LIEUT.-GOVERNOR AND 'TIMMY'

'Timmy' Makes First Sale Of Easter Seals

"I much appreciate the opportunity to take part in this worthy objective so ably sponsored by the Rotary Club. I hope it will meet with the success it so richly deserves," Lieutenant-Governor W.J. MacDonald said as he made the purchase of the first Easter seals from "Timmy" Sidney Blackett, at the Rotary luncheon held at the Charlottetown Hotel yesterday.

"Timmy", is the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Blackett, Bay Fortune, P.E.I. and has been a patient in the Rehabilitation Centre since 1962 with a hip condition. His complete recovery is anticipated.

"I want to thank those who picked me as Timmy and also the Rotary Club for assisting me and other patients at the Rehabilitation Centre," the youth said.

Celebrating the birthday of Rotary this week, Reuel LePage, district governor told how the first club was organized in Chicago 59 years ago and consisted of a group of five men interested in getting better acquainted in fellowship and friendship. "Today there are 11,638 clubs with a total membership of 543,000 in 129 countries, all accepting the responsibility undertaken by the originators, with many added features", Mr. LePage said.

Six new members were introduced by their sponsors and welcomed by president, W.R. Jenkins and presented with Rotary buttons by Andrew Likely, vice-president. Copies of essential literature were presented by Bryan Cudmore, secretary. The new members are Ralph Jenkins, by W.R. LePage; Doug McKeen, by R.G. Boyne; Gordon Avard; William Ellis, by Verdun Tredenick; James O Hornby, by Alastair MacLeod; Elmer MacRae, by Walter Cox.

ST. FX HEAD COACH

Don Loney, head coach at St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, was guest speaker. "Healthy young men who can be moulded and blended together make a good football team," the speaker said "but discipline and self-sacrifice and a measure of humility are necessary to team work. Players who set up a situation for others to score, although not spectacular, are as essential as others on a team effort", Mr. Loney stated.

Comparing the Maritime situation with regions in the United States, Mr. Harvey referred to the only interest of American coaches, that is "to win". In the Maritime Conference, with smaller college units, while regarding a win as an achievement, he pointed out that to lose is no disgrace. "Play always within the rules", the speaker said.

Introduced by chairman James Allen, the speaker was thanked by co-chairman William Peters.

Mr. Loney, who is a native of Ottawa and attended high school in Montreal. He played professional football with the Ottawa Rough Riders, and was selected on all-star teams of '47, '48, '49. He won the Jeff Russell trophy in 1950, awarded to the player considered most useful to his team. St. FX, whose team he now coaches, has taken all Maritime titles since 1958.

Visiting Rotarians were Earl MacEachern, Eric Woodside and M.D. McEwen, all of Summerside.
