

England and Egypt.

A still further reduction has been ordered in the number of English troops in Egypt, and it is probable that before the end of the year not more than 3,000 or 4,000 British troops will be left in that country.

M. Loysen (better known as Pere Hyacinthe), in taking leave of his congregation in Paris, prior to his tour of six months in America, said: "In my life I have passed through many cruel trials, but I had the good fortune to be brought up by Christian relatives and masters. I believe in Christianity and in Catholicism."

The formation of a Citizen's Gas Company in Montreal has brought the old Gas Company down to reasonable rates. It is proposed for the City Council to make a new contract with the old Gas Company, which they are willing to accept, for ten years, charging $1.50 per M. cubic feet for lighting during the first five years of the contract, and $1.40 during the last five years.

A letter of Darwin has recently been published in which he said: "It seems to me absurd to doubt that a man may be an ardent theist and evolutionist. You are right about Kingsley. Asa Gray, the eminent botanist, is another case in point. In my most extreme fluctuations I have never been an atheist in the sense of denying the existence of a God."

Butler goes out, and Robinson comes in. What does the prim old State let lose or win? She swaps a man and gets a manikin and the proud right of tanning human skin.—N. Y. Sun.

MRS. SOPHIA POTTER'S Bone Rheumatic Liniment

IT is a fact worth knowing that Mrs. Sophia Potter's Bone Rheumatic Liniment cannot be excelled for removing pain and soreness. It is no worthless trash, as some may suppose, simply because they have been imposed upon by others, but is positively the "King of Pain." Sore throat cannot stand before its power.

All we ask is a trial that you may be convinced of the truth of our statement. Our experience is that one bottle tried also sells many more.

See circular for particulars and testimonials, and try a bottle—it will not fail to do all that is promised.
