

MR. AND MRS. BLOISE DICKIESON

Hunter's River Manse Is Scene Of Pretty Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Hunter's River United Church Manse on June 29th by Rev. C. R. Moase when Bessie Uldine Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Derrill White, became the bride of Bloise Garland Dickieson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dickieson, New Glasgow.

The bride was charmingly dressed in a ballerina length gown fashioned from white bridal satin and nylon tulle. The over dress was of lace net with fitted bodice and had a Peter Pan collar and full length sleeves tapered to a point over the hands. Iridescent sequins and seed pearl supplemented the design of lace. The bride's elbow length veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and sequins. A bouquet of American Beauty roses carried by the bride added a lovely touch.

The bride was attended by Miss Georgina Glover who was attired in ballerina length dress of pale blue net over taffeta with matching head dress and carried a nosegay of yellow chrysanthemums.

The groom was attended by Huntley Dingwell.

Mrs. White chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of wedgewood blue. Her corsage was pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a dress of royal blue print sheer silk with matching short bolero and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for one hundred guests at Shining Waters Lodge.

The bride's table was prettily decorated with summer flowers and centered with a three tier wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Mr. Melvin White proposed the

The handsome skirt has all-round accordion pleats and the matching blouse has a pleated front bodice with a pert bow at the neckline. Another advantage is that they both are easily washable, need no ironing, are permanently pleated, and pack beautifully.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Ellen's Study Receives A Hand Made Desk Set

Hummingbirds swift winged, paused today before hollyhocks' bright doors in the summer glory prevailing. . . but this evening when night flowering blossoms scattered their heady fragrances on the twilight air, we heard, alas, a cricket play the prelude to the lament of the year.

We saw too in the sunny stillness of the afternoon, a parcel of swallows perched on a high wire above the yard in a quiet solemn row. Saying little in this Quakerish meeting, though with meaningful attitude.

"Soon now" the August breeze murmured. Yes, presently we shall search yards and near meadows for these summer guests of ours but vainly. Only about the barns for their forlorn tests and deserted, we shall see. But the delight of the springtide which brought them back to us, not so long ago will come to mind the new colors which then clothed in a rare loveliness our world of dale and hill afresh. . . and the blossoms which crowned acchard and countryside about.

So the Autumn draws on in sign and symbol — in smarter sunsets and lessened "green light" between, and earlier purplings of dusk. Today Mack must assemble his books for the new school-term, the pupils' goings having been postponed by some understanding genie, over the Fair week to give them untram-

Wing Commander Sherren Had Exemplary War Record

The History of the Sherren family of Craupud Prince Edward Island has been compiled in brochure form. It makes for good reading not only for the Sherren family but to many others as well.

Jim Murley who has his journalistic finger on the contacts and news of this province passes along the brochure and a quote from page 4 at this time is of special interest in connection with the visit of Mrs. P. Clark Sherren.

"The Sherrens have an exemplary war service record. Four of William D's sons served overseas — P. Clark George E. J. Stephen and William D.

When the 26th New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Battalion was recruited for World War I Percy Clark Sherren who was a member of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Saint John returned to Charlottetown where he recruited a Company and escorted it to St. John. He left with that Battalion as Lieutenant for overseas on October 20 1915.

Late in 1915 while on patrol duty in France he was wounded by a bullet through the knee. He returned to England where he entered a London hospital. At this point it is interesting to note that Lieutenant Sherren had the opportunity of meeting a distinguished specialist in Surgery by the name of Dr. James Sherren who a direct descendant of James and Mary Sherren thus linking him with the Craupud Sherrens of the present day. The services of this famous Doctor were recognized by King George V while Lieutenant Sherren was still in England.

After being discharged from hospital Percy Clark Sherren transferred to the Royal Air Force serving with that unit until the end of the war.

He was awarded the Military Cross November 25 1916 for descending to within five hundred feet and successfully bombing an enemy ammunition train.

He was awarded a Bar on June 4 1917 and mentioned in dispatches on several occasions.

He was granted a permanent Commission in the Royal Air Force in 1919 when he resigned from the Canadian Expeditionary Force. At the same time he was gazetted as a Major in the Reserve of Officers of the Canadian Militia. For flying services in the North West Frontier Province of India between 1921 and 1924 he was awarded the General Service Medal with Clasp. Later he was stationed at the R.A.F. Depot at Uxbridge and the Home Aircraft Depot at Hendlow.

In 1924 he married Joyce Tilden-Smith. Their family consisted of three sons and one daughter — Jack Michael Richard and Jean.

Wing Commander Sherren met his death in the King's Cup Race at Scarborough England on September 10 1937. He was buried with full military honors in Ipswich Cemetery England.
