

Dodgers Wallop Redbirds; Athletics Nip Tigers 4-3

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Charlie Neal's perfect five-for-five day and Gil Hodges with five runs batted in led Los Angeles Dodgers in a 20-hit attack on six St. Louis pitchers for a 17-11 victory Sunday. It was the top scoring orgy of the young National League season.

Rookie Gene Snyder, young Dodger lefthander, emerged with the victory—the first of his major league career.

Carl Furillo of the Dodgers had four hits and drove in three runs, and Don Zimmer pounded a three-run homer.

Ex-Dodger Gino Cimoli, with three doubles and three runs batted in, and Ken Boyer—three for three, and three RBIS—led the Cardinals.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Bob Cerv's inside-the-park homer with two on base in the third inning provided the margin Sunday as the Kansas City Athletics handed the Detroit Tigers their 12th defeat, 4-3.

The home run was Cerv's third of the American League season and his second third-inning, three-run round-tripper in consecutive games against Detroit.

Bob Grim picked up the victory, his third against one loss, but not without trouble. A double play bailed him out with the bases loaded and one run across in the fourth inning. He also survived with the bases full in the sixth.

Grim gave up 16 hits. Jim Bunning (0-2) was the Detroit starter and loser, retiring after yielding seven safeties in five innings.

The game was delayed an hour and 45 minutes by light rain and was played under a heavy overcast with the lights on.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bill Fisher's nine-hitter, combined with home runs by Roy Sievers and Jim Lemon, enabled the Washington Senators to defeat the Boston Red Sox, 2-1 Sunday.

An error by Sievers in the ninth inning permitted the Red Sox to spoil Fisher's shutout bid. Jackie Jensen led off the ninth with a single and took second as Sievers fumbled the ball. With two outs, pinch hitter Bill Renna's scratch single scored Jensen from second.

Fischer, who pitched 10 straight shutout innings against the Yankees last Wednesday, had run his streak of scoreless innings to 15 before the Red Sox put over their unearned run.

The win gave the Senators a two-to-one edge in the three-game series.

National League records.

The loss knocked the Braves out of the National League lead in favor of Los Angeles.

Bob Purkey picked up the pitching victory in relief after a two-inning stint.

NEW YORK (AP) — Baltimore Orioles swept both ends of an American League doubleheader from New York Yankees Sunday 5-4 and 3-2, with third baseman Brooks Robinson driving in the winning run in the opener and scoring the tie-breaking run in the nightcap.

The two victories, their third and fourth straight over the defending champions, boosted the Orioles to within one game of the league-leading Cleveland Indians. The double loss dropped the Yankees into the second division with a 6-7 record.

Baltimore won both games with single scored Jensen from second.

Whitey Ford, who had entered the first game in the ninth to protect a one-run lead, was the victim of the attack.

Hoyt Wilhelm went the distance to register his second victory of the season in the second game. He permitted only five hits.

Milt Pappas, who relieved starter Billy O'Dell in the sixth inning, was credited with the first-game victory.

Enos Slaughter, 43-year-old Yankee outfielder, marked his 2,300th major league game with a pinch-hit single in the seventh of the opener that gave his team a temporary 4-3 lead.

The two teams used a total of ten pinch-hitters in the first game, establishing a record. Five teams held the previous mark with nine pinch-hitters.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Southpaw Billy Pierce pitched and batted Chicago White Sox to a 5-3 victory over Cleveland Indians in the second game of an American League doubleheader Sunday after the Sox had won the opener 6-5.

The 32-year-old lefthander gave up eight hits in winning his second game against one defeat and hit a triple double and single in four times at bat. His double drove in two runs.

Early Wynn, a 39-year-old righthander, got credit for the 25th victory of his major league

NEWCASTLE, N.B. (CP)—Smooth passing Newcastle Legionaires won both games of a round-robin Senior C Basketball Tourney here Saturday to nail down the Maritime championship.

Led by Lanly Pivotman Ian Anderson, the New Brunswick Senior C champs slapped 60-36 and 75-54 defeats on Summerside RCAF Sultans and New Waterford Strands respectively. It is the New Brunswick club's first Maritime Senior C title.

Anderson, six feet, six inches tall, scored 24 points in the afternoon game against Summerside and added 33 in the night contest against Strands.

A third game had been scheduled for Sunday but was unnecessary.

Strands, Nova Scotia champions, had been slated to play the Prince Edward Island champion Sultans but the winner would still have fallen two points short of the Legionaires.

Bill Terman led the Sultans' scoring with 10 points. New Waterford playing coach Ross McNeil and Karl Marsh were tops offensively for New Waterford, each with 15.

SPORTS FRONT

PETE RUNNELS of the Boston Red Sox is out to prove that his hitting feats of last season were no accident. It will be remembered that Pete lost out to teammate Ted Williams on the final day of play in the 1953 season. The prize at stake was the American League batting crown.

Ted wound up with .322 and Pete sported a .322 but the way Runnels looked at things, you would have sworn he had copped top honors. "If I had been beaten out by anyone else I'd have felt bad," he said, "but it's no disgrace to finish second to Ted Williams."

Nevertheless, it was a tough ending for Runnels.

WHEN THE RED SOX acquired him from Washington Senators (he had been with the Nationals seven years) Pete was considered either trade bait or an extra wheel on the Boston infield. In 1957 he had hit only .230 for Washington.

But Pete found new life with the Red Sox and at the age of 30 he became a hitting star. He was in the fight for the batting crown from the very first day of the schedule. He claimed two things made this possible—tips from the Splendid Splinter and the fact that he was playing with a first division club.

WILLIAMS, according to Runnels helped him with many tips. He was quite willing to let Pete in on his knowledge of batting.

But the fact that Runnels was hitting ahead of Williams made a big difference as well. Pete claims he got better pitches to swing at because no hurler wanted to walk Runnels with the powerful Williams next in line.

Runnels also insists that the fact that he seems to be established at second base is a big help. He no longer appears to be a jack of all trades. Before last season, he has shunned from one infield to another ever since coming into the big time in 1951. Indeed one year he played the outfield for the Senators. And before 1951, when he was in the minors, he caught briefly and even took turns on the mound.

Boston got Runnels on January 23, 1958 in exchange for Norm Zaucha and Albie Pearson. Albie proceeded to wind up as the rookie of the year. Boston would have looked bad indeed if Runnels hadn't measured up.

But he more than measured up and everybody was in good humour.

Happiest guy of all, however, was Pete Runnels.

THE WAY FOLKS got steamed up about the Stanley Cup was something. All across the country the interest was terrific and folks watching the big game in their living rooms really took their likes and dislikes to heart.

To hear of one community on the Island where Canadiens' and Leafs' fans would not even associate when the games were in progress. During the daylight hours, they would carry on conversation but once nightfall came each group went to their own 'camp'.

You would think every player on each team was a personal friend of these rabid fans. That's how excited these folks became. Canadiens' supporters could see no good in any Toronto performer and Leafs' backers had no applause for any Montreal efforts.

By now, these folks have likely cooled off, but, brother, for about ten days things were really warm.

THE STRETCH DRIVE of 'Punch' Imlach's Leafs really won them a lot of friends. A great many of them had never been hockey fans before this year but they got on the Toronto bandwagon once 'Punch' got these imps of his rolling.

Imlach got quite a bang out of some of the messages he received but none gave him a bigger kick than this one, which came from the Pleasant View Home in Youngstown, Alberta. Here's the message: "We, the whole 50 of us from 70 to 90, are all well and pulling for you." The supervisor added a footnote: "I wish you could see this bunch of aged men—especially when there is a bit of a fight or when the Leafs score."

That's just a sample of the excitement that was prevalent all across this country.

REMEMBER TORONTO MAPLE LEAFS claiming George Armstrong scored a goal that wasn't counted in that fourth game. There was considerable talk after that battle as to whether the disc had gone into the net or not.

Maurice 'Rocket' Richard was one of the few persons who made the call on Armstrong's phantom goal. The 'Rocket' was doing French commentary on radio that night and he exclaimed: "The rubber seemed to go right through the net."

That's what Armstrong tried to make the goal judge and the referee believe. But they couldn't be convinced.

WHEN GORDIE HOWE dropped around at Canadiens' victory celebration at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel, he and Boom Boom Coffrin compared notes on the miseries both had suffered in the past season. And both had plenty.

Both these great performers took time out to give a few verbal blasts in the direction of Leafs' young defenceman Carl Brewer. They were in agreement that the young fellow was far too 'chippy' and added that he would be cooled out next season.

Brewer drew several cheap penalties in the playoffs. In all he served a total of 40 minutes. That's two whole periods of a hockey game. It does seem to be overdoing it a wee bit.

FORMER PILOT of St. Louis Cardinals, Fred Hutchinson, thinks the Cardinals will not show much improvement this season. He naturally admits that Stan Musial is great but he adds "The Man" is beginning to slow up. Fred claims that much depends on Ken Boyer who he insists can be as great as anybody in the league. "Yes," insists Fred, "as good as Willie Mays."

That's quite a tribute to Mr. Boyer.

Stirling Moss Wins Grand Prix

SYRACUSE, Sicily (Reuters)—Stirling Moss of Britain won the Syracuse Grand Prix for formula two cars in a Cooper-Borgward Saturday.

career in the first game, but needed help from Gerry Staley who pitched the last four innings and blanked the Indians on three hits.

The triumphs gave the White Sox a 9-5 won-lost record for the season and put them in second place, one game behind the Indians who have a 10-4 record.

Philadelphia (AP)—Dave Philley, who started at first base only because Ed Bouchee had the flu, batted in five runs with a double and home run to help the Philadelphia Phillies win 10-5 and split a doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Pirates, who played the second game under protest after manager Danny Murtaugh and third baseman Don Hoak were thumbed from the game in a first inning dispute, won the first game 9-2. Vern Law hurled three hit ball and shortstop Dick Groat collected four hits, including his first major league grand slam in the opener.

The first inning rhubarb was prompted by a play at the plate in which Bill Virdon of the Pirates bowled over umpire Vic Delmore. Catcher Valmy Thomas tagged Virdon, claiming the Pirate outfielder had not touched the plate. After Delmore recovered from the jolt, the umpires huddled and decided Thomas was right.

Murtaugh and Hoak ranted and raved until third base ump Shag Crawford, who made the final decision, tossed them out. Murtaugh announced the Pirates were playing under protest.

Winnipeg (CP) — Winnipeg Braves squared the best-of-seven Memorial Cup final at one game each, defeating Peterborough Petes 5-2 Sunday before 9,171 fans. Third game will be played here Tuesday night.

Braves, defeated 5-4 in the opener Friday, showed some of the speed up front that won them the western title as they beat the Petes to the puck while their defence and goalie Ernie Wakely left little to be desired.

Free-wheeling Laurie Langrell shipped in two Brave goals for the second straight game, while Bobby Leiter, Rene Brunel and Pat Angers scored singles.

Tom Clark and Tom Thurby were the Peterborough scorers.

Braves took 11 of the 20 penalties but only one misdemeanor figured in the scoring. Thurby getting the final goal of the game while his own team was short-handed.

Dennis Dejardy was brilliant in the Peterborough net turning aside 29 shots, many of which were labelled.

He was particularly spectacular in the first and third periods when Braves had a decided edge. Wakely, who was called on to make only 18 saves, was at his best in the second period, stopping six tough shots.
