

THE CITY'S CANDIDATES. HON. NEIL McLEOD -AND- PATRICK BLAKE, ESQUIRE. Local and Other Items.

HON. MR. SULLIVAN left for St. Peter's this afternoon.

HON. JOHN LEFROY and Richard Hunt, Esq., are in the city.

No encore will be permitted at the Odd-fellows entertainment this evening.

Two cases of drunkenness at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon.

ONE hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars have been voted by the Dominion Government for the erection of a grain elevator at Halifax.

THE "Northern Light" made a return trip yesterday, and the mails arrived in this City last night by special train. She will, probably, make another return trip to-day.

MAY DAY.—The Y. M. C. A. will give another of their popular musical and literary entertainments, on Monday evening next, May 1st. A choice programme, which will be published on Friday. Admission only ten cents.

THE Educational Institute will hold the closing meeting of this season on Friday evening next, the 28th inst., at 8 o'clock, in the Upper Prince Street School. The meeting will be informal and of a social character. The members and friends of the Institute are requested to attend.

To make the fact that Thomas Morris, Esq., had nothing whatever to do with purchasing Spring Park, more wide, we may state that it was bought from the Jarvis Estate, by the city, in 1867, and Mr. Morris was not elected to a seat in the City Council until the year 1874. The property was purchased by Mayor DesBrisay, for the Corporation.

The many friends of Mr. Ernest T. Dawson of the Civil Service of India, will be pleased to see by reference to the proper column that he has joined the noble army of Benedictines. Mr. Dawson is the second son of our worthy ex-Mayor. His fair partner is the granddaughter of Sir John Steel, B. S. A., of Edinburgh. We wish our young friend and bride every success in life.

"The Government organ says nothing about the falsification of the Secretary of the City School Board's report by the Government in order to make the expenses of the Prince of Wales College and Normal School appear smaller than they are—Who did it?" Patriot.

THERE is no truth whatever in the above statement.

WHAT is the reason that the Patriot suppressed Mr. Charles Hartz's speech at Market Hall? Is it because Mr. Hartz is a mechanic and does not wear fine clothes? We understand he made some good points, and that the ex-Governor thought them worthy of being alluded to in his speech. But the Patriot, for some reason, suppressed them. Will the Patriot explain.

CIRCULARS, asking depositors in the Bank of P. E. Island to endorse the proposition made at the recent meeting of Directors, were issued to-day. It is to be hoped the proposition will meet the approval of all concerned. If it does, depositors will receive seventy per cent of their money. If it does not, the result will be liquidation, which means a loss of more than fifty per cent.

MR. EDWARD PILLMAN, of French River, New London, called at our office to-day and exhibited a first-class piece of dentistry executed by Dr. Hyde of this city. Mr. Pillman is afflicted with a "hair lip," which is a great impediment to his speech. This has been remedied to a great extent by the doctor who made an artificial roof for his mouth and filled it in so as to be of great benefit to Mr. Pillman. He pronounces it a first-class job, and praises Dr. Hyde very highly for his work.

THE mechanics, at the meeting last night, gave a flat contradiction to the statement recently made by Mr. Peters, that the Lien Law was not beneficial to mechanics. One gentleman said, while Mr. Peters was making that statement, he (Mr. Peters) was, at the same time, holding orders for collections granted under the Act, and another gentleman stated that it benefited his business to the extent of $2,250. How unworkable it must be!

THE young man of "eighty-four pounds avoirdupois," who has thrown his ponderous weight in with the Grits, met with almost a serious accident a day or two ago. He was out canvassing for votes in the interest of Messrs. Morris & Peters, when one of the opposite sex, whose husband the ardent youth was endeavoring to persuade, brought a broomstick down on the cranium of the juvenile. This caused him to retreat. He was heard to mutter: "I hope my future 'cases' will end better, as this one will 'cost' me a new hat." It is hoped that the Opposition will generously indemnify him for the injuries sustained.

To DAY the Oddfellows of this city celebrated their anniversary in the usual manner. They formed in procession at their Lodge Room, Queen Street, and, headed by the band of the 52nd Battalion, marched to the Prince Street Methodist Church, where Divine Service was held, and a suitable sermon preached by Rev. J. C. Berrie, of Montague, from Peter II, 5th to 7th verser. After service the procession re-formed and marched through the principal streets to the Hall. To-night a grand literary entertainment will be held in Market Hall, under the auspices of the Society. The programme, which is a first-class one, will be found in another column.
