Midsummer Examination.

UPPER PRINCE ST. SCHOOL.

The Annual Examination of the Upper Prince Street School took place yesterday, 24th inst., and was attended by an unusually large number of visitors...

At noon, the pupils were massed in the upper hall of the school, which was filled to overflowing. They then entertained the audience with recitations, dialogues, readings, and music.

PROGRAMME: Chorus—"Welcome." By the School. Reading—"Marco Bozzaris." By the School. Recitation—"The Children's Talk." By the School.

Chorus—"Welcome." By the School. Reading—"Marco Bozzaris." By the School. Recitation—"The Children's Talk." By the School.

Hon. John Longworth, Chairman of the Board of School Trustees, presided. On the platform were Hon. Mr. McDonald, T. Handrahan Esq., A. Kennedy, Esq., members of the School Board.

The excellent entertainment given on this occasion showed clearly that the instruction imparted by the teachers had not been in vain. The Readings and Recitations were superior. The performances of the Infant Department delighted all who heard them.

West River School.

The semi-annual examination of the West River School took place on the 21st inst., in the presence of a goodly number of parents and visitors. The room, which is commodious and well furnished, and which presents an appearance that for neatness is seldom surpassed in our country schools...

West River, June 22, 81.

CREDIT.

DEAR SIR,—The names of the following young ladies, attending the West Kent Street School, deserve honorable mention: Bertha Douse, Beatrice Cropley, Katie Brown, Katie Cameron, Ella Wilson, Edith Barrett, Leah Cobb. I most heartily thank the first on the list for the handsome gift China present.

Yours, &c., ALFRED A. MACKENZIE.

A QUESTION.

SIR,—It is reported by the Opposition party that a large majority of those employed in the Hospital for the Insane are Roman Catholics. I am not one of those who think that a man's creed should be any consideration in regard to appointments to office, but at the same time care should be taken that no undue proportion of the patronage should go to one denomination.

Yours, ENQUIRER.

Masonic.

At the Annual Communication of the M. W. Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M., of Prince Edward Island, held in this city on the 24th inst., the following brethren were elected office bearers for the ensuing year:—Hon. John Yeo—M W Grand Master.

David Schurman—W Junior Grand Deacon. C C Carleton, jr—W Grand Director of Ceremonies. Benjamin Champion—Assistant do. Joseph Fairchild—W Grand Sword Bearer. Charles R Clarke—W Grand Standard Bearer.

Editorial.

WHEN one of two men engaged in an argument loses his temper and calls names, a spectator finds little difficulty in determining that he has come off second best. In our editorial tests with the editor of the Patriot we have almost invariably the satisfaction to find our opponent give this, as well as other evidence, of the inherent weakness of his cause...

The Review at Sussex.

It is pleasing to see so much interest being taken in the Review at Sussex. Apart from the holidays which they deserve as well as they will enjoy, our militiamen will have a rare chance of seeing some more of their country and of their countrymen, of measuring themselves with others who have had continental advantages, and of gaining much useful knowledge which can be gained only by going abroad.

We congratulate Major Dogherly on his appointment to the command of the Battalion, and have no doubt that he will ably bear the responsibilities of the position.

The following is a list of the department staff:—

Major Russell G. Freeland, Brigade Major.

Major R. A. Cropley, Paymaster.

Major G. L. Dogherly, in command. Dr. Creamer, 82nd Battalion, Surgeon.

Major E. F. Purdy, 82nd Battalion, Adjutant.

Captain C. Owen, Georgetown Artillery, Quartermaster.

No. 2 Battery Artillery, Captain Irving commanding.

Charlottetown Engineers, Lieut. Horne commanding.

No. 1 Company, 82nd Battalion, Capt. Longworth.

Sergeant-Major F. Campbell, 82nd Battalion Sergeant-Major.

Sergeant Ewen Stewart, Quarter-Master Sergeant.

The Band of the 82nd Battalion, under Mr. Galbraith.

We learn that His Honor the Lieutenant Governor will address the detachment previous to their departure on Tuesday next.

"GRIP" says: "We exceedingly regret to announce that Mr. R. Harris, R. C. A., is about to leave Toronto, and this feeling will be shared by all his brother brushers, who, without exception, esteem him as a man and admire him as an artist. Mr. Harris is about to take up his residence in Europe, where we hope and believe he will soon make a name which will shed lustre on Canada. It is not unlikely however that the walls of the Ontario Exhibition room will be occasionally graced with his works sent from abroad, and we also have peculiar pleasure in stating that Mr. Harris has promised to contribute sketches from time to time to The Panorama, a new weekly illustrated newspaper shortly to be launched by Bengough Bros.

MANITOBA is going it strong. Among the estimates are: $25,925 for the assembly, $26,760 for civil government; $4,000 for fuel and light of public buildings. The total is $243,635, or as the Kingston Whig puts it, $56,685 besides the governor's salary, is spent in controlling an outlay of $185,950 and making a few laws each year. But the prairie province expects to grow.

SCARCITY OF LABORERS.—Le Nouvelliste, of Quebec, informs its readers that laborers have become scarce and that the shoe factories are running day and night to fill orders for the fall trade. This is as it should be during the whole year. Our confrere adds: "The same might be said about domestic help, and seamstresses."

AQUATIC.—WARREN SMITH COMING OUT AGAIN.—Warren Smith has entered for the Dominion Day regatta at Ottawa, and left Halifax for that place with his boats last evening. The Halifax Rowing Association have decided to enter Smith for the proposed Hop Bitters race.

A LARGE meeting of the Civic Protection Association was held in Ward 5 last evening. Stirring speeches were made by Messrs. Curtis, Hearz, Ladner, Tanton and McLaren, after which the meeting adjourned for a month.

The old organ at St. Peter's Church is being renovated to the extent of a new set of bellows, and of repaired tracker work. A small organ of two or three stops will be used during the work needed on the old one.

CHINA, it is said, finding how defenceless her frontiers are for want of railroads, has abandoned her old policy and made a contract for the construction of five hundred miles of railway.

JOHN McPHERSON, aged 22, a native of P. E. I., fell off a wharf at Cariboo, Pictou, on the 15th inst., and was drowned.—Hx. Herald.

MR. ALEX. McNAB, wife and family, left this morning for Halifax.

It is said that in many parts of the United States much trouble from strikes, etc., is apprehended.

TO-MORROW EVENING Rev. Dr. Murray will deliver (D. V.) in the Prince Street Presbyterian Church, at half past six o'clock, p. m., a discourse on the Mosaic Law, its object, and how it accomplished it.

SEVERAL of the students from St. Dunstan's College left by the "Princess of Wales" this morning for their vacation.

The Odd Fellows' Bazaar, in the Skating Rink, on the 29th, will be the best of the season.

JUSTICE HENRY, of the Supreme Court of Canada, left Ottawa for P. E. Island on the 23rd. He is coming on Exchequer Court business.

LABOR troubles on the wharves in Montreal continue.

REMEMBER the Odd Fellows' Bazaar.

MAYOR DAWSON, lay delegate to the Methodist Conference, has returned home.

SHOULD attend the Oddfellows' Bazaar, one and all.

The New York Legislature has not yet succeeded in electing senators to succeed Conkling and Platt.

The Strawberry Festival on Wednesday next, at the Rink, should be well patronized.
