

Cardinals Trounce Cubs Musial Still Needs One

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Stan Musial doubled in his first at bat for his 2,999th hit Monday, then was blanked while his St. Louis Cardinal teammates banged Chicago Cub pitching for a 6-1 victory.

National League, was among the 3,683 watching the game with the hope that Stan would enter the shamed 3,000-hit circle.

He may gain the mark reached by only seven others in the two-game series closer in Wrigley Stadium today.

In all, the Cardinals collected 10 hits off three hurlers and bunched four of them along with two errors and a walk for four decisive runs in the fifth inning. They had scored twice in the fourth.

For Chicago, Ernie Banks hit his seventh homer of the season in the third inning.

In the only other National League contest, San Francisco played a night contest at Los Angeles.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A seventh-inning two-run homer by Neil Chrissy on a drive which bounced off centerfielder Jim Piersall's glove into the bleachers gave Washington Senators a 5-4 victory over Boston Red Sox Monday night.

Chrissy's homer, his third in his last three games, made a winning pitcher of unbeaten Dick Hyde, who has won three times. Chrissy was substituting for Washington's home-run king Roy Sievers, who pulled a leg muscle in a game in New York Sunday.

Victim of ex-Red Soxer Chrissy's drive was Murray Wall, second of three Boston pitchers.

This was the sixth time in seven games that the second-place Senators have knocked off the Red Sox. The win inched the Senators to within two games of the American League-leading Yankees.

Jackie Jensen hit his fifth homer of the season in the fourth.

Royals And Red Wings Hammered By Opponents

MONTREAL (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs, backed by the strong pitching of Don Johnson and Bob Tiefenauer, pounded out 17 hits Monday night for a 10-2 victory over Montreal Royals, International League leaders.

Johnson, a 31-year-old right-hander picked up his first win against four defeats.

Tiefenauer took over in the sixth and went the rest of the route holding the Royals hitless.

Shortstop Hector Rodriguez, a former Royal, led the Leafs at the plate, driving in three runs with four hits, three of them doubles.

The victory moved Toronto to within 3½ games of the Royals.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Richmond Monday night handed Miami Marlins their seventh setback in eight games, bombarding five pitchers for a 13-2 International League victory.

John Jaciuk, the Virginians' first baseman, got five singles in six trips to the plate and was robbed of a perfect night at bat by shortstop Bobby Micolotta's spectacular catch of a hot grounder that looked like No. 6.

Johnny James scattered 10 Miami hits for his second win against two losses. The Marlins left a dozen men stranded on base.

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The Buffalo Bisons blasted Rochester pitching for 14 hits, including four homers and five doubles, to crush the Red Wings 17-2 in an International League baseball game Monday night.

Jack Phillips hit a grand slam homer in the first inning to lead a five-run uprising. The Bisons scored eight runs in the sixth with the help of some loose defensive play.

Luke Easter, Joe Caffie and Ray Noble also slammed home runs. Ken Johnson pitched his first victory for the Bisons this year.

from McNeese State College in Lake Charles, La.

He is 24 years old, weighs 180 pounds and is five feet, nine inches tall. He is reported to be a good punter as well as fast runner.

SPORT ECHOES

BY NORMAN MACDONALD

Our sincere apologies to the curtain raisers in Friday's fight card at Civic Stadium. Those boys, Donnie Arsenault and Gussie Gallant, were missed completely in the news story of the fight card, either inadvertently or because of shortage of space. Arsenault received the nod of the judges in a close, crowd-pleasing battle.

The card was considerably above average, and very close to the top as far as the main bout was concerned. MacKay, from New Glasgow pretty well lived up to his advance notices. Like harkus, "He was willin'." For a while it looked as if he might rake in all the chips. Ramsay started slowly. There was rumor that Bud wasn't in shape, and when we asked him about this before the fight, Bud said: "Don't be surprised if you see me hop on my bicycle during the last few rounds." When we saw that MacKay was all over Ramsay in the first rounds, from New Glasgow pretty well lived up to his advance notices. "Poor Bud will need a motor cycle before this clambake is over" was our thought. But Bud came stronger and stronger as the fight progressed. His counter-punching was something to see. MacKay, constantly boring in, was caught twice with lightning shots which laid him low. It was a honey of a fight.

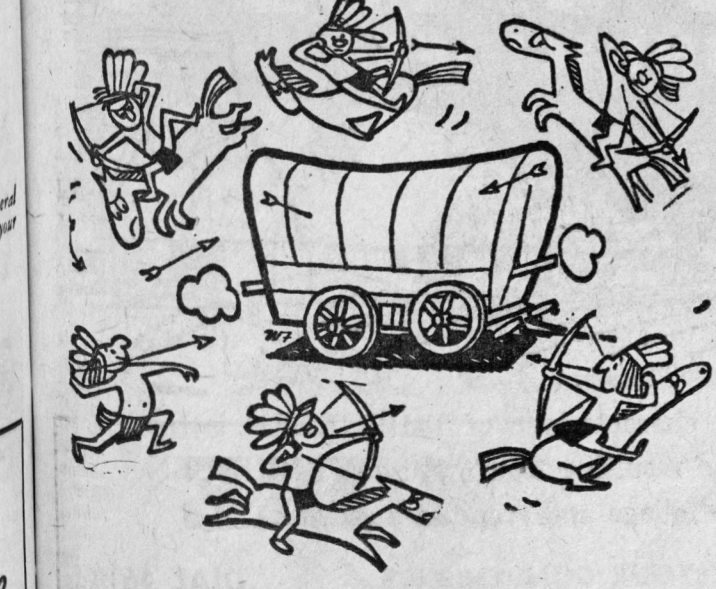

Jimmy Stewart substituting for "Sluggo" Turnbull, was a poor substitute for any kind of a slugger, but as a boxer with plenty of style he filled the bill, and both "Peanuts" Arsenault no end in the early part of the fight. "Peanuts" rocked him later on, however, with those sidewinders for which "Peanuts" is famous, and gained a unanimous decision.

Len Durelle was a bit disappointing, but only because Durelle is a very exciting fighter and the crowd expect to see fireworks when he hops into a ring. He fought a furious fourth round, but in the other five he was just another hired hand.

Steele seemed to be in charge in the last two rounds.

The crowd was disappointing, and this is a pretty popular refrain in sports circles in the past few years. The card looked inviting. Why so many empty seats? Were the prices a bit high, and would the "small profits and quick sales" idea have helped? We're not saying it would, mind you. We're just asking. Do the fans suspect that the unknowns from across the straits are not what they are ballyhoosed to be? Now and again a disappointing punk does appear on our fight cards, and "once bitten" the fans may be "twice shy". MacKay was perfectly satisfactory, and even substitute Stewart put on a good show if you don't insist on a steady diet of haymakers. How can the fans be sure the boys are going to be satisfactory thought? Don't you think it might be a good idea to give the records of visiting fighters before they fight here? "He knocked out John Doe and was knocked kicking by Richard Roe." This sort of thing would talk much louder than paragraphs of rave notices from us gentlemen of the press.

May Willing To Sponsor Tourney If Carter Fired

NEW YORK (AP) — George May is willing to sponsor a $250,000 golf tournament next year if the Professional Golfers Association will fire Ed Carter, its tournament director, the New York World-Telegram and Sun said Monday.

"I am ready to go back into tournament operation, but not with Carter," the Chicago businessman said in an interview.

Last month May abandoned his rich Tam O'Shanter "World's" and All-American championships at Chicago in a dispute with the PGA over entry fees.

The PGA demanded that the fees, amounting to about $24,000 in case of May's tournaments, be returned to the tournament bureau. May objected.

Schmidt, Lynch Fight To Draw

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK (AP) — Pete (Split Decision) Schmidt scored a flash knockdown in the last 15 seconds Monday night and pulled out a draw with favored Eddie (Pigeons) Lynch in a television 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena.

Both are from New York. Schmidt weighed 148, Lynch 147.

The knockdown—which Lynch claimed was from a push—proved the difference in the scoring. All three officials gave Schmidt the final round.

Referee Harry Ebbets voted for Lynch 6-3-1. Judge Jack Gordon voted for Schmidt, 5-4-1. Judge Mike Davidowitch had it even, 5 rounds and 7 points for each. The AP card had them even at 5-5.

Schmidt, the aggressor most of the way, was behind in the final round when he caught Lynch in a neutral corner and let go with his right hand. Some observers said it landed on the jaw, some said it was a phantom punch. Lynch and his handlers claimed it was a right to the side and a push.

Lynch leaped up immediately and Ebbets gave him the mandatory eight count while many of the 1,511 fans booed.

Earlier in the close scrap, each scored a knockdown.

Paris Wins In Non-Title Bout

NEW GLASGOW (CP) — Keith Paris 150, Halifax, TKO'D Maritime Welterweight Champion Norm Gautreau, 146, Moncton, in the seventh round of a scheduled 10-round non-title fight here Monday night.

In a six-round preliminary Al McLean, 154, New Glasgow, pounded out an unanimous decision over Tiger Steele, 156, New Glasgow.

Doug Odo, 160, Thoburn, got the nod from the three officials in a rugged six-rounder with Alf Grant, 160, Halifax.

Gautreau won both previous fights by decision. Their last meeting was for the Maritime Title. Before Monday's fight Paris was promised a title shot within 30 days if he won.

Gautreau sprained his ankle in the fifth. He limped through the sixth but his manager Chris Shan, who also handles Canadian and British Empire light-heavyweight champion Yvon Durelle, decided to call it quits after that. It was the third meeting for the

Campey Fitted For Neck Brace

NEW YORK (AP) — Roy Campanella, paralyzed from the waist down, since his automobile accident of last Jan. 28, has begun taking exercises to the upper extremities, Dr. Howard A. Ruf, director of the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Centre, reported Monday.

The star Los Angeles Dodgers catcher, who was transferred to this hospital from Glen Cove Hospital last week, has been fitted for a neck brace.

A special device has been made for his hands which now allows him to feed himself, the report added. "There has been no change in the status of paralysis.

Lennon, who also is the circuit's runs batted in leader with 30, enjoyed phenomenal success. He gained 49 points with 13 hits in 25 times at bat and moved into second place in the batting race with a .378 mark through Sunday's games.

Lebanese Mobs Want Defeat Of Pro-Western Government

By TOM MASTERTON
BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Angry mobs shouting for the downfall of Lebanon's pro-Western government roamed Beirut Monday. In northern Lebanon an Iraqi oil pipeline was blown up and strikes and shootings spread through the country.

At least five buildings, including a first-aid station and a U.S. information agency library, were set afire in Beirut.

Automobiles were overturned, roadblocks set up and rioters and security forces exchanged fire several times at different points in the city. At least five persons—including a woman and a child—were reported killed and 20 wounded in this fighting.

The blasted pipeline carried oil from Iraq across Lebanon and Syria to the Mediterranean for the Iraq Petroleum Company. It had not been fully restored since being wrecked by the Syrian Army during the Suez fighting in 1956.

BORDER BLOCKED
(The Middle East News Agency in Cairo said two unidentified men blew up an oil pipeline near the village of Majd and the flow of oil to the Lebanese port of Tripoli had stopped but that oil was still flowing to Banias, the second Lebanese oil terminus on the Mediterranean.

(A Damascus dispatch said Lebanon sealed off its border with Syria and travellers attempting to enter the country were turned back.)

Reasons for the actions against the library and the Iraq firm were not clear. But Iraq, a member of the anti-Communist Baghdad pact, now is merged with the kingdom of Jordan in the Arab federation. Nationalist Arabs detest the Baghdad pact.

PUBLISHER KILLED
Mob action broke out in Tripoli Saturday with a general strike call by the opposition front in protest against the assassination of a pro-Nasser newspaper publisher in Beirut last Thursday. The assassin escaped after pumping 11 bullets into the editor-publisher Nasib Matni.

Monday the general strike brought transportation and business to a standstill in this capital.

NEW YORK (AP) — Sal Maglie protected his place on New York Yankees' staff Monday night as Milwaukee Braves defeated their World Series rivals 4-3 in a charity exhibition.

The 41-year-old righthander held the world champions to four hits in his first mound appearance since spring training and left after seven innings while leading 3-2. Milwaukee jumped on Johnny Kucks for the winning tallies in the eighth. Maglie walked three and fanned three.
