

OTTAWA, (CP)—Members of all parties expressed satisfaction Wednesday with a new parliamentary experiment—a special committee set up specifically to study government estimated expenditures for the next fiscal year.

In previous sessions the estimates were studied only by the Commons as a whole.

Ross Thatcher (CCF - Moose Jaw-Lake Centre) told the estimates committee the new system by which departmental ministers and heads of divisions appear personally for questioning, is proving most valuable.

He expressed his party's thanks to Immigration Minister Pickersgil for frank answers to questions by committee members.

The committee unanimously endorsed a report to the Commons approving the citizenship and immigration departmental estimates. It will be tabled in the Commons later.

BRACKLEY W. M. S.

Brackley Auxiliary of W.M.S., was entertained by Mrs. Raymond Sellick on the evening of March 7th with the president, Mrs. Wm. Younker presiding.

The worship service was conducted by Mrs. Guy Pierce and Mrs. R. Sellick, Theme: "Let This Mind be in You." Hymn, "Come, Holy Ghost, Our Hearts Inspire" was sung and selected Scripture reading given by Mrs. R. Bryenton followed by prayer by Mrs. Pierce.

The leaders gave interesting selections from the Study Book, subject, "Let's adjust our attitudes," based on Chapters 7 and 8 of "The Church in India." They were assisted by Mrs. E. Sellick who also read an Indian version of The Lord's Prayer. Hymn 258 closed this period.

Roll call was responded to by seventeen members and one visitor was present.

Correspondence was read and discussed. Receipt for donation to the Maritime Home for Girls was handed in and the question of having a summer rally decided favorably.

Thirty-one sick and friendship calls was reported and several "thank-you" cards read.

Mrs. Sproule kindly invited the Auxiliary to hold the April meeting at the Parsonage; roll call word, "Hope."

The programme included a poem by Mrs. Stewart, "The Ladies' Aid"; reading, Mrs. R. Bryenton, "Like a Mighty Army"; Poem by Mrs. Sproule. Several songs with guitar accompaniment were given by Mrs. Allison Bryenton and a reading entitled "Failure" by Mrs. Keith Cudmore.

Meeting closed with hymn 252 and Mizpah Benediction.

Lunch was then served and a social hour enjoyed.

BATHS PRECIOUS

YAXLEY, England (CP) —Municipal clerk Mary Chamberlain complains water facilities are so poor in this Huntingdonshire village that it is impossible to have a good bath.

Death At 99 Of Mr. Norman Beaton

—Mr. Norman Beaton died at the home of his son, Mr. Samuel S. Beaton, Summerside, on Saturday, March 12. He was in his 99th year and at the time of his death was the oldest man in the community.

The late Mr. Beaton was one of the last of the pioneer settlers in this Province who cleared the land from the forest to make their farms. He was born in Montague and at the age of 18 moved with his parents to a district just outside O'Leary which at that time was uncleared and unnamed. Mr. Beaton suggested that the community should be called Mount Royal and this name was selected. He helped in clearing the land for a homestead and also engaged in lumbering.

As a young man Mr. Beaton went to Boston, Mass., where he lived about four years before returning to the Island where he married the former Catherine MacDonald of Springton. He then went to western Canada and they were in Edmonton, Alta., when there were only three homes in the settlement and the rails of the C. P. R., had just reached that point. He later returned to the Island and settled at Mount Royal near his parents's home. He farmed there for some years later moving to Union Road, near Charlottetown, and finally locating at North St. Eleanors. This farm was absorbed into the present airport property in 1940 and since that time he has lived with his son. He had been more or less retired for the past twenty years.

In 1949 Mr. Beaton had the pleasure of being introduced to Prime Minister St. Laurent who was in Summerside in the course of an election tour. Accompanied by Mr. J. Watson MacNaught, M. P. the Prime Minister called on him in Summerside.

Mr. Beaton is survived by his wife and by three sons, Samuel in Summerside, Sterling in Charlottetown and Lorne in St. Eleanors; also one daughter, Bessie, Mrs. W. W. Taylor, of Vancouver, B. C., Two daughters, Sarah and Elizabeth died in childhood and a son, John, is also deceased. A brother, Alexander in Edmonton, Alta., and a sister, Mrs. Bruce Hayes, Vancouver, B.C., also survive, as do 11 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The funeral service took place Monday afternoon at the home with Rev. C. D. Matheson, minister of Trinity United Church, officiating. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Wesley Yeo, Kenneth Mills, Earle Cannon, Fred Barrett, Frank Sweet, Ivan Nicholson.

HAMPTON W. M. S.

The March meeting of the United Church Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Geo. P. Dunsford on Tuesday evening. March 1st with an attendance of 15 members. The theme: "Let This Mind Be In You". The president occupied the chair with the service being conducted by Mrs. R. H. Baxter. The service opened with hymn 155 'Come Holy Ghost our Hearts inspire". Scripture readings from "Philippians" were given by Mrs. Howard Myers and Mrs. James Ferguson followed with prayer by Mrs. Baxter. Hymn 258 closed the worship service.

Reports were heard from the officers. Supply secretary reported packing and sending Christmas cards. Knitted squares were passed in to be made into an afghan to be sent to Korea. The girls sewing club are working on baby's layettes to be also sent to Korea. Community Friendship Secretary reported 18 home calls, 13 treats and 21 cards sent.

A letter was read from our new Presbyterian President, with kind wishes for the welfare of the Society, it was decided to invite Mrs. Cutcliffe to be quest speaker at some of our services. Roll call was answered by a verse of Scripture. Offering was received.

Lunch was served by the committee assisted by the hostess. Next meeting to be at the Manse, word for roll call "Risen" also each member to memorize Philippians 2:1-8 meeting closed with hymn 261 and Benediction.

May Stockpile Bombs In Japan

TOKYO, (Reuters) — Japanese Premier Ichiro Hatoyama said Monday it "may be necessary" to allow American stockpiling of atomic bombs in Japan "if it can be assumed that we are now enjoying peace through strength."

But at the same time, Hatoyama, who has said he favors improved relations with Communist China and Russia while retaining post-war American and Japanese ties, said he is willing to open negotiations with the Chinese Communists "if it will prevent a third world war."

He told a press conference Japan is willing to establish normal diplomatic relations with the Chinese Communists providing the Communists do not insist on her breaking off diplomatic ties with the Chinese Nationalist regime of Gen. Chiang Kai-shek.
