SUDDEN DEATH.—On Tuesday afternoon last while Mr. D. J. Gillis, of Miscouche, was going home from Summerside, he was seen to fall from his wagon, and on picking him up it was found that he had died from apoplexy. Dr. Gillis was at once sent for, but medical aid was of no avail. Deceased was an old resident of Miscouche, and was highly respected. He leaves a wife and family.—Progress.

JAPANESE MISSIONARY.—A large congregation assembled last evening in the Methodist Church to hear the Rev. Dr. McDonald, who for several years has resided in the capital of Japan as Missionary of the Methodist Church of Canada. Notwithstanding his residence in the East, where he rarely has occasion to address English audiences, Dr. McDonald has at command a fresh, vigorous and impressive style. He is what our friends across the lines would call a live man. The customs and manners of Japanese life, and the present movement throughout that Empire in the direction of Christianity and of a nobler civilization, will be the subject of his address, we understand, at the Missionary Meeting advertised in our columns for Tuesday evening. In no country, perhaps, are the prospects of Missions more hopeful than in Japan, and the opportunity of listening to facts and incidents of actual life and experience will be appreciated by most thoughtful people.
