OBITUARY

MRS. JAMES MURPHY

The sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. James Murphy (Hilda Gallant) in the Charlottetown Hospital on July 8, 1966 came as a great shock to her family, neighbors, and a host of friends. She was born in New Haven, P.E.I., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gallant with whom she resided until her marriage to Mr. James Murphy of Milvale, P.E.I. After her marriage, she resided at 3 Spruce Street, Charlottetown, where, in the very short time allotted her, she left many memories of a sincere and Christian person. Memories which will be cherished by many, for Hilda, as she was so familiarly known and now so fondly remembered, was of a quiet disposition, a kind and gentle person, possessing a personality which endeared her to all whom she met. Musically gifted, she shared her talent generously, and without thought of personal recognition she enriched the lives and gladdened the hearts of all who were acquainted with her. Active in both church and community, she was a member of the Catholic Women's League of The Most Holy Redeemer Church, Charlottetown, and a long time member of the staff of the Co-Op Super Market, Charlottetown.
