STARCH AND CHEESE FACTORY.—We learn that the farmers of Mill View, Lot 49, and vicinity, have upwards of 200 acres of potatoes, subscribed to a Starch Factory. They can also guarantee the use of 1,000 cows for a Cheese Factory, within a small circle. Capitalists wishing to invest in one or both these enterprises could not procure a more suitable locality. Any further information required can be obtained of the Cor. Sec'y, J. R. Bourke, Mill View.

ART.—We were shown lately, at the residence of Col. Dunn, American Consul, two excellent crayon paintings of Leigh and Madeline, deceased children of Major James Peake. They were executed in Washington, by Miss Hettie Dunn, on whom they reflect the greatest credit. Framed in gilded oak, with mourning margin, the pictures stand out boldly, with pleasantly lighted up countenances. Those who knew the deceased children, and who have seen the drawings, pronounce them to be first-class pieces of art, well worthy of commendation.

WE are much pleased to learn that our friend Dr. Charles D. Heard, of McGill College, son of William Heard, Esq., of this city has passed an examination of the Royal College of Surgeons, and the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh. The examinations lasted nearly a week, and were very stiff. Two of the most eminent men in London, attended as a Commission, and as a result the examinations were much harder. The marks obtained were, notwithstanding, the highest for a year past. At the close of the examination, Dr. C. D. Heard, was first called in before the Board, and congratulated on the result—standing first out of seventy candidates—many of whom were British graduates. He was then presented with the diplomas of L. R. C. P. Edin., and L. R. C. S. Edin., two of the best degrees to be obtained in Europe.

THE central Temperance Committee met in this city Tuesday evening. Among the goodly number of those present we noticed the Rev. A. McGillivray, and Rev. D. G. McDonald. The Secretary submitted a fyle of correspondence received from the Rev. Island branch of the Alliance. After consideration the Central Committee agreed to lend every assistance to make said convention a success, and a committee was appointed to secure a suitable hall for the occasion. Further particulars will be made public hereafter. The necessity of an efficient branch of the Alliance for this Province must be admitted by all who are in any way interested in the success of the Scott Act, and we have no doubt it will be warmly supported by our leading men.

AMONG the shipments by D. McMillan, in the schooner "Neva," for St. Johns, N'fld, we noticed the cattle sold by F. L. Haszard, Esq., of this city, which were bred and fed at Belle View Farm. The largest of the three weighed 1,507 lbs., and is considered to be the largest and handsomest animal of the kind fed on the Island this season. He is nearly a pure short horn. Why do not breeders and feeders try to get animals of a similar kind?

Eldon Notes.

In the notes which from time to time appear in your paper, I often find matters of interest are entirely omitted, while sleigh rides, or slight accidents to horses or drivers, are mentioned apparently with deep interest. Efforts on behalf of the youth, or for the improvement and entertainment of the more advanced in years, are often passed over. I happened to be at Eldon a few evenings ago, when an entertainment in aid of the Presbyterian Sunday School, in that locality, was held in Mr. Moore's Hall. The Hall was beautifully decorated, and when I entered, the seats were nearly all filled. Everything seemed to indicate a pleasant and enjoyable evening. On the platform was arranged a number of young girls. At first I thought that the committee had picked out the best looking young ladies at Eldon, to show the public how much Eldon could excel all rival settlements in the beauty of its young ladies. I concluded, if that were the intantion, no more fitting occasion or better selection could have been made; but I found out, a few minutes later, that these young ladies were merely seated on the platform to sing the opening chorus—an object somewhat less ambitious, but well executed.

J. St. C. Moore, Esq., presided, and James Nicholson, Esq., M. P. P., invoked the Divine aid. Miss Katie Ross read a short address at the opening, and Miss Emma Moore at the closing of the proceedings. Both were neatly composed and neatly delivered. I was much pleased with the clear, distinct and composed style in which these young ladies performed their parts. The singing was very good, the music excellent. The dialogues were really entertaining. Where so many did so well, perhaps it would be invidious to mention names; but no one could surpass Mr. John A. Nicholson in his part of the dialogues. Mrs. Shedd, as the Agent of the Women's Rights Association, did her part well; but she must have experienced some pangs of conscience when she saw she was the cause of destroying the harmony of the household which Mr. J. A. Nicholson described so well. The picture of contentment and happiness drawn by Mr. Nicholson of the earlier part of his married life was affecting, but I could not see how it was likely to be maintained while Biddy occupied the position she did in the household. Biddy's promotion seemed imminent.

Two little girls, Mima Moore and Millie Dixon, I should say between three and seven years of age, sang one or two hymns which the audience appreciated very much. As for myself, I was delighted with the beautiful, small, clear voices, that sometimes seemed too timid to become audible. How often the still small voice overcomes us much more than the fire and storm which too often accompanies pure physical strength only. The experience of the Prophet is often felt yet, although the "Cave" may have been so enlarged as to lessen the inspiration. The Boys' Meeting was exceedingly well rendered. I sympathised very much with the boy that felt "so sleepy" and the boy that was not permitted to make a speech. There were many of the great absurdities around, very clearly carricatured in the "Meeting of Boys" to which I am referring. How very often a man is anxious to make a speech when no one desires to listen. I have seen men so impressed with the importance of the speech they desired to deliver, that I have often wondered why silence was not reckoned among the great gifts. I hope it may be yet, and if so, the boy that did not speak may be immortalized.

I have no time to do justice to Mrs. McSwain, Mrs. D. A. McLeod, Mr. Hugh McKay, and a number of young ladies whose names I do not know very well. Peleg and Patience would need to speak for themselves, and the rich cousin or uncle (I forget which) though very kind-hearted had a very hard time of it with his suddenly acquired riches. Riches so suddenly acquired bring in their train many evils, and it was not to be wondered at that a longing desire for his old simple mode of life, should occasionally steal accross the old man's mind. Peleg was perfectly natural. His outfit was perfect, and reflects credit on the person who designed it. The pocket handkerchief was immense, in more ways than one. His watch showed he encouraged the N. P., to an enormous extent. A rise in the price of wool cannot but succeed such a heavy demand on that article, if his watch-chain ever becomes fashionable His hat was sarcastic in its very appearance. I must stop for want of space.

THE MARKETS.

POTATOES.

A Boston circular of the 14th inst., reports that there is a slight supply and the market is firmer there. Maine Central and Northern Roses have been selling at 85 and 90 cents per bushel. Prolifics range from 85 cents to $1, and Jacksons from 75 to 80 cents, as to quality, while Chenangoes are not quoted. There has been a great many cargoes shipped from this Province during the past week—the majority of which were secured at 30 cents per bushel.

OATS.

English quotations remain the same, as published last week, with markets easier in Montreal, on the 14th, two lots were sold at from 39½ to 39¾, while in this city small quantities are being disposed of at from 45 to 48 cents, according to quality.

EGGS.

Reports of the 14th inst. from Boston, state that the receipts of eggs there are increasing. Eastern and Vermont are quoted at 13½, while Canadian and P. E. Island are quoted at 13 cents per dozen.

FLOUR, ETC.

A Halifax circular of the 16th says:—"Flour markets are very firm West, and wheat is getting scarce. Prices are from 75 to 96 cents per barrel lower than at this time last year, and we are of opinion that this is a good time to purchase." A report of the 14th from Montreal says: "The flour market has been very dull for this season of the year. Local receipts by rail and canal for week, 24,286 bbls.; total receipts from 1st January, 237,946 bbls.; against 128,142 bbls. at the corresponding date in 1880, an increase of 109,804 bbls. Shipments for the week, 11,547 bbls; total shipments from 1st January, 105,144 bbls., against 69,000 at the corresponding date in 1880, an increase of 36,139 bbls.

A Galt, Ont., circular of the 13th says: The position of our market is unaltered since my report of this day week. The weather is now very warm, varying from 90 to 95 degrees in the shade. This high temperature is unusual in early May, and coming immediately after the severe drought of the past month vegetation is completely checked. Rain is very much needed, and until it does come the newly seeded crops, as well as winter wheat, are in a precarious state.

Flour—The demand keeps steady. Stocks of both flour and wheat are low and are not accumulating. Prices are very firm at last week's quotations. The following are Montreal quotations on the 14th:—

Superior Extra	$5 30 @ 5 35
Extra Superfine	5 20 @ 5 25
Fancy	5 15 @ 0 00
Spring Extra	5 15 @ 5 20
Superfine	4 80 @ 4 85
Strong Bakers'	5 50 @ 6 15
Fine	4 30 @ 4 35
Middlings	4 00 @ 0 00

PORK.

The Montreal Gazette of the 14th inst. says:—"The rapid decline in the price of pork and lard in Chicago is about as remarkable as was the movement preceding it, when McGeoch had such a good thing on Armour, and many in the trade seem to think that the former gentleman is the guiding spirit in the present downward rush of values. Pork in Chicago sold down 32½c and 37½ per bbl to $16.15 and 16 20. May and June, $16 20 July. Lard was also very weak and 35c per 100 lbs lower, closing at $10.15 asked May and June, $10 17½ July. The stock of lard in the principal markets of the United States is 184,000 tierces, against 320,000 tierces at this time last year, showing a decrease of 136,000 tierces. In England the stocks are estimated at 57,000 tierces, and in Europe at about 50,000 tierces. The quantity afloat for Europe is estimated at 45,000 tierces. In this market the feeling in pork and lard was weak, and we quote Chicago mess pork $19.30 to $20, and Canada short-cut mess pork $20.50. Lard is also very quiet at 14½ to 15½c per lb. in pails for Fairbanks'.

HAY.

The Boston Shipping List 13th inst., says: "The hay market sustains the improved tone noticed last week, and good to choice Eastern and Canada command $21 to $22 per ton. Occasional extra cars command $23. The fire at the Boston & Maine depot destroyed about 300 tons hay. This has no particular effect on the market, as there is still enough to supply the regular demand, but it helps the improvement which set in previously. Rye straw is quiet at $25 to $26 per ton.

MACKEREL.

The mackerel are gradually working northward and if the run continues, as at present, the fishermen will soon be landing their captures here. Several fares were run into New York, during the last week, comprising 75 to 100 barrels each, fresh, and the fish were sold at from 2 to 5 cents a piece. Two trips of new salt mackerel were also landed, 350 barrels in all, which were sold at $4 to $4.50 per barrel and sent to Philadelphia. At Boston there has been a light business this spring in all kinds of dry and pickled fish, and prices are about the same as for several weeks past. The only receipts from St. John and P. E. I. of importance have been 2,325 barrels of mackerel, which are mostly unfier the control of dealers. A Boston writer says "good mackerel are going off pretty well, and if the Provincialists do not send too many this month present prices will be sustained. Large lots of Nova Scotia medium threes sold at $3.75 to $4.00 per barrel, but holders are not offering many at the first figure. American short mackerel are more desirable than any coming from the provinces this season, and command higher prices.—St. John News.

IT appears now that the celebrated "Hyde Estate," which has at various times excited attention during the last few years, turns out to be a sum somewhere in the vicinity of five dollars, and it is doubtful whether the family, even if so disposed, could establish their claim to this amount.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Shortness of Breath, Coughs, and Colds.—Thousands of testimonials can be produced to prove the power possessed by these corrective remedies in cases of asthma, incipent consumption, and all disorders of the chest and lungs. The Ointment, well rubbed upon the chest and back, penetrating the skin, is absorbed and carried directly to the lungs, where, in immediate contact with the whole mass of circulating blood, it neutralises or expels those impurities, which are the foundation of consumption, asthma, bronchitis, pneumonia and similar complaints. On the appearance of the first consumptive symptoms, the back and chest of the patient should be fomented with warm brine, dried with a coarse cloth, and Holloway's Ointment then well rubbed in. Its absorption will subdue advancing symptoms, and baffle this this formidable foe.
