GRAND TRUNK GETTING A 99
YEAR LEASE

Of the Intercolonial Road's Traffic—
A Nice Arrangement.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

OTTAWA, June 26.—Sir McKenzie Bowell's request in the Senate for further information about some feature of the bill confirming an agreement between the Government and the Grand Trunk for the use by the Intercolonial of Victoria Bridge and the terminals at Montreal develops the startling fact that certain clauses of the agreement taken together with a traffic contract made by some subordinate officials would for ninety-nine years give the Grand Trunk and its United States, connections such control of the Intercolonial traffic as to practically constitute a lease of the government railways to them for the period.

WEDDED AT SYDNEY.

E. H. Cunningham, of Halifax, and Miss Alice McDonald Married.

SYDNEY, C. B., June 21.—A very pretty wedding ceremony, conducted by the Rev. Father McDonald, of Bridgeport, was celebrated at the home of Collector of Customs Ronald McDonald, of this town, this morning. The happy persons were Miss Alice H. McDonald, daughter of Ronald McDonald and one of Sydney's fairest and most popular young ladies, and Edmund H. Cunningham, manager of the Commercial Cable Co at Halifax, and formerly of Hazel Hill, Anso. The bride who looked charming, was attended by her sister, Miss Maggie McDonald, who looked equally well. Mr. Cunningham was attended by his brother, Dr. Cunningham, of this town. The groom's present to the bride was a ring with a beautiful setting of sapphires and diamonds, and to the bridesmaid a ring with solitaire-amarth set setting. After a wedding breakfast at the bride's home Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham left on the morning express. They will spend a few weeks in the Annapolis Valley, before returning to their home in Halifax, where they will in future reside. They are followed by the good wishes of their hosts of friends here and throughout the province. Mrs. Cunningham is a sister of L. X. McDonald, judge of probate, of this town, and of Mrs. Capt. Bloomfield Douglas, of Halifax. Mrs. Bloomfield Douglas was present at the wedding ceremony. The bride's presents were costly and numerous. The groom is well and favorably known in Charlottetown.

HANKERS FOR WAR

Crazy Ruler of Montenegro Threatens to Make Trouble.

LONDON, June 23.—Both court and government are much concerned here over news received from Vienna, and corroborated from Cetinje and from Rome, to the effect that the reigning Prince of Montenegro has become crazy, and that putting him under restraint is a question of days, if not hours, though it is difficult to conceive who there is in the principality to undertake the task. That some such step is urgent is manifest from the fact that among the most dangerous phases of his demerit is an insane determination to embark at once upon a full-fledged war with Austria. A few days ago, while passing through the frontier town of Nikschitz, feding a number of Herzegovinians on the market-place, he addressed them in a loud and menacing manner, using insulting language concerning Austria and its emperor, and concluded with the following extraordinary utterance: "I hear that Austria is building a new railroad through her Nerzegovina. Well, well! Neither Austria nor its emperor will witness its completion, for before long I shall be in Nerzegovina and Southern Dalmatia with my troops."

The prince talks and rants of nothing save war with Austria, and much apprehension is felt at Vienna for the Austrian envoy at Cetinje, who, if not exposed to bodily harm, is liable at any moment to become the object of a most unpleasant encounter with the prince. The latter's present trouble originated with insomnia, brought on by financial troubles, by some exceedingly humiliating manifestations of imperial disapproval received from St. Petersburg, and by his bitter disappointment at the curt refusal of Russia to endorse his project of forming a Balkanic federation under his presidency.

Sleeplessness led first to the use and then abuse of narcotics which, coupled with the gross intemperance for which he has long been notorious, has ended by completely wrecking both his mind and his body. His violence has become extreme, and so, too, has his irritability, which has led him to quarrel with all of his sons-in-law, especially with the Crown Prince of Italy. Owing to the absence of any constitutional form of Government, and to the lack of energy on the part of the Crown Prince of Montenegro, no one knows how the prince will be put under restraint, or what steps will be taken to prevent him involving his country in war or subjecting to bodily injury either these around him or himself.

Nowhere is this dangerous crisis in Montenegro affairs being watched with more anxiety and attention than at Vienna, where Emperor Francis Joseph is busily engaged in his annual inspection of the troops forming the metropolitan garrison, and composed of the flower of the army. At the end of this month he proposes to go, for the first time since the death of the empress, to Ischi, where he will spend July and August with his daughter Valerie and his children as his guests.

HAVE ORDERED QUICK-FIRING
AND OTHER GUNS

Though There may yet be a Chance for Negotiations.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, June 26.—The Daily Mail says that an extremely brisk business is being done at Lloyd's in war risks at daily advancing rates.

The Kolnische Zeitung publishes a despatch from the Hague asserting that Dutch official circles are aware that the Transvaal Government is preparing to make a most stubborn defence in the event of war with Great Britain and is arming in the most complete fashion.

According to this information Pretoria has just ordered 26 quick-firing and several heavy calibre guns for fort artillery from the Krupps.

LONDON, June 26.—The Government of the South African Republic, according to a despatch to The Daily Mail from Rome, is ordering large quantities of rifles from Italian firms for immediate shipment.

LONDON, June 26.—The firm attitude of Great Britain appears to be having the desired effect in the Transvaal complication.

The latest cablegrams from South Africa talk of various semi-official missions for negotiations between Cape Town, Bloemfontein and Pretoria.
