Hold Sunday School Convention

The South-East Prince District Sunday School Convention was held in the Bedeque United Church under the capable leadership of Rev. C. A. Britten. The afternoon session opened with an inspiring service of worship led by Rev. Mr. Baxter of Hampton. He took as his theme "The Perfect Life." The reports of the various schools showed a total enrollment of 560 pupils.

The delegates divided into three groups to study more effective ways of presenting the lesson. These groups were led by Miss Louise Callbeck, Rev. Lloyd Archer and Mr. Arthur Murray.

In discussing the findings it was agreed that the aim of all Sunday School teaching should be to lead the children to Christ. The teacher should endeavor to win the love of the pupils. When the pupil loves the teacher he will learn to love the teacher Christ.

The hour between the sessions was spent in the spacious new hall adjoining the church, where a box lunch was served by the ladies of the church.

A large congregation was present at the evening service. The meeting opened by a very impressive service of worship presented by the C.G.I.T. and Trail Ranger groups of the Bedeque United Church.

The work of the M.R.E.C. was set before the meeting in a most pleasing and entertaining way by a dialogue entitled "Let's Get Together." Helpful suggestion for both parents and teachers were given in the film strips "Children and the Bible".

The reports of committees were as follows: Nominating: president, Mrs. Ralph MacCaull; vice-president, Mrs. Lorne Cousins; secretary, Florence Mabey.

Courtesy: Resolved that the thanks of this convention be extended to Rev. C. A. Britten for his capable leadership, to Rev. Mr. Ward and the Bedeque Congregation for the use of their church and beautiful and well-equipped hall and for their kind hospitality, to the C.G.I.T. and Trail Ranger groups for their inspiring devotional service, to the group who presented the dialogue and to all who in any way contributed to the success of our convention.

Mr. Britten spoke briefly reminding the audience of the importance of the task of the Sunday School teacher. The singing of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds and the Benediction brought a very successful convention to a close.

St. David's W. A. Holds Meeting

Parker read the treasurer's report which showed favorable returns from the annual bazaar and supper held early in the month. Visits have been made to our two members in hospital, Mrs. Andrew McNeill and Mrs. V. Rafuse.

A motion was passed that two notes due on the Church hall this month be met by the W. A. Also bills for materials used in repair of the barn on the church grounds. Coming up for special mention is the cast of the play, "Betty the Girl of My Heart" which was on tour all summer and fall, and raised the sum of well over $300.

The next meeting of the W. A. will be the annual one, and a committee was named to bring in the slate of officers for 1955, as follows: Convener, Mrs. P. MacDonald, Mrs. N. Hanson, Mrs. E. Easton, Mrs. S. Walker volunteered for the sick sick committee next month. For the social part of the evening a game was played, and Miss Elizabeth Skinner won a prize. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction, and the two luncheon hostesses were Mrs. A. Stewart and Mrs. W. McLaren. CK.
