[WRITTEN FOR THE EXAMINER.]

"Don't You Do It."

Some chose to stray from wisdom's way
  In devious paths aside,
To suit the aims and oddities
  Of friends not always tried,
And they who try will not deny
  That very oft they rue it;
If you be wise take this advice:
  Be firm and don't you do it.

We must confess that business
  Brings on a host of cares,
And they are sure to fear them best
  Who mind their own affairs;
Then hints are cast both thick and fast
  As helps to push us through it,
They cry, "My man just try our plan,"
  But, mind them, don't you do it.

Perhaps you cling to tippling,
  Meet friends at every turn,
You would reform but then you fear
  Your friendship they will spurn;
You cannot pass the offered glass
  And you will ne'er subdue it,
If, when they press you answer "Yes,"
  And tipple; don't you do it.

All own there's tricks in politics,
  And few there be who find
The task a very simple one
  To please the public mind;
But when you've found the side that's sound
  Be manly and stick to it,
And don't be beat by one defeat
  Or canvass, don't you do it.

When first some choose to court the muse
  They're silenced every time
By those who, ten to one, don't know
  A page of prose from rhyme;
Don't mind their cry, "You soar too high,"
  Soar higher and keep to it,
Their foolish bray will die away,
  And, please them, don't you do it.

Don't be cast down by every frown
  Or turn your aims aside
To please the whims and vanities
  Of ignorance and pride.
Trust less to pense than common sense
  And seldom you will rue it,
Don't be the slave of any knave,
  Such friendships cost, don't do it.

Sayings of Horace Greeley.

Print the facts.

Let the dead rest.

We value facts more than opinions.

Better have a good understanding at the outset.

I don't object to a reasonable share of wickedness.

Let us try to cultivate a generous spirit in all things.

Better do one thing well than several things middling well.

Now about ferocity. I am in favor of it, judiciously applied.

When a thing cannot be done right, do not have it done at all.

A daily paper should publish everything as fast as it is ready.

I believe the history of human progress is written in inventions.

I am a hater of novelty, and never had any taste for being cowhided.

Let us succeed in what we have undertaken before we try anything more.

I want to have less and less to do with politics and more and more with productive industry.

There are very many things I don't begin to know, but I ought to know something of party controversy.

Oh, my friend, the wisdom which teaches what should not be said, that is the hardest to acquire of all.—From his Letters to Chas. A. Dana in New York Sun.

What a——(Story)!

For Neuralgia, a novel cure—which we hardly believe if true, will ever become popular—is vouched for, it is said, by a correspondent of the New York Sun. An Irish girl in Paterson, N. J., had suffered with neuralgia of the head and face until almost frantic with pain; actually beating the wall with her head to cause insensibility. Her employer having heard that a Dr. Terc had cured rheumatism by the sting of a wasp, asked the girl if she would try it. With courage born of despair, she exclaimed "Any other torture would be a pleasuro beside this." A yellow wasp was obtained, and vexed into stinging her face. Within a few moments the pain ceased, the girl fell asleep, and strange to say, never again had an attack of neuralgia. Well, we don't blame her. The remedy was probably too heroic for a second dose. A learned specialist when told this yarn remarked, "The pain may have stopped temporarily, but it could only have been temporary." Continued he, "it is a fact that a sudden shock to inflamed and painful nerves will stop pain," but the remedy is worse then the disease, as many unthinking people in after years find out, who apply fiery and dangerous compounds externally to stop Neuralgia and Rheumatism. They only continue to shock the nervous system, ignorant of the fact that, as in the morphine of alchol habit their mental and moral nature is thus being gradually destroyed. "Make haste slowly, if you expect to cure any nerve disease" was the advice to a lady by a friend who had been cured of chronic Neuralgia by using for some time Johnson's Anodyne Liniment inhaled, taken internally, and applied externally, as advised in the wrapper around every bottle. Neuralgia is a fever or inflammation of the nerves, and only by degrees can any inflammation be cured; and then only by an anodyne treatment. Old Dr. Johnson had this in mind when he devised his Anodyne Liniment; a remedy now known to nearly every one, as it deserves to be. Surely a medicine without real merit could not have survived for eighty years as this one has done. jl wyl dy6 i

Odds and Ends.

A Logical Deduction—Bright Boy: "I'm a chip off the old block, ain't I, Pa?" Fond Father: "Yes, my son." B. B.: "An' you're the head of the family; ain't you, Pa?" F. F.: "Yes, my son." B. B.: "Then you're a blockhead; ain't you, Pa?"

"Which do you love most, your papa or your mamma?" Little Charlie: "I love papa most." Charlie's Mother: "Why, Charlie, I'm surprised at you; I thought you loved me most." Charlie: "Can't help it, Mamma; we men have to hold together."

Uncle James: "Well Bobby, are you gaining any prize at school nowadays?" Bobby: "No, sir; the other fellows get them all." Uncle James: "But you'll keep on trying; of course?" Bobby: "What's the use? The other fellows keep on trying too."

Tommy: "Mamma, why did they put Monday next to Sunday?" Mamma: "Don't trouble me now, dear; I'm sure I don't know. Tommy (after a pause) "Was it because cleanliness is next to godliness?"

THE ABOVE HAS BEEN A SETTLED FACT FOR YEARS, and to keep before the public what is so well known to every good dresser in this Province, may seem superfluous. But as a good dinner tends to give a quietus to the disturbing influences within the inner man, so a thorough knowledge of our capabilities will give a quietus to anyone who may have had the good fortune of being dressed by us. The sun rises and sets, and it appears to the ordinary judgment that the sun revolves around the earth instead of the earth revolving around the sun; so we, through the immense strides we have taken in our art, would appear to the uneducated to be moving around our many friends, instead of they moving around us; like the sun imparts its warm rays to revive drooping nature, so we are the benefactors of our people, by aiming high and attaining to a STYLE and FINISH in our Garments, which cannot but commend us as the MERCHANT TAILORING PHILANTHROPISTS of our day.

Are you anxious to test the foregoing? Come in, then, and see our line of Goods, which are superior, in every sense of the word, and we will fit you out with a Suit which will doubtless draw the loving remark from your best girl that she has "the best dressed young man in town." The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhœa, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription," when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.
