

THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

AGENTS:—MONTAGUE: Harold F. Landry, Mrs. Byron Stewart. AGENT GEORGETOWN: Waldon Lavers.

The Guardian may be bought at the following places in Montague: Blue Dome Restaurant, and Guardian Office; in Georgetown: The Post Office; in Souris: The Snack Bar.

RECEIVES NEWS OF DEATH

Mrs. Alex N. MacPherson, Grandview, has received word that her brother, Malcolm A. MacLeod, passed away at his home in Boston on Friday, December 18.

OURING-SMOKING

Ship or bring—Hansen's Market, Summer-side.

PERSONALS

Students of Mount Allison University spending the holiday season at their homes in Montague are Douglas Johnston, Louis Don Johnston and James MacDonald.

WHIM ROAD W. I.

Mrs. J. N. MacDonald was hostess to members of the Whim Road W. I. when they met at her home on December 2.

In answering roll call, each member passed a gaily wrapped Christmas gift in a container and later this was passed around.

Arrangements were made to hold several dances in the near future to raise the funds.

In response to a request by the Orphanage for making stuffed dolls for Christmas, Mrs. Wesley Campbell consented to make one to be sent from the Institute.

Mrs. M. J. Munro, who represented the Institute at the leadership course held in Montague the previous week, gave an interesting and enlightening report on the meeting.

Reports of the previous committees followed: sick—three calls were made on the sick during the month and treats were provided on these occasions.

The death occurred in the City Hospital on Dec. 14 of Mrs. Victor Beaton, a highly respected resident of East Point.

Members were advised to have their gifts ready before December 18, to be sent to the Infirmary. The shut-ins of the district will also be remembered at Christmas time.

Mrs. Webb Nicholson delighted the members with her interesting demonstration of a decorative pool holder rack.

A penny sale was held by Miss Edith MacDonald, and the winner was Mrs. Webb Nicholson.

Everyone enjoyed the delicious lunch served by the hostess, Mrs. MacDonald during the social chat following the meeting.

Rollo Bay and Vicinity

Many of the farmers of the surrounding area have been busily engaged threshing.

Sheriff J.E. Reid and Mrs. Reid left recently for Ohio, U.S.A., where they will spend Christmas with their son, Willard.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Doucette returned home from the Yukon.

Mr. Preston Brynion of Rollo Bay, left on a visit to relatives and friends in U.S.A.

Films were shown on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Clifford Townshend.

Mr. Temple Whelan of Charlottetown spent the recent week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacKinnon, Rollo Bay.

The teacher, Miss Elaine MacKinnon, and pupils of Rollo Bay West School are busy preparing a Christmas concert to be held in the school on December 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph MacCormack plan to move into their new house by the latter part of this week.

Mr. William A. White of Rollo Bay is constructing a new barn.

Mr. Daniel MacRae has completely remodelled his barn and now has a fine looking barn.

East Baltic and Vicinity

Mrs. Flora Watson, Montague, is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital.

Miss Rose McDonald, Souris, has accepted a position as clerk with the Pharmacy in Souris.

Miss Margaret Coffin, returned to her work at Souris having spent some few days at her home in Kingsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hunter, North Lake, were recent visitors to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur James, Kingsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ramsay and daughter Debra of Elmira, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Jarvis, Kingsboro.

Red Point East Baltic Mission Band was held at the home of Mrs. Stewart McGregor, East Baltic on December 12, with a large attendance of children.

Mrs. Nelson Stewart, Red Point, spent the recent week end with her daughter, Miss Carolyn Stewart, Charlottetown.

Messrs. Johnnie Young, Kenneth Campbell, Leith Robertson, Roy and Lloyd George Robertson, Red Point, attended the meeting at St. Peter's on December 4 in connection with the Aircraft Observers Posts.

Mr. Peter McDonald, employee Abegweit, Borden, spent a few days at his home in East Lake.

The fishing men who are interested in lobstering here already started knitting heads and getting their boats turned in preparation for the building of traps and many have lost all or at least half of their fleet due to the spring storm.

Mrs. Francis Hill, Frenchfort, spent a few days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Boswell Robertson, Munn's Road. She also visited with Mrs. Robert A. Dixon, East Baltic, and Mrs. Kenneth McGregor, Kingsboro.

Red Point, Kingsboro, East Baltic young men and boys on December 12, put up a building on the Red Point Community Rink property to be used as a dressing room.

The Air Craft Observer Mr. Ross Young and his five young men as spotters were on the alert from 11 A. M. till 7 P. M. December 13, at the Air Craft Observer post, Nan Baker No. 52, Black Basin Head.

Mr. Alvin Burke, Pisiquid, has returned from Boston, after being there with a load of Christmas trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen MacDonald were recent visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Rodgerson were recent visitors to Charlottetown on Dec. 12 on business.

Mr. Stephen MacDonald has accepted a position as teacher in St. Patrick's Road School.

Canadian farms had almost 400,000 tractors in 1951, eight times as many as in 1921.

At Central Christian Church Rev. Marvel D. Dunbar, the pastor, took as his Christmas sermon in the morning, "What More Could He Give" as he elaborated on the sacrifices of Christ for the world's sake.

There were two longtime favorite carols heard at the evening service when the male quartettes were heard in "O, Holy Night," and "Silent Night." Following the evening services "Christmas Joys" (films and carols) was thoroughly enjoyed by the large gathering.

The Salvation Army, led by Senior Captain L. Tilcombe, paid its annual visit to the jail in the morning and conducted a brief Christmas service there for the inmates.

Midnight Masses will be held at both St. Dunstan's Basilica and the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer. At St. Peter's Cathedral there will be the annual celebration of the Midnight Eucharist on Christmas Eve while St. Paul's

PERFECT CHRISTMAS GIFT SUGGESTIONS... Player's "MILD" 50's and 200's. FLAVOUR-PROTECTING alumi-foil CARTONS OF 200. HANDY FLAT TINS OF 50. You're sure to please with Player's at Christmas... Canada's Mildest, Best-Tasting Cigarette

St. Columba and Vicinity

There passed away at her home at Lakeville, on Dec. 14, Mrs. Alfred McEachern, after a lingering illness.

Miss Ruth Murphy, nurse-in-training at the Charlottetown Hospital, is spending a few days at her home in Montague.

The death occurred in the City Hospital on Dec. 14 of Mrs. Victor Beaton, a highly respected resident of East Point.

Members were advised to have their gifts ready before December 18, to be sent to the Infirmary.

Mrs. Webb Nicholson delighted the members with her interesting demonstration of a decorative pool holder rack.

A penny sale was held by Miss Edith MacDonald, and the winner was Mrs. Webb Nicholson.

Everyone enjoyed the delicious lunch served by the hostess, Mrs. MacDonald during the social chat following the meeting.

In Memoriam

JAMES H. REILLY

There passed away at Gasperaux on Monday, November 23, after a short illness, James H. Reilly, in the eighty-second year of his age.

He was a devoted follower of the sport of kings and was a familiar figure on the race tracks of the province.

He possessed of a kind and generous nature, and having a high regard for honesty and fair dealings, he will be sorely missed in the home and also a great loss to the community wherein he lived.

In his later years he was afflicted with partial blindness, but even under this handicap, he moved about his business and over the land he loved so well, and which so richly repaid his diligence and industry.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father, his wife, the former Minnie Llewellyn of Gasperaux, with whom he lived happily for nearly sixty years, and the following sons and daughters:—Raymond, at home; Howard, Randolph, Mass.; Ella, Mrs. C. M. Rimbach, Watertown, Mass.; Doris, Oenison Texas; Bertha, Mrs. Harry Graham, Gasperaux; and Hazel, Mrs. Elliott Kemp, Gasperaux.

His funeral which was very lavishly attended took place on Thursday, Nov. 26. A short service was held at the home, followed by service at the Presbyterian Church at Murray Harbor North, conducted by Rev. Currie. Hymns sung were, "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Asleep in Jesus," "Shall We Meet Beyond the River," A duet, "The Haven of Rest," was sung with much feeling by Mrs. Chester McLure and Mrs. Weston Johnson.

The pall bearers were: Cephas Davey, Ernest Shaw, Howard Steele, Everett Dixon, William F. Steele and James McNulty.

Many messages of sympathy were received and following are the floral tributes:—Wreath: Wife, Raymond and Ruby. Wreath: Bertha and Harry. Wreath: Howard and Vera. Pillow: Doris, Ella and Mill. Spray: Hazel and Elliott.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late James H. Reilly wish to thank Dr. Brehaut, Rev. Carl Currie and all their kind neighbors and friends and all those who sent cards and messages of sympathy or helped in any way during their recent bereavement.

Fanning Brook Notes

Messrs. Ralph Coffin, Ernest Bambrick and Oliver Douglas of Head of Hillsboro, were recent visitors at Fanning Brook.

Mr. Billie MacKenzie is visiting his sister, Mrs. Mearl Rodgerson.

Mr. Percy Buchanan spent the week-end of December 12 visiting friends here.

The strawberry growers in this vicinity have taken advantage of the mild weather to get their strawberries covered.

The pupils of Fanning Brook School are getting prepared for a Christmas concert on Dec. 21.

Mr. Alvin Burke, Pisiquid, has returned from Boston, after being there with a load of Christmas trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen MacDonald were recent visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Rodgerson were recent visitors to Charlottetown on Dec. 12 on business.

Mr. Stephen MacDonald has accepted a position as teacher in St. Patrick's Road School.

Canadian farms had almost 400,000 tractors in 1951, eight times as many as in 1921.

At Central Christian Church Rev. Marvel D. Dunbar, the pastor, took as his Christmas sermon in the morning, "What More Could He Give" as he elaborated on the sacrifices of Christ for the world's sake.

There were two longtime favorite carols heard at the evening service when the male quartettes were heard in "O, Holy Night," and "Silent Night." Following the evening services "Christmas Joys" (films and carols) was thoroughly enjoyed by the large gathering.

The Salvation Army, led by Senior Captain L. Tilcombe, paid its annual visit to the jail in the morning and conducted a brief Christmas service there for the inmates.

KETTLE SAVED

CHATHAM, Ont., (CP)—Only an electric tea kettle was saved Friday night when fire destroyed the two-story brick home of James Rhodes, Raleigh township farmer. He estimated damage at $25,000. Cause of the blaze is unknown.

CORRESPONDENT WED

MOSCOW, (AP)—Sidney Weiland, Reuters correspondent in Moscow, and Miss Rose Marie Fabian, a Briton and former employee of Reuters in London were married Saturday. British Ambassador Sir William Hayter performed the ceremony.

WASTED TIMBER

Forest fires destroyed 280,000 cubic feet of timber in Canada in 1952. Rupert's House, built in 1668, is the Hudson's Bay Company's oldest trading post on Hudson Bay.

There Ought To Be A Law

CURIOUSLY THOUGHT THE JOKE HEARD IN THE OFFICE WAS A LULU. HE LAUGHED SO HARD HE NEARLY SWALLOWED HIS UPPERS...

By Fagaly And Shorter

BUT WIVES ARE WIVES AND JOES ARE JOES... AND NEVER THE TWAIN SHALL MEET...

Out Our Way

BOY, IT'S SMOOTH AS GLASS! NEVER SAW MORE BEAUTIFUL ICE! NOW FER OUR SKATES!

By J. R. Williams

AN' A COUPLE BROOMS-- BUT TH' SNOW'S NO THICKER'N DUST! WHUT A DAY! WHUT A NIGHT, WITH A MOON!

WHEN YOU'D LOVE TO LIVE FOREVER

J.R. WILLIAMS '72-28

PRINCE EDWARD NOW SHOWING

A Love Story of Show Business! M-G-M presents MAIN ST. TO BROADWAY NEVER BEFORE SO MANY FAMOUS STARS TOGETHER IN ONE MOVIE! Shows 3:30 7-9

CAPITOL MON. - TUES. - WED. 3:30 - 7:00 - 9:00

JAMAICA RUN RAY MILLAND - ARLENE DAHL WENDEL COREY

Our Christmas Wishes That Santa will bring you lots of wonderful presents... that your Christmas will be the best ever... that God will bless you in everything you do in the New Year. BISON RESTAURANT MONTAGUE

COMPLETE VISUAL REFRACTIO: AND ANALYSIS G. F. HUTCHESON & SON Optometrists 53 Grafton Street