Faith.

If I could see my hand, dear Lord, in Thine,
And surely know
That I was walking in the light divine
Through weal or woe;

If I could hear Thy voice in accents sweet
But plainly say,
To guide my groping, wandering feet,
"This is the way."

I would so gladly walk therein, but now
I cannot see.
Oh, give me, Lord, the faith to humbly bow
And trust in Thee!

There is no faith in seeing. Were we led
Like children here,
And lifted over rock and river bed,
No care, no fear.

We should be useless in the busy throng.
Life's work undone;
Lord, make us brave and earnest, in faith strong,
Till Heaven is won.

—The Congregationalist.

Rhode Island is a small state of the American Union, but the honor of being Governor is considered worth $15,000—that being the sum alleged to have been paid by the present Republican candidate for the nomination. The New York World publishes a list showing the amounts paid by every Republican candidate since 1860. Of the 32 Governors elected since that year in Rhode Island, one paid $14,000, nine $10,000, the rest smaller sums. This, it must be remembered, was money actually spent to buy the nomination and not for campaign expenses, which had to come afterwards.

A SMOOTH SKIN.—Estey's Fragrant Philoderma is strongly recommended for softening, beautifying and preserving the skin, and giving it a blooming and charming appearance. GRATITUDE.

DEAR DOCTOR,—Having heard that some persons are making false and injurious reports about you, I write to say that in the treatment of my wife I am quite satisfied. Other doctors said it was cancer, and incurable; you have cured her without operation or any violent or painful means. I am also thankful to be able to acknowledge publicly that you have cured my daughter, although other doctors could do nothing for her but making her worse. I also wish to say that I write this of my own free will, and not at your request; but you can make use of it in any way you think fit.

Thanking you again for what you have done, believe me, dear Sir,

Yours, very gratefully,
DANIEL REILLY.

The Telephone Company —OF— P. E. ISLAND.

PARTIES using the Telephones would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following rules:—

1st. Speak with the mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the telephone so as to cover the ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the ear.

It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you shout loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.

SCROFULA AND SALT RHEUM.

Dear Mr. Eagar.

I have much pleasure in giving you a record of the effect produced by the use of your PHOSPHOLEINE. The following cases have come under my particular attention while visiting the sick and poor: A case of Hereditary Scrofula.—The patient had tried most of the blood purifying remedies and Sarsaparillas in use, but for the past 19 years obtained no relief. After taking three bottles of your PHOSPHOLEINE his flesh became smooth and healthy, and he is now completely cured. A case of severe cough in the last stages of Consumption: The cough was eased, and the patient regained flesh and strength. This case is past curing, and the patient was pronounced so by physicians; but had she obtained of your medicine sooner, would no doubt have been cured. A case in which patient had given up the use of alcohol: The craving was cured, and the patient was regaining health and strength. A case of loss of flesh, great weakness, and indisposition for exertion of any kind, has been restored to health and strength by using your PHOSPHOLEINE. I have also recommended it to many who have been suffering from Dyspepsia, loss of strength and flesh, and in every case it has effected a cure. I have derived much benefit from the use of it myself. I remain yours, &c.,

E. C. NEWBERY.
