Fine Performance By Pianist In S'ide

A capacity audience was thrilled Tuesday night by the outstanding performance of pianist Herman Godes. This, the initial concert of the Community Concert Association series, was held at the Summerside High School Auditorium. To open the program, Godes played the organ Prelude and Fugue in D major by Bach-Busoni. Having set the stage with the majestic prelude, the pianist, by a combination of a well-chosen tempo and subtle approach, brought the Fugue to an impressive climax. Rarely has the critic heard such a demanding Fugue so clearly enunciated. Completing the first group with the Sonata Op. 77 No. 1 by Beethoven Mr. Godes showed his outstanding ability in interpreting the composer's ideas to the audience. This work while not the most brilliant of the master's piano sonatas nevertheless requires an exactitude of performance which the artist achieved with precision. It was a remarkable show of what dynamics, when brilliantly handled, can accomplish. The Chopin group, which followed, while not executed with as much romanticism as is desired of this composer proved nonetheless pleasing. Mr. Godes displayed a solid grasp of the technicalities involved as well as a lovely singing tone. In his last group, which included works by Bartok, Debussy, Ravel and Dohnanyi, the performer showed himself quite as much at home amongst the modern composers as he did with those of the classical and romantic periods. In Debussy a more ethereal and colorful treatment would be preferred. Throughout the entire program Herman Godes displayed a sound technique, musicianship and adaptability plus a charming personality—the qualities needed in an excellent pianist.

Bentley Demmings Wedding

Perth, N. B., United Baptist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Monday, September 22, when Rev. Wilson Bridge united in marriage, with the double ring ceremony, Miss Rita Marion Demmings, R.N., daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Basil E. Demmings, of Aroostook, and Flying Officer David A. H. Bentley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bentley, of Charlottetown, P. E. I. The church was decorated with standards of white and pink gladioli and greenery, and the guest pews were marked with tiny nosegays of baby mums and satin ribbon.

Mrs. N. H. MacPhail presided at the organ, and D. R. MacLellan, as guest soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I'll Walk Beside You". The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, A. E. Irvine, of Perth, was attended by Miss Charlotte McIntyre, R.N., of Bristol, as maid of honor, and Miss Frances Dunn, R.N., of Truro, N. S., as bridesmaid. Little Carol Demmings, niece of the bride, was flower girl. William MacRae, of Montreal, was groomsmen, and the ushers were Clifford Demmings, brother of the bride, and Gerald Ketch, of Aroostook.

The bride was wearing a waltz-length imported bridal gown of white Chantilly lace and net. Over the strapless fitted bodice was a long-sleeved lace jacket which had a wing collar, and the full skirt over crinoline was of white tulle. Her short veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a small lace hat, and she carried a colonial bouquet of Sweetheart roses and stepanotis.

Miss MacIntyre and Miss Dunn wore identical outfits of Queen's blue net over taffeta, which were strapped with boleros and matching head bandeaus. They carried nosegays of American Beauty roses.

Little Miss Demmings, as flower girl, was wearing a baby pink net-over-taffeta dress with a crimoline, matching mitts and a bandeau of baby pink roses. She carried a basket of Sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Alfred E. Irvine, aunt of the bride, was attired in a street-length jet velvet dress piped with white. She wore black and white accessories, and a shoulder spray of red roses.

Mrs. Bentley, mother of the groom, wore a rose beige blister crepe ensemble with black accessories and a shoulder spray of yellow roses.

A reception for about 150 guests was held at Ann's. The toast to the bride was proposed by Dr. R. W. L. Earle and responded to by the groom. Miss Janet Curry and Miss Mary Armstrong poured. Mrs. William MacAllister and Mrs. T. W. Tomlinson served the bride's table, and those serving the other guests were: Mrs. Edward Kukuruk, Mrs. Delbert MacLeod, Mrs. W. G. Campbell, Mrs. Fred Hayward, Mrs. Bertram Inman and Miss Mary Jean MacPhail. Mrs. Clifford Demmings was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Bentley left for a trip through the New England States on the Laurentians. For travelling, the bride chose a smoke blue dressmaker suit with black accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses. On their return they will reside in Montreal, where the groom is stationed with No. 426 Air Transport Squadron of the R.C.A.F.

Guests attending the wedding from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bentley, Charlottetown; Mr. and Mrs. William MacRae, Montreal; Mrs. Ervine E. Wright, Hamilton, Ont.; Mrs. Arthur Still, Millville, N.S.; Mrs. E. A. Seelye and Harold Seelye, Woodstock; Mrs. M. McLaughlin and Miss Elva McLaughlin, Limestone, Me.; Miss Frances Dunn, Truro, N. S.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scribner, Presque Isle, Maine; Miss Charlotte MacIntyre, Bristol; Miss Betty Dexter, Fort Fairfield; Mr. and Mrs. E. Irvine, A. D. Goodine, Miss Myrtle Brown, R.N., and Miss Nan Barnhill, R.N., all of Plaster Rock, and Miss Orpha Margison, R.N., Centreville.

S'IDE W.M.S.

—The October meeting of the W.M.S. of the Summerside Presbyterian Church was held in the Church Hall on Tuesday afternoon with a splendid attendance. Mrs. J. Donald MacKay was in charge of the devotional period and Mrs. Cleve Whalen was organist.

Following invocation and prayer the psalm "O come let us sing unto the Lord" was sung and Psalm 107 read responsively. Mrs. Brecken Simmons offered prayer.

As Thanksgiving was the theme of the meeting, the leader read a thought provoking meditation on that subject. The singing of "We praise Thee O God" closed that part of the program. The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. William Forbes, and roll call was responded to with a Bible verse suitable to Thanksgiving. Mrs. Ernest Walker read a most interesting article, entitled "Are We Lazy Christians?" written by Miss Helen Bricker, National Girl's Work Secretary, who attended the World Conference of Christian Youth in India.

Mrs. Hilbert Johnston, delegate to the 66th Annual Presbyterial held in Tyron, gave a splendid report of the meetings. The minister addressed the group, encouraging them in work and giving suggestions for the future. —S you are not content, go elsewhere, though I do not think you will find anybody in Lima who would offer you so much."

Angus Maine spoke. "Forgive me for butting in, Signora," he said, "but there is another little point that you may have overlooked. Suppose the Government decides to take a hand?"

"That idea has occurred to me also," declared Alvarez. "In such a case the signora may find herself very disappointed."

"Now let me talk, my friends," suggested Jacob. "I am older than any of you, but still quite intelligent. I would suggest a course of action calculated to please us all and obviate any tiresome bargaining and future tribulation. In the first place I am, of course, quite at one with you, Antonio, as to the scientific and international value of these things, and I feel very sure that Angus is right when he says the authorities may have something to say about them, after our secret is out. Peru is the right and proper place for this treasure, and in Peru it must emphatically remain."

DAN DAILEY STARS IN TENSE DRAMA CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE

—Filmed almost entirely in Manhattan, the background of the city adds greatly to the drama which is the story of 18 exciting hours in the life of a New York cabbie, played by Dan Dailey. Constance Smith is perfectly cast as a colleen, just off a ship from Ireland, with only a one-day pass to remain in the city. She is searching for her American husband who deserted her six months previously.

Don Dailey, a warm-hearted man with a hard-boiled exterior, drives the helpless girl around New York. Together they share many adventures — some comic, some tragic, but all human and appealing. Eventually he softens toward the girl—even goes as far as to put up a $500 bond so that she can continue her hunt.

But the deeply touching story beautifully played by Dailey, Miss

Smith and a large supporting cast make it a must. Dailey is exactly right as the cab driver—salty, satiric but with a deep current of compassion beneath. Miss Smith, one of the loveliest new actresses to grace the screen (she had important role in "The Mudlark," "Red Skies of Montana" and "The Thirteenth Letter"), is thoroughly convincing as the bewildered colleen.
