Fullerton will lecture in St. James' Hall to-morrow (Tuesday) evening on "The Auld Scotch Minister." The price of admission is only 15 cents. Make a point of attending. READ IT.—We publish to-day of Y. M. C. A. proceedings. In future this will be published each week. Members thereby may readily see what is going on and govern themselves accordingly. AT THE CAFES.—The boats crossed over from Toronto yesterday afternoon, bringing Fridays mail which arrived in the city about half-past seven. To-day, Saturday's mail was brought over, arriving in town about noon. ACCEPTED.—I hereby accept Mr. W. H. Davies' challenge, as published in this morning's Guardian, and will be ready to meet him or any other aspiring amateur next Friday evening in the Hillsborough Rink.—William Earle. "LIFE."—Mr. R. R. Fitzgerald addressed an audience of about two hundred men in the Y. M. C. A. rooms yesterday afternoon. His topic was "Life," being the first of a series of four to be delivered during the Sundays of March on this subject. Mr. McDougal sang a solo, and many of those present joined in the chorus. CHURCH BUILDING AT AMHERST.—About $16,000 has already been subscribed towards the erection of a new Baptist Church at Amherst. Work will not be commenced until $30,000 is available. It has been decided to build the new church of brick, with all the modern improvements both as to finish and convenience. It is expected the building will cost between $30,000 and $40,000. THE VEST HIS DADDY WORE.—The following appears in the St. John papers; MARRIAGE. PARKS-SEELY.—On Feb. 21, at the residence of the bride's father, Richmond, Carleton Co., by the Rev. A. W. Teed, Rector, Leila May Parks, to Marcius A. Seely of Hamilton, Me. The bridegroom wore the wedding vest which was worn by his father on a similar occasion some 37 years before. BROUGHT DOWN THE HOUSE.—Chatham World says: At the temperance meeting Sunday evening, Mr. Mercereau contended those who found fault with the authorities for not having put the Conways in the lock up after the arrest. "Why," said he, "is it not for a pig to stey in." It is good enough for a rummeller," said a lady in a clear voice that reached every one in the hall, and the audience clapped hands and laughed uproariously. The speaker was knocked off his oratorical base completely. WEST OF THE CAR WINDOW.—Yesterday morning Officer Rawlings and constable MacLaren started for Dorchester with Wm. J. LeBlanc and Frank McNaughton (formerly of Charlottetown) on the road for old unpaid Sault Ste. Marie. At Paines, the officers say, McNaughton asked to go to the toilet and was followed by Mr. MacLaren, who says McNaughton entered the closet and shut the door. Mr. MacLaren tried the door and found it locked. A door examination it was found he was missing and it is supposed went out through the car window at Paines. He was not found missing until the train had got under way. McNaughton returned to Moncton, arrived here ahead of the officers who came back from Dorchester on the afternoon express.—Moncton Times. CONSIDERED IT A SIN.—A recent despatch from Montreal says:—There is a great flutter among the city church choirs over the recent performance of the "Gondoliers" by an Amateur Opera Company. Members from nearly all the choirs in the city sang in the opera, and this, coming immediately after the strong denunciation of theatres by the Protestant Ministerial Association, has caused a good deal of curiosity to know what the different churches will do. At the prayer meeting in one of the Presbyterian churches, prayers were offered up for one of the leading lady singers and her "companions in sin," as they were called, and it is stated that one of the Methodist churches has requested the resignation of one of the lady members, because she sang in the "Gondoliers." The performance itself was a great social and operatic success. ANOTHER DIVORCE CASE.—A Halifax despatch says: A divorce case, which is bound to interest many has just commenced in the divorce court. The petitioner has for some weeks resided in Halifax, and is here at present. She is Mrs. Annie Townsend, wife of William Townsend, the well known hotel keeper and livery stable owner of Windsor. The lady, who claims to have been wronged by her husband, is young and has many friends. Her maiden name was Annie Chamberlain. The marriage ceremony was performed at St. John's Church, Windsor. For some time after the marriage the couple lived in complete domestic felicity. A child was born to them, now deceased. Domestic happiness continued with Mr. and Mrs. Townsend till a short time ago, when it was disturbed by a visit to Windsor of Miss Carrie Green. Mrs. Townsend charged her husband with leading a double life. The wife, irrespective of the above charges, claims that during the month of January and February of the present year the husband misconducted himself. His case will come before Judge Graham in the divorce court at an early day.

Mr. R. Harris has been elected President of the Royal Canadian Academy, and Mr. A. C. Hutcheson, of Toronto, Vice-President. Concerning Mr. Harris' pictures now on exhibition in Montreal, the Witness says: "Mr. Harris is very much an evidence. His portraits are always charming, and he shows some of his greatest successes. The light and color in Miss Peterson's portrait are beautifully wrought out." Hon. Arthur Stanley's progress towards recovery is just perceptible. The fever, however, in a lesser degree still remains.
