Elect President Of Maritime United Baptist Convention

WOODSTOCK, N. B., Sept. 1.—Rev. Dr. H. R. Boyer, Moncton, was elected president of the Maritime United Baptist convention today. A former general secretary of the convention, he has had a long and distinguished career of service in the Maritimes.
The convention committee has an intensive program for the next seven years, culminating in the 100th anniversary of the organization. The work will include a campaign to raise denominational outlays in full and efforts all along the line of Christian activity.
The names of seven young men who will be ordained to the Maritime United Baptist Ministry were announced today as follows: Murray A. Bent, Bridgetown, N. S.; Gordon K. Baker, Falmouth, N. S.; Gordon Barrs, Dartmouth, N. S.; E. Glendon Corey, New Canada, N. B.; Freeman Fenerety, Halifax; Clarence Wright, Brookfield, N. S.; and Willard F. Chandler, Saint John.
The convention set apart certain sessions for prayer for a peaceful settlement of international problems.
"It would seem the world is passing through the high tide of one of its greatest apostasies, and needs the power of God to set it right," said Rev. G. W. Guioa, Lawrenceton, N. S.

TORONTO, Sept. 1 (CP)—

Outbreak of war in Central Europe underlined the stock market today and prices declined sharply in the morning session. In the late afternoon base metal shares, appraised as a rapid and beneficial, staged a rapid and wide rally, moving in sympathy with a buoyant recovery on the New York board. Industrials recovered part of the way with the base metals while the golds remained around their lows, off 6.27 in the index from Thursday. Volume at 599,000 shares was the heaviest turnover since January 31 last. International Nickel provided the high-light of the market. From a low of 46 it surged up to 50 for a net gain of 3 points and closed at the top. Smelters netted a gain in the index of 1-1/2, Hudson Bay closed unchanged and Noranda 2 3/4 down.

MAKES FLIGHT TO MAGDALENS

—A twin-motored Dragon plane from the Canadian Airways base here was flown to the Magdalen Islands yesterday when Dr. J. P. Lantz as passenger. Pilot H. S. Jones, superintendent of Canadian Airways here was at the controls. With him was Air Engineer L. H. Power. Dr. Lantz was landed at Amherst Island in the Magdalen group. There he examined three blind cases and several other patients who took the opportunity to consult him. Meanwhile the big plane went on to Grindstone to pick up gasoline. The big Dragon took off from Upper Airport at 9:10 a. m. and returned at 1:20 p. m., completing in a few hours a trip which otherwise would have taken the Doctor five days. During the flight the Royal Canadian Mounted Police short wave radio station here was in constant two-way communication with the plane and aided prior to the flight by obtaining valuable weather data.

NAZI LEADER DENOUNCED IN U.S. PRESS

Strong Sympathy Expressed For Poland, Britain and France.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Strong sympathy with Poland, Great Britain and France, fixing of responsibility for hostilities on Fuehrer Hitler and a warning to Americans to remain calm and not become involved in the war was expressed in editorials in United States newspapers today.
The Evening Sun (Independent) today was representative, stating: "There is no question but the sympathies of Americans lie in all this vast country there is hardly a man... who stands up in forthright approval of Herr Hitler and his methods. Nevertheless, it is now our part to move soberly and to protect ourselves against involvement in the war."
The Newark (N. J.) Evening News (Independent) said: "What causes Americans to even discuss the chance of our becoming a belligerent is Hitler—Hitler and his international terrorism."
"Here is one war," said the Independent New York World-Telegram, "which, we predict, historians will never dispute as to where the blame lies."

President's Statement

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—President Roosevelt said reporters today that he believed the United States could stay out of any European conflict and that his administration would make every effort to keep the country from becoming involved.

In response to a press conference question as to whether America could keep from being involved, the President authorized a direct question that "I not only sincerely hope so, but I believe we can and that every effort will be made by the administration so to do."

Ambassador Resigns

Mr. Roosevelt announced at the conference that Hugh Wilson, Ambassador to Germany, who has been in the United States for months had submitted his resignation this morning, that it had been accepted, and that Wilson was being assigned to special duty in the State Department.

Mr. Roosevelt said he would not be able to answer a question of whether anyone was under consideration to take the ambassadorship in Berlin.

Mr. Roosevelt said he was not ready to announce what Wilson's duties at the State Department would be.
Developments abroad, Mr. Roosevelt declared, would have an important bearing on what the administration would do about invoking the Neutrality Act and summoning Congress to a special session.

PROCLAMATION DRAFTED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Expressing belief that Great Britain and France would declare war on Germany tomorrow, United States government officials said tonight they had finished drafting a series of proclamations designed to preserve United States neutrality, and would begin to issue the proclamations over the week-end if the war declarations were forthcoming.

Troops Get Wage Advance Over '14 Rate

OTTAWA, Sept. 1.—(CP)—The pay of troops on active service is higher today than in 1914. Instead of $1.10 a day paid during the Great War soldiers of the non-permanent active militia now being called out on active service will receive $1.20. This rate was announced by the Defense Department today.

Saint John Exhibition Is Cancelled

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Sept. 1.—The Annual Saint John Exhibition, scheduled to open tomorrow and continue for a week, was cancelled tonight owing to the international crisis.
Mayor D. L. MacLaren, Chairman of the Civilian Defence Committee, said there was a possibility that scheduled reopening of schools next Tuesday might be postponed.
The Committee is having printed a list of air raid and bombardment precautions for distribution through the mail to all householders.

TEETH PLUNGE

GLACE BAY, N. S. (CP)—When Jack Johnston swung a hammer as he was working in No. 2 colliery he accidentally hit a companion, Albert Chipman. Chipman gasped and his false teeth plunged 800 feet down the mine shaft. Workers retrieved the ivory sun-burned in the muck at the shaft bottom.
