

IF TODAY IS THURSDAY

IF TODAY IS THURSDAY SEPT. 27, OR FRIDAY SEPT. 28...

...and you're sitting in your room, or the Library lounge, or in a class that's about to begin - then you have a decision to make. This decision will affect how you feel Monday, October 1st. If you decide 'no', then Monday probably won't be much different - it'll just mean the weekend is over and it's five days to another one. But if you decide 'yes' then be prepared for a weekend that probably won't be over Monday. Be prepared for a weekend that might stay with you a lifetime or so. Because this is an ACT Weekend.

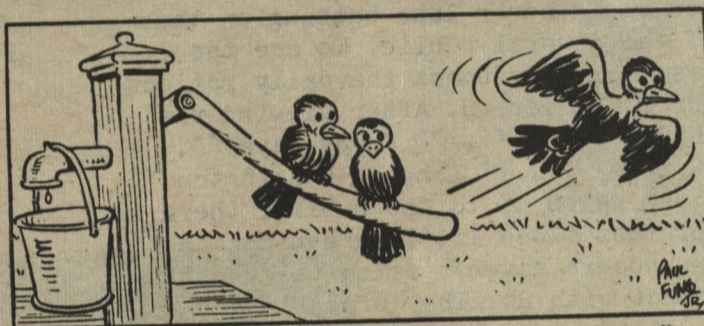

The ACT Weekend was invented to show that God is fun. A lot of people don't seem to think He is; they forget who invented fun. On the ACT Weekend people will be sharing God's fun (also known as God's love) with each other. Sharing God's love doesn't mean you go around blessing other people because they are hopeless sinners and you are a saint. In fact, if you are a saint, please don't come - you'll make everybody uncomfortable.

Don't let the phrase 'God's love' put you off. On the upcoming ACT weekend, you'll see God's love simply in the way people treat each other. The outside world seems a little farther away on an ACT Weekend. This causes people to knock down a few walls we seem to love building so much.

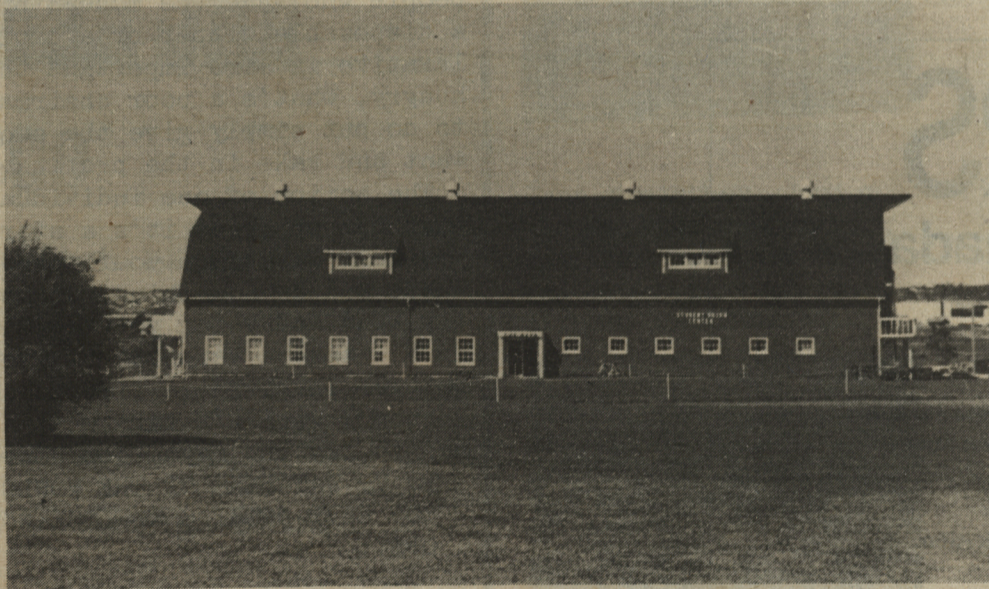

On an ACT Weekend, you don't just meet other people in the hall, or say 'Hi' to them in the library lounge or at the start of a class. On an ACT Weekend you live with each other. Because of this, and because they're are absolutely no distractions on an ACT Weekend (for once in your life), people tend to let themselves be completely themselves on an ACT Weekend. Simply because there's nobody else left. That's really the secret of an ACT Weekend. That's why it's worked for so many kids over the last five years. Me included. There's a booth with registration forms for ACT. It's in the hall in the library. If this is still Thursday the 24th, or Friday the 25th, you should visit it.

Decide 'yes' to this ACT Weekend. There are a lot of other kids deciding the same thing right now. You'll meet them Friday night.

I dunno what's wrong... everytime I talk to him he flies off the handle.
