MARRIAGE BELLS.—The nuptials of Dr. James Handrahan, son of Thomas Handrahan, Esq., of this city, and Miss Adeline Hunter, were solemnized at St. Dunstan's Cathedral this morning. The ceremony was performed by His Lordship Bishop Macdonald, assisted by Rev. D. H. Bell. Mr. Thomas B. Riley, the well-known tlaceo manufacturer, and Miss Annie Koughan, daughter of the late William Koughan, Esq., were also married at the Cathedral this morning, the Rev. D. H. Bell officiating. Miss Grace Koughan was bridesmaid and Mr. Daniel J. Riley, groomsmen. To Dr. and Mrs. Handrahan and Mr. and Mrs. Riley, THE EXAMINER extends its most hearty congratulations.

Highest Awards! The World's Columbian Exposition has given the Brainerd & Armstrong Co. the highest awards on their Absolutely Fast Color Wash Embroidery Silks, Knitting Silks and Spool Silks.

This is the kind we keep! While the superiority of these Silks has for years been acknowledged by all users of Embroidery or Sewing Silks, still it is none the less gratifying to have the general opinion so strongly endorsed as it is by these awards from the Commissioners of the great World's Fair.

BEER BROS. Our stock of Brainerd & Armstrong's Silks is now large and complete.

Weather Bulletin. Toronto, Nov. 27, 10 p. m. Winds gradually shifting to easterly, fair and cold.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

LETTER FROM SENATOR FERGUSON. Sir,—Permit me to correct an error in the report of my remarks at the Market Hall meeting on Friday. I said that the Government increased their debt at the Merchants' Bank of P. E. Island by nearly $21,000 in the month of October. This was the increase in one month, not in three months as reported. The overdraft of $14,000 at the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, increased by about $28,000 in October, is under the heading of Loans to Provincial Governments. But it is believed that these are mainly if not altogether transactions of this Province. D. FERGUSON.

The Young People's Association of Zion Church will spend this evening with the Scottish poets. Everybody welcome. The following is the programme: Quartette.....Misses Harvey, Campbell, Messrs. Nichol Reading.....Miss E. McNeil Solo.....Mr. McKay Instrumental.....Misses Fraser & McLeod. Reading.....Mrs. B. G. Ellis Solo.....Mr. J. M. McLeod Reading.....Mr. E. Matheson Duo.....Messrs. McLeod & Campbell. Quartette.....Messrs. McLeod and Campbell. Solo.....Auld Lang Syne. Silver collection in aid of Society.

OFF THE TRACK.—This morning about nine o'clock, as the accommodation train from Summerside for Charlottetown was coming into Emerald station, the engine and one box car went off the track. The engine was slightly damaged. The passengers were forwarded to Charlottetown by special train.

Y. M. C. A.—Mr. Justice Hensley read an excellent paper on Praise and Thanksgiving at the meeting yesterday afternoon.

Personal. Mr. C. B. Warren has accepted a position with J. M. McLeod & Co., where he will be happy to see all his old friends.

John A. Macdonald of Charlottetown, has been granted a master certificate for foreign trade by the board of marine examiners.

Mr. H. H. Cross, representing Chalcraft Simpson, & Co., wholesale clothing manufacturers, Montreal, is here on a business trip. He is registered at Hotel Davia.

Mr. H. J. Macgowan returned yesterday afternoon from Prince Edward Island where he was married on Wednesday.—Moncton Transcript.

Paul Lee, Esq., of Moncton, was on the Island last week attending the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jabez Lee, of Victoria.

MARRIED. This morning, November 27th, at St. Dunstan's Cathedral, by His Lordship Bishop Macdonald, assisted by the Rev. D. H. Bell, James Handrahan, M. D., of Enfield, and Adeline Hunter, daughter of David Hunter, of Merrimack, Mass., formerly of Alberton, P. E. I.

DIED. At Charlottetown, Nov. 26, Harold Herbert, son of Lewis Carvell, aged 37. (St. John, Moncton and Halifax daily papers, Boston Herald and Transcript, please copy.)

At his late residence, Upper Prince Street on Nov. 26th, George Lawson, Esq., aged 77 years. [Funeral Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock to Brackley Point.]

At Charlottetown, Nov. 23rd, Alberta Jane, infant daughter of William W. and Lavinia M. Anderson, aged 2 months and 14 days.
