HERE ARE OUR IDEAS AND OUR PRACTICE

An Advertising Authority Correctly Said:

"All an advertisement ever did or ever can do is to bring people to you. The quickest way in the world to kill an advertisement is not to have the goods advertised when people come for them. Another way is to advertise goods which will not give satisfaction. Keep your advertisements as true as the Bible. Then, when people come to make your advertisements effective is to treat customers in the store every bit as well as your promise in the papers."

This contains our code of ethics in Advertising.

RACES AT WELLINGTON.

The race meeting at Wellington Wednesday, the summary of which we published yesterday, was attended by a fairly good crowd, although in the morning when the train arrived from Summerside with less than a score of passengers, and the prospect was not cheering for the management.

The people from the neighboring settlements came in about one o'clock, and by the time starter Brennan rang up the first heat of the 240 class the fence around the track was well lined on both sides of the judges' stand.

Among the side shows that seemed to interest the crowd the performance of a large brown bear was not the least. The intelligence of the animal was wonderful, and it was worked without ceasing by the man in charge, whose nationality was evidently Canadian.

The races were each decided in straight heats, and the starting judge, W. A. Brennan, Esq., introduced for the first time in this Province the system adopted by many of the American tracks. The driver each had a letter in his arm, and by this means the position of each during the heat could be checked. The blackboard, instead of having the names of the horses, as formerly, had only the letter that was carried by each driver, and without a score card it was impossible to tell which horse won.

The only hitch in the meeting was a protest offered against the b.g. Egmont, which was not entertained by the judges. This horse was said to have made a record of 2:48 at Alberton in 1893, but evidence was put in showing that he had been given the time of a horse that had been set back, although Egmont was the third horse at the wire on that occasion. With this exception nothing occurred to spoil the enjoyment of all present.

Mr. J. F. Arsenault, the Secretary, was increasing in his efforts to give every accommodation to the officials of the race, and can be congratulated on the success of the races at Lakeside Park.

Had not the day first advertised for the meeting been unfavorable, no doubt a much larger gathering would have been present.

POLICE COURT PROCEEDINGS.

About 8 o'clock last evening a young woman named Sarah Elliott called at the Police Station and reported that she had lost a silver watch with gold chain, and that she suspected two boys named Palmer and McLaughlin, aged 8 and 5 years respectively, of having stolen it. Sergeant Bradley accompanied the girl to the homes of both boys, and took the Palmer boy to the station. The boy admitted stealing the watch from the girl's trunk in McLaughlin's house, and said he had sold it to a watch-maker for 50 cents. The officer investigated, and this morning recovered the watch. It appears that yesterday evening young Palmer visited a watch-maker's shop and offered to sell the watch. While the watch was being examined the clerk saw the Stipendiary Magistrate passing, and calling him into the store showed him the watch, and said he thought it had been stolen, and asked what he had better do. The Magistrate told him to take the watch and hold it which he did. This morning young Palmer pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny and was sentenced to one month's imprisonment, commitment not to issue for the present on account of the tender age of the prisoner.

Charles Norton, a sailor, was fined $5 or 30 days for being drunk and disorderly. Albert Allen, for a similar offence, was fined $4 or 20 days.

Summons have been ordered for all persons who have not paid their dog tax.

The Rev. J. G. Cameron will preach (D.V.) on Sunday next in the Presbyterian Church at Clyde River, at 11 a. m., and at West River 3 p. m.

OBITUARY.

At her father's residence, Dorchester St., on the 2nd inst., Maggie, beloved wife of P. S. Hughes, and daughter of Edward Good, in the 20th year of her age. R. I. P. Deceased came to her death by a severe cold contracted a short time ago, and although everything was done to relieve her, that medical skill and kind attention could bestow, this gentle sufferer rendered up her soul to God, leaving behind her a sorrowing husband, three small children, father, mother and sisters, as well as a host of friends and acquaintances to mourn their irreplaceable loss. To her sorrowing father and mother and sisters who only a few short months ago experienced a similar affliction, we tender our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in their double bereavement.

A BRILLIANT RECORD.—Kingston papers to hand give a brilliant picture of the career of the brilliant course of Mr. V. L. Best, of this city, at the Military College. Mr. Best is the winner of prizes for Military Engineering, Newmann's e. Military History, French, English, Freehand Drawing and Painting, besides, as already reported, the silver medal for the highest aggregate marks. His name is at the head of the honor list. Major General Cameron says, in the course of his report: "During the fourteen years in which the College has passed graduates on only two occasions—one 1882 and the other in 1892—has a graduate succeeded in taking a higher stand than was taken by Sergt. G. F. F. Osborne and Sergt. V. L. Best."

And again—

"The remarkably distinguished position taken by Sergts. Osborne and Best is a source of pride to us all—their own satisfaction at their success cannot exceed ours at the promise they give of adding to the reputation of the Royal Military College of Canada."

Mr. Best will become an officer in the Royal Artillery. We renew THE EXAMINER'S congratulations.

SUMMERSIDE'S TALENT.—We congratulate the good people of Summerside and Alberton upon the great musical and literary treat that is in store for them. Mrs. Harrison, Canada's celebrated soprano, will give a grand concert in Summerside on Tuesday evening, July 10th, in the Market Hall, and one at Alberton, on Wednesday, July 11th. She will be assisted by the following talented artists: Miss Florence Earle, mezzo soprano; Miss Florence Findlay, elocutionist; Graduate San Francisco school of oratory; Raymond Archibald, violin virtuoso; and Mr. Earle, Pianist. Full particulars later.
