

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

"ARE YOU READY?"—Read Bee Bros ad No Mail.—There was no foreign mail last night, the Stanley not leaving Picton on account of the thick weather.

THE TOWN CLOCK has been "out of order" ever since New Year's, much to the annoyance and inconvenience of the general public.

A SNOW STORM began about three o'clock yesterday afternoon and continued throughout the night. Several feet of snow fell during that time.

SCOTT ACT.—This afternoon, summonses for first violations of the Scott Act were served on Patrick Duffy and Elizabeth Walling. They are returnable on Wednesday.

GOSE TO JAIL.—Fred E. Rowe went down to jail yesterday afternoon for two months, in default of payment of a Scott Act fine of $100 and costs imposed upon him a few days ago.

BOARD OF TRADE.—The general quarterly and annual meeting of the Charlottetown Board of Trade will be held at the upper room in the Masonic Temple on the evening of Wednesday, Jan. 9th, inst., at 8 o'clock.

THE STANLEY arrived at Georgetown about half-past twelve this afternoon, and the mails and passengers by her reached the city about three. The steamer will leave Georgetown on return to Picton on Monday morning.

REMOVE THE SNOW.—Elsewhere in THE EXAMINER to-day will be found a notice from the City Surveyor, regarding the removal of snow, to which the attention of owners and occupants of property is respectfully directed.

COURT NOTES.—The Court of Appeal in Equity will meet on Monday next, when judgment in the case of W. E. Dawson and others vs. the Trustees of the Methodist Church will be delivered. The argument in the case of Maxcher vs. Stone will be postponed until a future date.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—A man named James H. Robertson was found on the road near the Gospel Mission, Peckskill, N. Y., on Thursday, frozen to death. Robertson was once a prominent citizen, and was Mayor of Peckskill for several terms. He had recently been addicted to drink.

OBITUARY.—Mr. Andrew Crosby, Bonshaw Mills, died suddenly at his home last evening about 5 o'clock. He had been ill about two weeks, but was thought to be recovering. The funeral will take place on Monday at 10.30 at his father's home-land near Cornwall, where he will be buried.

LECTURE.—The Rev. D. Sutherland delivered his interesting and instructive lecture on "Scottish Characteristics" in the Hall at South Granville on Thursday evening. There was a large audience present, and the lecture was listened to with the closest attention throughout. Mr. J. Stirling occupied the chair. Mr. Sutherland was greeted with a hearty "welcome," to which he replied in an appropriate manner.

LAD TO REST.—All that was mortal of the late Donald McKay was laid to rest yesterday. The funeral was largely attended, upwards of 150 sleighs being in the procession. A large number of friends of the deceased from Charlottetown were present. The service at the house was conducted by Rev. Daniel McLean and the solemn and impressive ceremony of the Masonic order was read at the grave by H. C. McDonald, W. M. of St. John's Lodge.

A. O. H.—The officers of the A. O. H. for 1895 are as follows: W. A. H. County President—Michael Walsh. President—W. J. O'Reilly. Vice-President—James H. Reddin. Treasurer—John Griffith. Financial Secretary—Wm. Trainor. Recording Secretary—Edward Trainor. Finance Committee—Park Connelly, D. J. Riley, Jas. Macdonald. Marshal—Walter Kingman. Inside Guard—Thos Butler. Outside Guard—John McAleer.

THOUGHT IT HER PICTURE.—An amusing scene occurred at a New Haven railway station the other day. A stout old lady, seeing one of those automatic machines from which, by dropping a penny in the slot, you receive a portrait of a celebrity, carefully reconnoitred it. She dropped the coin in and posed herself in front of the machine for a few seconds, opened the door and drew out a portrait. Adjusting her spectacles, and looking at it, what should meet her astonished gaze but a portrait of a lady adorned in costume. "Well," she ejaculated, "so this is me, eh? If I don't speak to the authorities about this, my name's not Maria Joking!"

DESTITUTION IN NEBRASKA.—An Omaha newspaper man who has been investigating the reports of destitution among the people of southwestern Nebraska, found extreme poverty and suffering, and says that two-thirds of the people in five counties are dependent on charity for existence. There is a scarcity of water, and it is stated that only three good crops have been raised in nine years. The county treasuries are empty because the people cannot pay their taxes. Many heart-rending cases of destitution are reported and help, to be effective, must be prompt. The railways generally offer to carry live, provisions and clothing free for distribution. The report states that in one county the situation is so bad that if the people there are not helped soon they will starve or freeze to death.

LATE NIGHT'S LECTURE.—The lecture at the Christian Church last evening was quite well attended, considering the stormy night. Mr. Miller dwelt upon the tendency of young men to be fast in leaving the home and its influence, and the church and its in-tractions. He thought parents are too indulgent with their children; that young men are fast in bringing their education to a close. He spoke also of the world's pleasures to draw young men; and of the young men being fast to get into trouble and in getting into society. Begin at home, said he, to instruct the boys. Surround the home with good books and papers, making the home attractive for them. Invite them to all the church services, make them welcome, make the a feel at home in the church. Thrown around them good influences and Christian love, and thus help elevate the morals of the community.

THE CITY SNOW PRODIGE was out this forenoon and did good work.

DIED.—At Philadelphia, Dec. 27th, Margaret Florence, widow of the late Francis Wells, and much beloved niece of Mrs. Charles Young.

At Saray, Belfast, on the 29th of Dec. 1894, after a protracted illness which she bore with patience and resignation to the Divine Will, Mary, relict of the late Archibald Buchanan, in her 71st year of her age, leaving one son and two daughters, besides a large circle of friends, to mourn their loss.

KINGS COUNTY ITEMS.

Dr. D. A. Stewart, of Georgetown, returned by the steamer Stanley on Wednesday evening, accompanied by his wife, Miss Emma O'Brien. The Doctor had been away to the United States for a well-earned holiday of three weeks, and feeling "that it was not well for man to live alone," joined the noble army of benefactors at Boston, Mass., on the 27th ult. His wife is one of the most popular young ladies of Georgetown, and had been on a visit to friends in the Great Republic. We heartily congratulate the Doctor on his new departure, and trust that his married life will bring him the same well-merited success that he hitherto has secured, both professionally and as one of the leading sportsmen of King's County.

A children's concert took place at Cardigan Bridge on Monday, the 31st Dec., and was an enjoyable time, especially for the young generation. About thirty-five young lads and lassies took part in the programme, which consisted of instrumental and vocal music, dialogues and a well gotten up presentation of the comedy "Pass in Boots." Miss Maggie Stewart acted as mistress of ceremonies, and Mrs. D. C. Morson and Mrs. H. L. Macdonald took an active part in the performance of the programme. The proceeds were in aid of the Presbyterian Manse fund.

Dr. A. Allan and Wm. M. McLeod, Esq., represented Cardigan at the funeral of Sir John S. D. Thompson on January 3rd, inst. Mr. McElaehern was one of the pioneers of Three Rivers, being in his 84th year at the time of his death. A large concourse attended the funeral. George Parker, Esq., Sr., of Georgetown, is another of the landmarks that has passed away lately. He was the father of a large family, among whom were John Parker, Esq., of Cardigan, and George A. Parker, Esq., of Georgetown. Mr. Parker was in his 85th year at the time of his decease.

A sumptuously attended entertainment took place at the residence of Capt. James Macdonald at Cardigan, on Jan. 2nd, inst. The proceedings consisted of vocal and instrumental music, dialogues, etc. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Hand-Made

Goods are the most reliable. When a man wants a new suit of clothes he does not want one that has the appearance of having been cut in a sausage machine and put together in a "sail-loft." Leave your order with us and get a stylish, well-made suit. If you order a suit elsewhere you will make a mistake, and the tailor will likely make one too. Watch the last dressed men: they are our patrons.
