La Grippe

Have you had it? If not, be prepared, for it is here. You needn't dread the disease so much as the suffering afterwards.

Why have it? 'Tis the weak, nervous, pale and thin who suffer most.

Scott's Emulsion

corrects these conditions. It gives strength and stability and the strong throw off the disease. 'Twill lift you out of that terrible depression which follows. All druggists, 50c. and $1.00.

Domestic Repartee.

She had put on her hat and gloves and was moving toward the door, when he looked up from his newspaper and asked:

"Where are you going?"

"A husband with good sense never asks his wife where she is going."

"But I suppose a woman with good sense has the right to ask her husband where he is going?"

"A woman with good sense never does anything of the kind, because if she has good sense she never marries, so she has no husband. Ta, ta!"

And it never dawned on her that she had called herself an idiot.—Pearson's Weekly.

His Enviable Lot.

Mr. Pitt—Since your friend Blinkins married Miss Bonds he has been leading the life of a dog.

Mr. Penn—I'm sorry for him.

"I'm not."

"Don't you sympathize with him?"

"Not at all. He has nothing to do but eat, sleep and amuse himself. It's the life of a pet pug dog he leads."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Once Too Often.

"What's all this excitement about?"

"Nothing worth mentioning. Man got knocked down."

"Accident?"

"Not exactly. One of these men who always catch hold of you and push you out of their way when you happen to meet them at a crowded corner grabbed the wrong man just now. That's all."—Chicago Tribune.

The Suspicious Mother.

Admire a baby and the mother always looks pleased. Admire her dog and she glares at you. Maybe the reason for this is that she is quite sure you do not wish to steal the baby, but isn't altogether certain regarding your attentions where the dog is concerned.—Exchange.

INSOMNIA.

SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE RESTORES REST AND HEALTH.

If the digestive organs refuse to do their work, indigestion and dyspepsia follow like lightning's flash—the nerves are shattered and then insomnia runs riot, and the patient is on the road to the mad-house or insane asylum. A well known Toronto newspaper man was a victim of nervous prostration and insomnia through overwork—retiring at night was more of a dread than a welcome to rest—prejudiced against medicines and remedies, he spurned the thought of resorting to what he called nostrums—he became almost incapacitated for work—he was recommended to try South American Nervine, procured a bottle and when half of it had been taken, he found himself improving—sleep was induced, the nerves grew quieter, the appetite returned—he continued to take the remedy until he had used six bottles, and at the end of that time the twenty pounds he had lost in worry and for want of rest was put on again—to-day he says, "I feel strong enough to do two days' work in one."

South American Nervine is without a peer in the cure of nervousness, indigestion and insomnia. A few doses will convince the most sceptical. It gives immediate relief and effects a cure in every case. Strong as this statement may seem it is absolutely true.

South American Rheumatic Cure is never baffled—relieves in six hours and cures after years of agony have been suffered.

South American Kidney Cure cures Bright's disease, diabetes and bladder troubles. A few doses will convince. 11

Even the healthiest constitution sometimes gets into a rut. Many people are weak and miserable because their systems have slipped off the smooth roadway of health and are ditching along through the mire of disease, which might be avoided altogether if some strong and friendly hand would only give them a lift.

Thousands of weak and debilitated men and women have found Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery the powerful and timely aid to set them upon the level road of perfect recovery. It creates health by making the digestion perfect and the liver-action regular and thorough.

It repairs wasted tissue and builds up solid healthy flesh and muscular power. It is palatable, and digestible by the weakest stomach

In chronic coughs and lung diseases, it is far superior to nauseating "emulsions" or mere stimulating malt "extracts." Its good effects are real and permanent.

For nearly thirty years Dr. R. V. Pierce has been chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., during which time this remarkable "Discovery" has wrought thousands of cures which seemed well-nigh miraculous. Some of the most interesting of these obstinate cases are fully discribed in one chapter of the great thousand-page illustrated book "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" by R. V. Pierce, M. D., which will be sent free for cost of customs and mailing only; 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 50 stamps.

N. Gaddis, Esq., of No. 313 S. J. Street, Tacoma, Washington, writes: "I was taken ill in February, 1892, with headache and pain in my back. I called in a doctor and he came three times. He said I was bilious, but I kept getting worse. I took a cough so that I could only sleep when propped up in bed. My lungs hurt me and I got so poor that I was just skin and bone. I thought I was going to die. I tried a bottle of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it did me so much good that I tried another one and it made me strong and well. It saved my life."

Couldn't Quit Gambling.

Driving a cab in the streets of London is a young man who has literally thrown away £80,000. The son of a wealthy family in Yorkshire, he went into the army, but soon became distinguished by his gambling propensities. He ruined himself and had to leave his regiment.

A short time ago while living in a garret news was brought to him that he had been left £80,000. There was a condition attached to the legacy—that the money was to immediately pass to another person, named in the will, if the legatee was ever found gambling. A detective was set to watch the ex-captain and saw him enter a well known club one evening, where he lost the sum of £300, which he had raised on his expectations. He forfeited his £80,000 before he had ever laid hands on it.—London Tit-Bits.

Beyond Medical Skill.

Master—Late again, Sandy! Can't you manage to get here in time?

Sandy (with a doleful headache)—I janna sleep o' nichts, sor, and so I'm loath to get up in the mornin.

Master—Eh, man, sleeplessness! Why don't you consult a doctor and get at the cause?

Sandy—I get at the cause weel eneuch, but it'll no shut up. It's 6 weeks auld and an awful yeller.—Glasgow Times.

WRITERS AND PAINTERS.

Justin Huntly McCarthy, son of Justin McCarthy, is here to lecture on history and to take notes for a short history of the United States and for some more plays which he intends to write.

When Robert Louis Stevenson died his hair was jet black, yet up to the time when he passed into the twenties it was a pale blond. This changing of color at so mature an age is rarely heard of.

There has just been unveiled a tablet to the memory of T. Buchanan Read, the poet, in the front of his former Cincinnati home, just below the window of the room where he wrote "Sheridan's Ride."

Next year M. Demolins, the Frenchman who has given so much umbrage in Paris by his book on Anglo-Saxon superiority, proposes to open a school to be conducted on thoroughly English lines in Normandy.

The oldest novelist in the world is M. Louis Enault, the well known French romance writer, who was born at Isigny in 1792. Novelists as a rule do not attain any great age, but M. Enault, it is said, leads a very regular life and still possesses all his faculties.

Mr. Sargent, R. A., is to paint two portraits of Lord Chief Justice Russell. In the full length presentment already in progress Lord Russell of Killowen wears his robes of office and his wig. In the second portrait there will be no wig to obscure the outlines of the massive head.

Adolf Menzel, the German painter, who has recently resigned his post as senator of the German Academy of Art, has been made an honorary senator of that body, Giles In the Pulpit.

The tenets of John Wesley and his disciples were eagerly embraced in Norfolk, and Giles frequently became a local preacher. One "local," Sam by name, is described as "a born teacher," though his similes often dropped to the burlesque. On one occasion he took for his text, "The wages of sin is death," and prefaced his sermon as follows:

"My fri'nds, Brother Paul tells us that the waages o' sin is death. Now, let's see wuther we kin grasp wot he maan by't. S'pose I wor tu go an du my haarwest for Mr. H. (a local farmer), an arter all the wuk wor dun go an ax Mr. T. (another farmer in the same village) fur my waages, wot du yeou think Mr. T. would saay? Sure-ly he would up and saay, 'Sam, yeou air a fule. Go an ax Mr. H. fur yer waages; yeou ha' dun yer haarwest there. Wot du yeou come an ax me fur yer waages fur?' An ef I wuk all my loife fur the daavil an go tu God fur my reward he wool saay, 'No, no, Sam; yeou go tu the daavil fur yer reward; yeou hev wuked fur him in the haarwest o' loife; he must pay yeou.'"—Westminster Gazette.
