

... A Quarter Of A Century Is Too Long

Despite the loud boasts of the Liberal candidates that they always keep their promises, here are a few samples of the many promises made in 1955 but long since forgotten.

- THEY PROMISED A NEW CHICKEN PROCESSING PLANT FOR CHARLOTTETOWN.
The people of Charlottetown are still waiting
- THEY PROMISED AN ALL-WEATHER ROAD ACROSS KING'S COUNTY TO WOOD ISLANDS.
No road has been built.
- THEY PROMISED TO BUILD A CAUSEWAY FOR VICTORIA.
There is neither a causeway nor a bridge.
- THEY PROMISED VOLUNTARY HOSPITAL INSURANCE IN PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.
Then went against the wishes of their own legislature and made the Hospital Care Plan compulsory.
- THEY PROMISED LOWER LICENCE RATES ON SMALL TRUCKS.
Truck owners are still waiting.
- THEY PROMISED INVESTIGATION OF MINIMUM WAGE LAWS ESPECIALLY IN MUNICIPALITIES.
There has been no investigation.

Broken promises are nothing new in the quarter of a century of Liberal rule. Many of the broken promises of 1955 were also made and broken in 1951, in 1947, in 1943, in 1939, and in 1935.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY OF BROKEN PROMISES...
