

Death of Mr. Harvey Manderson

The death occurred at Stanley Bridge on Jan. 26, 1955, of Harvey Manderson in his 63rd year, after an illness of one month.

He had undergone an operation in the Prince County Hospital and was able to be removed to his home, but later tenderly cared for by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carr, during his last illness and in his declining years, and was loved and respected by all who knew him; especially in the home where he will be sadly missed, for he was a general favorite to all.

He was born in Long River and later moved to Darnby, and after the death of his wife, 19 years ago, he has resided with his daughter, Mrs. Earl Carr. He leaves to mourn his passing three sons and three daughters: George in Germany; Heath and Minnie in Montreal; Harvey in Victoria, B.C.; Jane, Mrs. Clyde Pollard, Alberton; Christine, Mrs. Earl Carr, Stanley Bridge; four sons having predeceased him.

Also surviving are four sisters: Mrs. Prescilla Smith, the Clintons; Mrs. Jean Taylor, Kensington; Dr. Mable M. Durbin, Pasadena; Mrs. Maude DesMarais, Phoenix, Arizona.

Also surviving are eight grandchildren: Jean, George and Anne Carr; Mrs. Brendan Reid; George and Mary Manderson; Gordon and Sophia Manderson.

His funeral was held from the Davidson Funeral Parlor, Kensington on Jan. 28, to the Keir Memorial Church, Malpeque, where services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bean, Kensington, who spoke words of comfort to the bereaved. Hymns sung were: "The Sands of Time Are Sinking," "His Body was Conveyed to its last resting place in the Peoples' Cemetery by six grand nephews: Ray and Thane Douglas; Roy, Maurice and Elwood Clark, and Nelson Gasley.
