$200,000 Prize For Best Novel Is Announced

NEW YORK (AP)—An award of at least $200,000 has been set up for the writer of a novel that is the best in a "literary talent search."

The sponsors are G. P. Putnam's Sons and Fawcett World Library, publishing houses; tanks, artillery and other ground forces because of the losses of such equipment in the Vietnam drive. The U.S. is also considering sending T-28 jets which are able to do light bombing and can be piloted by Laotians.

President Johnson has made no decision yet to send in either U.S. military advisers or troops, was said.

In the diplomatic field, Washington prefers consultations with the Laotians and Phouma and supported by Britain. But the state department is not ruling out a full-fledged Geneva conference if enough countries favor it.

The French and the Russians want a new 14-nation conference to restore peace in Laos, prevailing view among U.S. officials is that a political settlement of the forces with headquarters in a well-located hill post near the border.

It was suggested that the Lao government would at least need a new conference.

Critic's Magazine and Embassy Pictures Open

It was hoped that this award would encourage writers to write," said Ralph Daugh of Fawcett.

The award will go to the author of an original, English-language novel of at least 60,000 words, regardless of whether he is a native-born American or foreign-born.

Manuscripts must be submitted between next July 1 and July 1, 1966, accompanied by an entry form available June 15 from G. P. Putnam's Sons, 200 Madison Ave., New York 16, N. Y.

The winning author will be guaranteed first serial publication in the final Festival over the period in their different capacities as well in the Dominion Drama Festival held here during last week Philip Wallace, centre, is the distinguished grand critic for the Manchester Guardian in London, England.

Canadian Average: 37.05 miles per gallon

We've always claimed that the Volkswagens cost less than other cars. The results are above. You can double check our average simply by adding the figures together and dividing by 31.3.

So much for gas. How about oil? The average is 1500 miles without adding a drop.

So we decided to settle the question once and for all. We sent questionnaires to VW owners across Canada.

Tires? The average is 35,000 miles to a set.

Tires? The average is 35,000 miles to a set. Trade-in? The average is better than average because Old Faithful never goes out of fashion.

There's one more thing we should tell you. The average Canadian doesn't buy a Volkswagen.

But then who wants to be average?
