

Women

Lena Caroline McLure, Women's Editor, Phone 8506

Page 6 The Guardian Tuesday, Nov. 4, 1958

HAPPENINGS

MR. AND MRS. ALPHEAUS ROBERTS

Double Ring Ceremony At H. R. United Church

The Hunter's River United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on July 19th, when Beulah Jean, youngest daughter of Mr. D.C. Montgomery and the late Mrs. Montgomery was united in holy bonds of matrimony with Alpheaus Samuel, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts, Scarborough, Ontario.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. C. R. Moase, Oxford, N.S. assisted by Rev. Wilfred Dindial, Trinidad. Mrs. Ivan Bowman was organist for the occasion and Mr. Gordon Carew rendered very effectively two solos "O Perfect Love" during the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The church was tastefully decorated with large baskets of mixed flowers and an artistically decorated arch of running spruce under which the bridal party stood.

The bride given in marriage by her father looked lovely in her floor length gown of white nylon net and chantilly lace with a rose embroidered design over satin. The three tier bouffant skirt fell gracefully from the tightly fitted bodice with long tapered sleeves, the scallop neckline was trimmed with iridescent sequins and pearls, and fastened in the back with tiny covered buttons. Her finger tip veil fell gracefully from a crown trimmed with sequins and pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses, her only jewellery was a string of pearls, gift of the groom.

Miss Ruth MacQueen, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Mabel Montgomery, niece of the bride and Miss Joyce Stetson. They wore identical yellow cocktail dresses with matching headresses and mitts and carried nosegays of rose colored roses.

Misses Marilyn and Beryl Carew, nieces of the bride, wore flower girls and wore dresses of green dotted nylon over taffeta with matching headresses and mitts and carried tiny nosegays of rose colored roses.

Mr. James Roberts, brother of the groom capably acted as groomsmen. Mr. Sutherland Montgomery, brother of the bride and Mr. Eric Roberts, brother of the groom were ushers.

The bride's stepmother chose for the wedding, a navy blue dress with white accessories, her corsage was of pink carnations.

Mrs. Roberts wore a powder blue sheer dress with white accessories, her corsage was of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Queen Hotel for approximately 75 guests.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, beautifully decorated and topped with a miniature bride and groom, with a miniature bride and groom, with a miniature bride and groom.

Several telegrams of congratulations were read by James Roberts. Miss Shirley Spence was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's gifts to her maid of honor and bridesmaids were necklaces and earrings and to the flower girls, necklaces and bracelets. The groom's gifts to the best man and ushers were cuff links and tie sets.

For going away the bride wore a blue fine check suit with white accessories, her corsage was of red roses.

Following their honeymoon the happy young couple took up residence in Scarborough, Ontario, where the groom is employed with the Bell Telephone Company.

Out of the province guests were: Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts, Eric Roberts, James Roberts and Doreen Roberts, Scarborough, Ontario, Miss Joyce Stetson of Toronto, Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Moase, Oxford, N.S. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moase, Halifax, N.S. and Miss Shirley Spence, Corner Brook, Nfld.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was tendered a kitchen shower in Scarborough and also a community shower at Hunter's River at which she received many useful and beautiful gifts.

KENSINGTON

Her many friends will be sorry to learn Mrs. Stirling Hunter, Kensington, is a patient in the Prince County hospital. All trust for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry MacLeod and daughter Chrisanna, have returned to Halifax, N.S. after spending the weekend in Baltic, the guest of Mr. John Riley and Miss Grace Riley.

Mrs. Keir Crafer has returned to Charlottetown, after spending a pleasant weekend at her home in Baltic.

Mr. Walter MacNeil accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Andrew MacNeil of Southport, were visitors to Baltic on Sunday, the guests of Mr. William McGivray and Mrs. John McGivray.

Mr. Donnie Adams, student at Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown, spent the weekend at his home in Sea View, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Adams.

A recent speaker at the United Services Officers' Club in Charlottetown was Squadron Leader W.J. Hurst, A.F.C. R.A.F. He spoke on H-bomb tests being carried out on Christmas Island in the Central Pacific. Sqdn-Ldr. Hurst is on the staff of the Air Ministry, London, England.

While in the city he was the guest of Major and Mrs. Charles M. Williams, Fitzroy Street. Mrs. Hurst, the former Eleanor Williams, is expected to visit her parents here at a later date, accompanied by her daughter Barbara.

Col T.E. Guy and Mrs. Guy, Saint John, N.B. arrived on Sunday to spend a few days with Mrs. Guy's mother, Mrs. C. H. White, 13 Sydney Street, Charlottetown.

Dr. and Mrs. J.A. MacMillan of Charlottetown, P.E.I. were among the recent guests at the Park Plaza in Toronto, Dr. and Mrs. MacMillan are expected home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon, Charlottetown, have left for St. Petersburg, Florida, for their annual winter sojourn. En route to Florida, they will make a brief visit in Montreal, with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacKinnon.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Cairns and baby daughter Jo-Anne left Saturday on return to Halifax, after spending three weeks holidays with their respective families, in Charlottetown and Greenfield, P.E.I.

Mrs. Percy Downe, Charlottetown, has spent the past week in Halifax with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Hencher and Cpl. Hencher, C.A.M.C. On Tuesday Cpl. and Mrs. Hencher accompanied by Mrs. Downe will leave on a motor trip to Hartford, Connecticut.

Mrs. L.A. Hicks, wife of Major Hicks, Corps Officer, Salvation Army, returned from Springhill where she spent some time with members of her family. Her brother, Mr. Harry O'Brien is one of the miners still entombed. Mrs. Hicks will return to Springhill later in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Larkin of Hope River, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Doiron. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Larkin of New Glasgow. The couple will reside in New Glasgow where Mr. Larkin is employed with the New Glasgow Dairy-farm Co.

Shown above are Mr. and Mrs. D. Roland Larkin who were married on Wednesday, September 3rd in Hope River Roman Catholic Church. The bride was the former Miss Yvonne Doiron, of Hope River, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Doiron. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Larkin of New Glasgow. The couple will reside in New Glasgow where Mr. Larkin is employed with the New Glasgow Dairy-farm Co.

Additional scripture reading was read by Emily Newport, Edith Kent, Edith Crabbe, Thelma Sentner, Eileen Niell, Mrs. Charles Newport, Mrs. Dr. Betts, Olive Sentner, Miriam Dollar. A reading from the book "Means of Grace" was read by Audrey Clow and Emily Newport. Prayer was then given by Emily Newport.

A poem "New Day", was read by Mrs. Charles Newport. The worship service was then brought to a close by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. The business part was then said our chuckle receiving an answering young laugh.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

A recent speaker at the United Services Officers' Club in Charlottetown was Squadron Leader W.J. Hurst, A.F.C. R.A.F. He spoke on H-bomb tests being carried out on Christmas Island in the Central Pacific. Sqdn-Ldr. Hurst is on the staff of the Air Ministry, London, England.

While in the city he was the guest of Major and Mrs. Charles M. Williams, Fitzroy Street. Mrs. Hurst, the former Eleanor Williams, is expected to visit her parents here at a later date, accompanied by her daughter Barbara.

Col T.E. Guy and Mrs. Guy, Saint John, N.B. arrived on Sunday to spend a few days with Mrs. Guy's mother, Mrs. C. H. White, 13 Sydney Street, Charlottetown.

Dr. and Mrs. J.A. MacMillan of Charlottetown, P.E.I. were among the recent guests at the Park Plaza in Toronto, Dr. and Mrs. MacMillan are expected home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon, Charlottetown, have left for St. Petersburg, Florida, for their annual winter sojourn. En route to Florida, they will make a brief visit in Montreal, with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacKinnon.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Cairns and baby daughter Jo-Anne left Saturday on return to Halifax, after spending three weeks holidays with their respective families, in Charlottetown and Greenfield, P.E.I.

Mrs. Percy Downe, Charlottetown, has spent the past week in Halifax with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Hencher and Cpl. Hencher, C.A.M.C. On Tuesday Cpl. and Mrs. Hencher accompanied by Mrs. Downe will leave on a motor trip to Hartford, Connecticut.

Mrs. L.A. Hicks, wife of Major Hicks, Corps Officer, Salvation Army, returned from Springhill where she spent some time with members of her family. Her brother, Mr. Harry O'Brien is one of the miners still entombed. Mrs. Hicks will return to Springhill later in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Larkin of Hope River, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Doiron. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Larkin of New Glasgow. The couple will reside in New Glasgow where Mr. Larkin is employed with the New Glasgow Dairy-farm Co.

Shown above are Mr. and Mrs. D. Roland Larkin who were married on Wednesday, September 3rd in Hope River Roman Catholic Church. The bride was the former Miss Yvonne Doiron, of Hope River, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Doiron. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Larkin of New Glasgow. The couple will reside in New Glasgow where Mr. Larkin is employed with the New Glasgow Dairy-farm Co.

Additional scripture reading was read by Emily Newport, Edith Kent, Edith Crabbe, Thelma Sentner, Eileen Niell, Mrs. Charles Newport, Mrs. Dr. Betts, Olive Sentner, Miriam Dollar. A reading from the book "Means of Grace" was read by Audrey Clow and Emily Newport. Prayer was then given by Emily Newport.

A poem "New Day", was read by Mrs. Charles Newport. The worship service was then brought to a close by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. The business part was then said our chuckle receiving an answering young laugh.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

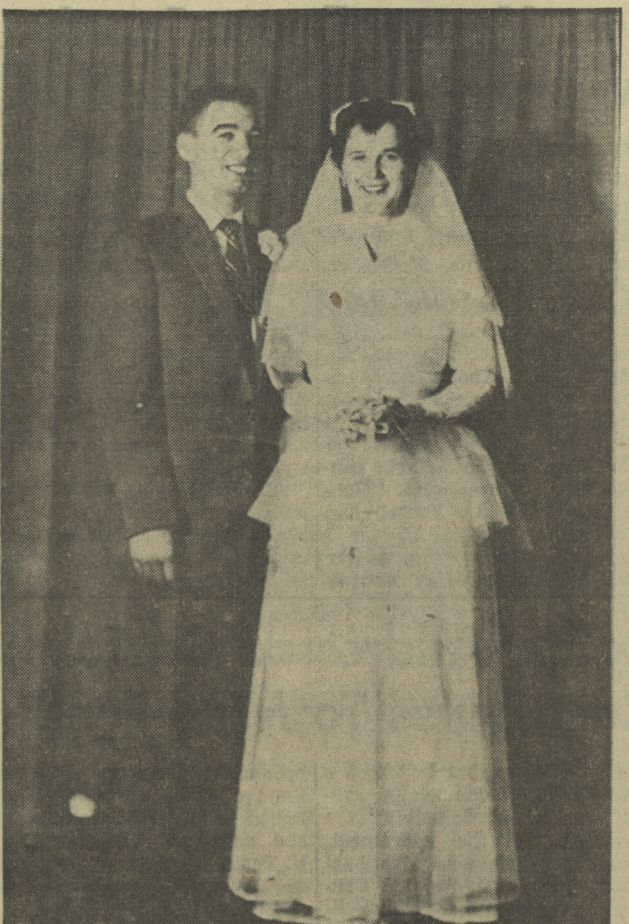

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

MR. AND MRS. ROLAND LARKIN

Young Farmer Reckons Expenses And Profit

"Now I have to add to that the price of the pellets they ate," Mack reflected this evening, when seated beside us on the couch, he reckoned the expenses incurred in his initial venture of hog farming. It seems that something back in the year, he had fallen pleased heir to a comely gilt that a while ago presented him with a litter of small ones. Now the cost of their keep was a matter to be dealt with.

"You must allow for every outlay," James reminded him, coming in at that moment. "This 'farming on paper' has its shortcomings you know" he smiled.

"Well," Mack said consulting his paper. "I've allowed for their feed until they get to a certain age—pellets and all. And oh yes, I almost forgot: what are you going to charge me for feeding them?"

"Oh," James chuckled, "we will not dwell on that. It's not a hard chore. Though by rights it should go down with your expenses. Otherwise," he grinned, "they'll be all profit, like the clutch of chickens your grandmother raised this summer—no thought of the grain they ate up!"

"Then," Mack continued, "allowing for the feed bought, I still will have a nice little profit. It should amount to about... dollars."

"And what will you do with that?" we questioned with some curiosity.

"If I could just find the right one" he nodded. "I think I'd buy a calf."

"And there", James said obviously in accord with the plan, "you couldn't do a better thing with it!"

James is of the opinion that the only way to keep a boy on the farm, to cause him to have a liking and respect for it, is to allow and encourage him while still quite young to become—to a point warranted by his natural bent for it—not only an interested worker, but a business partner as well. So his sons were reared. And here in a new generation the idea was again being put into practice.

James moved toward the door, and the barn, the youngster at his heels. "Would you lend me your broom?" the latter questioned. "I think I'll sweep the stable—there where Daddy is working now, putting in some new water-bowls."

"Surely" we replied. "Just remember to have it back before that witching night!" we curiously.

"If I could just find the right one" he nodded. "I think I'd buy a calf."

"And there", James said obviously in accord with the plan, "you couldn't do a better thing with it!"

James is of the opinion that the only way to keep a boy on the farm, to cause him to have a liking and respect for it, is to allow and encourage him while still quite young to become—to a point warranted by his natural bent for it—not only an interested worker, but a business partner as well. So his sons were reared. And here in a new generation the idea was again being put into practice.

James moved toward the door, and the barn, the youngster at his heels. "Would you lend me your broom?" the latter questioned. "I think I'll sweep the stable—there where Daddy is working now, putting in some new water-bowls."

"Surely" we replied. "Just remember to have it back before that witching night!" we

PRINCETOWN ROAD W.M.S.

The Princetown Road United Church W. M. S. met at the home of Bessie Johnston on Thursday evening, October 2 for their regular meeting.

Mrs. Charles Newport was in charge of the worship service. Call to worship was followed by singing hymn 389, "Almighty Father, Who Dust Give". Prayer was then given by the leader.

Scripture reading taken from Deuteronomy, 17 chapter, verses 17-20 were read by Bessie Johnston. A reading taken from Missionary Monthly, followed by prayer was then given by leader.

Additional scripture reading was read by Emily Newport, Edith Kent, Edith Crabbe, Thelma Sentner, Eileen Niell, Mrs. Charles Newport, Mrs. Dr. Betts, Olive Sentner, Miriam Dollar. A reading from the book "Means of Grace" was read by Audrey Clow and Emily Newport. Prayer was then given by Emily Newport.

A poem "New Day", was read by Mrs. Charles Newport. The worship service was then brought to a close by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. The business part was then said our chuckle receiving an answering young laugh.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

PRINCETOWN ROAD W.M.S.

The Princetown Road United Church W. M. S. met at the home of Bessie Johnston on Thursday evening, October 2 for their regular meeting.

Mrs. Charles Newport was in charge of the worship service. Call to worship was followed by singing hymn 389, "Almighty Father, Who Dust Give". Prayer was then given by the leader.

Scripture reading taken from Deuteronomy, 17 chapter, verses 17-20 were read by Bessie Johnston. A reading taken from Missionary Monthly, followed by prayer was then given by leader.

Additional scripture reading was read by Emily Newport, Edith Kent, Edith Crabbe, Thelma Sentner, Eileen Niell, Mrs. Charles Newport, Mrs. Dr. Betts, Olive Sentner, Miriam Dollar. A reading from the book "Means of Grace" was read by Audrey Clow and Emily Newport. Prayer was then given by Emily Newport.

A poem "New Day", was read by Mrs. Charles Newport. The worship service was then brought to a close by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. The business part was then said our chuckle receiving an answering young laugh.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

PRINCETOWN ROAD W.M.S.

The Princetown Road United Church W. M. S. met at the home of Bessie Johnston on Thursday evening, October 2 for their regular meeting.

Mrs. Charles Newport was in charge of the worship service. Call to worship was followed by singing hymn 389, "Almighty Father, Who Dust Give". Prayer was then given by the leader.

Scripture reading taken from Deuteronomy, 17 chapter, verses 17-20 were read by Bessie Johnston. A reading taken from Missionary Monthly, followed by prayer was then given by leader.

Additional scripture reading was read by Emily Newport, Edith Kent, Edith Crabbe, Thelma Sentner, Eileen Niell, Mrs. Charles Newport, Mrs. Dr. Betts, Olive Sentner, Miriam Dollar. A reading from the book "Means of Grace" was read by Audrey Clow and Emily Newport. Prayer was then given by Emily Newport.

A poem "New Day", was read by Mrs. Charles Newport. The worship service was then brought to a close by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. The business part was then said our chuckle receiving an answering young laugh.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still. The night is a bit desolate. But we remember "There never was a night so dark but sunshine follows in its track."

Until tomorrow — — — Diary, Good-night.

Lowering skies this morning, then damp of showers. More of Fall than Autumn in the sight of wet roofs and dripping eaves. It rains still.