DON'T MISS "The Eager Miss Beaver" in King George Hall, Kensington, Wednesday, May 21, 8:15 p.m. Sponsored by United Church Young Adult Group.

THERE'LL BE LOTS of fun at Seaside Hall to-night when Midleton and Seaside Women's Institutes present their two hilarious one-act plays, "My Dream House" and "Don't Tell a Soul," also a humorous dialogue "The Wedding at Wayback," and other specialties. Admission 40c and 25c. Sale of candy.

FIREMEN CALLED - Summerside firemen responded yesterday afternoon to an alarm sent in about 3:30 as a result of a small fire on the lot at the rear of the Clifton Hotel.

UNUSUAL EGG - When gathering eggs yesterday morning, Mr. Leigh Weeks of Alberton discovered what he believes to be an unusual hen egg having an outer white shell covering a complete inner brown shell.

BANK TRANSFERS - Mr. Walter Y. Morton, Canadian Bank of Commerce, Fredericton, N. B., has been transferred to the Alberton branch of the Bank of Commerce.

Friends are glad to see that Mrs. Nettie White, Summerside, who was confined to her home through the winter and spring because of illness, is now able to be out and around again.

Make Film At R.C.A.F. Station

Two representatives of the National Film Board from Ottawa arrived at R. C. A. F. Station, Summerside, Monday evening for the purpose of making a motion picture feature on the navigation training here.

Lobster Catches Good At Alberton

Catches of lobsters continue to be exceptionally good at Alberton South with the result that over 7,000 pounds of live lobsters had to be sold to Myrick and McIntosh at Tignish as they could not be handled at the Union factory.
