

Honor Couple On 47th Anniversary

The evening of September 4, 1954, was the occasion of a surprise gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hector MacLean, when the members of New Dominion W. I. and their families called to offer congratulations on the 47th anniversary of their marriage.

Mr. George Wilson capably acted as chairman and after a few introductory remarks asked Mrs. Tupper Strang to read an address, at the conclusion of which Mrs. Walter MacEwen made the presentation of a beautiful plaid blanket. A lovely bouquet of gladioli was also presented by Miss Shirley MacDonald.

Mr. MacLean replied fittingly on behalf of Mrs. MacLean and himself, expressing genuine pleasure in their unexpected visit from friends and neighbors, and thanking all in a most sincere and appreciative manner for their kindly remembrance.

After singing "For They're A Jolly Good Couple," refreshments in the form of ice cream and cake were served by the ladies, supplemented by generous helpings of a beautifully decorated anniversary cake, contributed by Mrs. Hector Currie.

An hour of social chat and interesting reminiscences was then enjoyed before the gathering dispersed following the singing of "Auld Lang Syne," "Bless Be The Tie," and "God Save The Queen."

Following is the text of the address to Mr. and Mrs. MacLean:

Dear Friends:—

Having learned that today, Sept. 4, 1954, you have reached another milestone along life's journey, viz. the 47th anniversary of your marriage, we, the members of New Dominion W. I. felt that we could not let the occasion pass without marking the day in some special way. So we have come tonight, not to trouble or embarrass you in any way, but to say as briefly and simply as possible how very much we have appreciated the value of your lives in our community.

Both of you have been loyal and consistent supporters of your respective churches, and yet broad-minded enough to give service to either when opportunity offered, and your services to school and institute work have been rendered willingly and unselfishly. As neighbors, you have been pleasant and agreeable, trustworthy and dependable throughout both your long and industrious lives and we only wish that we could really express adequately what we would like to say. Perhaps the following lines illustrate this common failure of ours.

"What silences we keep year after year
With those who are most near to us and dear
We live beside each other day by day
And speak of myriad things, but seldom say
The kindly word that lies within our reach Beneath the common ground of common speech."

Finally we would like to present to you this gift with the hope that it will be of some use and comfort, also that it may serve as a reminder of the good wishes of your friends in New Dominion.

Signed on behalf of New Dominion W. I.

Mrs. Lloyd MacPhail, (Secretary)
Mrs. Arthur MacDonald
Mrs. Hector Currie
