Widow Of Anastasia In Toronto - Defends Husband

defended the man once known as TORONTO (CP)—The Ontario-born widow of Albert Anastasia pleaded for secrecy Thursday and the chief executioner for a murder ring. In an interview, the 41-year-old woman said her chief fear was that her late husband's past would become known to her neighbors in the exclusive Toronto district where she lives with three of her four children.

WELLINGTON

Mr. Roy Gallant recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Gallant.

She declined to discuss any of the associates of Anastasia, shot to death as he sat in a barber's chair at the Park Sheraton Hotel in New York last Oct. 25. He had been blamed for more than 30 killings as onetime head executioner for Murder Inc., during a 36-year crime career.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gallant and two daughters of Moose Jaw, Sask., spent a few weeks visiting relatives in Mont Carmel, Egmont Bay and Summerside.

"My baby, my children—how can they live if people know who they are, who their father was," she asked a reporter. "I just want to come back to the city where I had lived as a girl, where my mother and sister live, and to be at peace," the veiled woman said.

Miss Marguerite Richard has returned home after spending a few weeks at the home of her brother, Albert in Moncton.

GUNMEN AT LARGE The two black-gloved gunmen who killed her husband still have not been caught. She said she was born in Copper Cliff, Ont., near Sudbury.

Miss Esther Gallant and Miss Freda Bernard, Moncton, visited their parents here.

Anastasia, Italian-born immigrant who rose from the docks of Brooklyn to the throne room of crime, "gave generously to the church." Mrs. Anastasia, who said she uses another name now, said she spent her early years in Toronto.

Mr. James Gallant of Canadian Army stationed at Camp Sussex, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Emilie Gallant.

"My father was in a business here—he had a chain of meat markets. . . I was educated in Europe and spent most of my time there until I was 16. . . I met my husband when I was not quite 18. I was in New York with my father on a visit to see relatives there and I met him at a party. . . He was very attractive.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben V. Gallant have returned from a 2 weeks visit in Montreal where they attended the wedding of their adopted son Theodore, who is with the R.C.N. stationed there.

"We were married soon after I was 19. We were very happy. I thought he was a big business man. He never told me his business. . . I didn't know about him till years later and. . . I had to read it in the papers. "I BELIEVED HIM"

Mr. Eric Gaudet spent the weekend with his family in Cape Egmont. They will accompany him to Newfoundland where he is stationed with R.C.A.F.

"When I asked him, he told me it wasn't true all those things they said about him and I believed him. "He adored the children. We had four and he was always nice to them. Our oldest son is at law school in New York and the other three are here with me. The second boy wants to be a doctor. He's in his teens. There's a girl of public school age and then there's a baby girl a year old."

Miss Georgina Gallant has arrived home from Toronto where she has been employed for the last few months.

Mrs. Anastasia said she came to Toronto in November "and I intend to stay here." "I live very modestly. I have enough to get by on. I got the insurance, of course." She said that in New York they lived in a Hudson River mansion behind a 10-foot floodlit fence patrolled by Doberman Pinschers.

Mr. Alcide Arsenault left February 20th to be employed on H.M.S. Cygnus.

"He used to go to church with me every Sunday. The children went too. We never failed. Now he's not even buried in a consecrated cemetery. "I've lost weight and I'm a nervous wreck with worry. I have a heart condition and I've been going to the doctor here every second day. God give me peace."

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Birch on Friday, when friends called on the occasion of Mrs. Birchs' birthday. On this occasion she was the recipient of many tokens of remembrance.

The many friends of Mrs. Raymond Campbell are pleased to see her home from the Prince County Hospital.

Mrs. John Winchester returned home after spending several weeks in Kensington with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert MacArthur.

Miss Dorothy Gamble employed in Summerside, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Major Gamble, Southwest.

Mrs. Robert Winchester and daughter were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Laughlin, Summerside.

Mrs. Henry Arsenault entertained at a birthday party in honor of her only daughter Miss Sharon's 8th birthday on Thursday afternoon. Several of Sharon's friends were present to help her celebrate the occasion. She thanked her friends for their lovely gifts. The afternoon was spent in games and contests after which a tasty lunch was served to all. The guests were Misses Jean and Lena Arsenault, Sophie Gallant, Lynda Da, Marcia Gallant and Velma Arsenault.

The many friends of Adrian Gallant will regret to learn he has had to leave his studies at Bathurst College through illness and is spending some time at his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gallant.

Messrs Fiedelle Perry and David MacCarville returned to their studies at Vocational School in Charlottetown, after spending the weekend at their respective home.

Miss Cecille Richard and Barbara McNeill, student nurses at P.C. Hospital, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Faustine Richard.

A meeting to organize the Local Order of St. Gilbert was held recently at the school. Rev. MacIntyre spoke on the benefits of the movement. Following the business session there was an entertainment program and a delicious lunch was served by the ladies of the Altar Society.

Mrs. Helen Arsenault visited her sister Mrs. Marguerite Gallant who is in the P.C. Hospital.

Miss Emily Maddix, student at Miscoche Convent, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Maddix.

Miss Marie Maddix commercial student at Summerside, visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Alyre Maddix.

The death occurred at P. C. Hospital of Joseph Raymond, 4 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Gallant. Funeral was held on Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Nazaire Poirier officiated at the grave. Pallbearers were Messrs: Frank and Wallace Curran, Roger Gaudet and Camille Caisie. Present at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. W.E. MacCausland of Summerside and Mr. Julien Gaudet of Miscoche.
