CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER

QUIZ

You are the dealer, neither side vulnerable, and have opened One Heart. Partner responds Three Notrump. What would you now bid with each of the following five hands?

1. ♠ 8 ♥ AK963 ♦ 8752 ♣ AJ4
2. ♠ 5 ♥ AQ9764 ♦ AQ3 ♣ 862
3. ♠ QJ ♥ KQJ42 ♦ A93 ♣ A85
4. ♠ A6 ♥ AJ7432 ♦ 8 ♣ KQ72
5. ♠ A10 ♥ QJ9753 ♦ A6 ♣ A84

1. Pass. The three notrump response shows 16 or 17 points, stoppers in the unbid suits, and notrump distribution (always 4-3-3-3 or 4-4-3-2). As such, it constitutes an invitation to proceed towards a slam with values in excess of a minimum opening bid. The jump response is by no means forcing.

There is no good reason to bid again with this hand. A slam is out of the question, since the combined point count is only 28 or 29. There is also no reasonable basis for thinking that a suit contract will play better than a notrump contract. The best thing to do is assume that partner will make nine tricks on sheer power.

2. Four hearts. This is now a forward-going call. The rebid merely says that four hearts is likely to fare better than three notrump. You would have to do more than bid four hearts to show interest in getting to a slam. Obviously, the hand is more likely to make four hearts than three notrump, though it must be granted that both contracts will probably make.

3. Six notrump. This is simply a matter of arithmetic. The combined point count is bound to be 33 or 34, which means there will be an excellent chance of winning twelve tricks. Partner has notrump distribution, and so do we. The raise to six is clear-cut.

4. Four clubs. Here we don't have the point count to indicate a slam, but we do have the distribution that makes a slam a distinct possibility. It is not necessary to have a combined high-card count of 33 points to make a slam if there are sufficient distributional advantages to make up for the discrepancy of 2 or 3 points. The fact is that most slams bid and made are based on about 28 to 30 high-card points.

It is far more desirable to name the clubs than rebid the hearts. There is a reasonable chance that partner has four clubs, in which case a slam in clubs can be reached.

5. Six hearts. This hand figures to produce twelve tricks. We have only 15 points, it is true, but they are gilt-edged points— all of which will pull their weight. Aces are crucial in slam contracts, and we have three of them. An ace normally counts as the equivalent of two queens in the point-count scale, but where a slam is involved, the ace rises appreciably in value.

30 Persons Plan Quebec, Cuba Protest March

NEW YORK (AP)—Some 30 persons will set out from Quebec next month on a 2,000-mile walk they hope will lead to the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba.

They are supporters of the Committee for Nonviolent Action and their march is to protest U.S. policies on Cuba.

Since it was organized in 1957, the pacifist organization has staged hundreds of demonstrations, in most major cities in the United States and many abroad.

It sailed boats into the Pacific to protest U.S. nuclear testing there and it sent another boat from London to Leningrad to make a similar protest against Soviet tests.

Neil Haworth, co-secretary and active in peace movements in 1950, said: "The basic purpose of the committee is to organize non-violent, direct action projects for peace.

"The idea we are trying to communicate is to advocate unconditional disarmament—without international agreement—and a renunciation of the use of military forces. We advocate instead a reliance on defence of freedom through non-violent resistance."

The committee is a non-membership organization in which sympathizers support and participate in projects. It claims 13,000 of these "supporters" in the U.S.

The committee's latest project, the Quebec-to-Guantanamo march, is to begin May 26. The marchers plan to go by Rome, N.Y., where they will meet other marchers from Cleveland and Boston.

Some of the group will continue on to Washington and then to Miami. They hope to take a plane or boat in Miami for the trip to Cuba.

The demonstrators will urge a resumption of normal travel and trade with Cuba and a voluntary withdrawal of U.S. forces from its naval base at Guantanamo.

MADE BIG INCREASE

Britain increased exports to the Soviet Union from $135,000,000 to $330,000,000 between 1958 and 1962.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
