We Need Listings Now!

During the past few months we have completed so many sales that we are now short of listings.

We Missed Some Too!

We missed sales because we did not have the right listings at the right price in the right location!

Sell Now!

If you plan to sell your home within the next three to six months . . . now is the time to list with "Peake-Martin Ltd. Real Estate", we are now in our prime selling season, and we earnestly solicit your inquiry into the possibilities of selling your home now!

A few reasons why you should list your home with Peake-Martin Ltd. Real Estate.

- We hold office conferences and discuss the property listed in regard to the best means of selling it.
- We encourage listings at realistic prices, believing it is unfair to the owner to endeavor to tie up his property at a figure beyond its saleable value.
- We really appreciate your business and try to merit it through service.
