MOFFAT'S

VEGETABLE LIFE PILLS AND PHOENIX BITTERS

THESE superlative Family Medicines have long since acquired an established reputation for direct and invariable efficacy in all the prevalent and ordinary diseases, as well as in many others of a peculiar and aggravated character. Their virtues are proved by the voluntary testimonials of the persons they have cured, and who accompany their certificates with their names and places of residence. These certificates now amount to thousands, being hundreds to each particular kind of disease. They embrace the most frightful and protracted cases of Scrofula, Piles, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Bilious and Liver affections, acute and chronic Rheumatism, Asthma, Bronchitis, Scrofulus as well as Mucous Consumption, habitual Costiveness, Worms, Stomach and Bowel complaints of all kinds, headache, giddiness and nervous debility, eruptive diseases, and the clouded, sallow, unhealthy appearance of the skin, arising from various causes of ill health, Fever and Ague of every variety, settled pains in the side, back, organs and limbs, humors, ulcers, foul breath and inward fever, night sweats, and general weakness and loss of appetite, the mumps, swollen face and gums, affections of the bladder, kidney, spleen and pleura, and the sickness incidental to females, together with very many other maladies which cannot be here enumerated. The certificates of cure in all these diseases are immense in number, and clear, direct and explicit in description, and immense as they do, in every case, from the persons cured, they are indisputable and conclusive in authority. These inestimable medicines should therefore be kept by every family and grown person in the Union, as they will be found to be not only the best remedies for disease, but also the most certain preventatives, and the surest renovators of sound, cheerful and elastic health. They are singularly mild and agreeable in their operation, and though perfectly effectual, never occasion even the temporary prostration and nausea which always follow the use of coarse drastic purges and the use of calomel. Prepared wholesale and retail by Dr. Wm. B. Moffat, 375 Broadway, New York. For sale also by the agents.—NEW YORK, May 30.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY

of combining every kind of Mercantile Pursuit with Fisheries and Farming.

TO BE SOLD, by private contract, WATER LOTS

23 and 24, in GEORGETOWN, comprising more than Six Town Lots, and more than one acre and a half, having three fronts—one on Victoria Street, extending more than six chains; on the Harbour, an extent of 168 feet; the same on Water Street. At the corner, formed by the intersection of the two Streets, stands a two-story House in progress, 32 feet by 29, conveniently laid out for the accommodation of a Retail Trade, and a suitable Residence for a respectable household. The land is sound, and of an excellent description. Here is sufficient room for the most extensive Warehouses for storing Grain, Fish, Transit or Commission Goods, and Cargoes of Vessels arriving late in the season and shut out from other ports by the ice, as well as a Retail Store; but the Retail business must be only a secondary consideration in the future commerce of Georgetown, as there is no great extent of back country to supply. The most frequented entrance to the Town will be by the Jail, for persons on business coming from the Northward and North East. The best holding ground, the most screened anchorage, and the holdest water for a Wharf, are off Victoria Street, and there is no locality more adapted for a Fishing Establishment, should a Company be formed—as no doubt there will be—than this property.

To prevent trouble, the price is £400. It has been the disingenuous and unmanly practice of some—who said they would get it for a song—to attempt, on all occasions, to depreciate the importance and value of this property, and deter intending purchasers. Let such, in future, examine and judge for themselves.

The Subscriber also offers for sale, Pasture Lots Nos. 2, 3, 4, 21, 22 and 23, comprising Forty-eight acres. The very best and best situated of any block of Land in the Royalty of Georgetown—most approximate to the Town—a good fertile soil—fronting 30 chains on the Common, which contains several hundred acres. There is a fine Spring on Lot 23, and on Lot 2, close by, a beautiful site, on rising ground, for a Mansion House. A great part of the land is covered with fine Hardwood. This property, in connection with the above, is well deserving the attention of capitalists who desire to invest money on very improvable land; or of any Company who might be desirous of combining curacy; or of any Company who might be desirous of combining curacy, or of £12 10s. per acre, which cannot be estimated; nor is so valuable, when its peculiar advantages are duly considered, will it be at all figurative and illusive to anticipate that its value will rise to £100 per acre; and, in the event of a Fisheries' Company being established, the time may not be remote when it will form a pleasant suburb to Georgetown. For a view of the Premises, apply to Mr. George Parker, Lot No. One; and to treat, to the Proprietor, at Woody Grave, Township Sixty-one.

J. L. LEWELLIN.

Should the above Town Property not be disposed of before the Spring, it will then be offered by Auction in Eight Building Lots; or the Advertiser may relinquish his favourite pursuit—Farming (as his continued and unwearied efforts to advance this most important avocation have met very little countenance or co-operation)—and accept the invitation of his friends, to assist in forming an Establishment such as is above alluded to.

N. B. Sometimes since a Town Lot, without any water privilege, was purchased for £100—not many years before, it sold for Four Pounds! Recently, Half a Town Lot, with a store on it, or low Building, realized at Auction, about £200. This does not look like depreciation!!! Georgetown has a free port.

Poetry.

RUTH'S CHOICE.

"Entreat me not. Let Orpah go,
If Moab still has charms for her:
No more my native land I know,
Or love the paths which cause to err;
A hand she does not—cannot see,
Still waves me on to follow thee.

"Entreat me not. Whate'er the road
Thou chooseth, there I too shall tread,
And wheresoe'er thou mak'st abode,
There also shall I rest my head.
For thee I henceforth all resign,
Thy people and thy God are mine.

"Entreat me not. When life shall fail
And thou, my mother, com'st to die,
With thee I'll face the shadow'd vale,
And, where thou'rt buried, I shall lie.
My leading-stars—thy God and thou,
Not even death shall part us now!"

Daughter of Moab, nobly done!
On, onward to the promis'd land;
There shines of righteousness the Sun,
There dwell of saints the chosen band;
On milk and honey shalt thou fare,
And Israel's God adopt thee there.

No more the widow's moan shall rend
Thy bosom, wailing for the dead;
New joys shall on thy steps attend,
New virgins deck thy bridal bed;
A num'rous offspring round thee bloom,
And monarchs issue from thy womb.

More favour'd still, the promis'd seed
Thy life-blood in his veins shall feel,
He, who for sinful man shall bleed,
And Satan crush beneath his heel.
Such honour on thy name shall rest,
And unborn millions call thee blest!

DR. HUIE.

THE WIDOW'S WOOER.

BY MRS. EMBURY.

He woos me with those honied words
That women like to hear,
Those gentle flatteries that fall
So sweet on every ear:
He tells me that my face is fair,
Too fair for grief to shade;
My cheek, he says, was never meant
In sorrow's gloom to fade.

He stands beside me when I sing
The songs of other days,
And whispers in love's thrilling tones
The words of heartfelt praise;
And often in my eyes he looks,
Some answering love to see,
In vain! he there can only read
The faith of memory.

He little knows what thoughts awake
With every gentle word;
How, by his looks and tones, the founts
Of tenderness are stirred.
The visions of my youth return,
Joys far too bright to last,
And while he speaks of future bliss,
I think but of the past.

Like lamps in eastern sepulchres,
Amid my heart's deep gloom,
Affection sheds its holiest light
Upon my husband's tomb.
And, as those lamps, if brought once more
To upper air, grow dim,
So my soul's love is cold and dead,
Unless it glow for him.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

PROVINCIAL ASSOCIATION.

(From the St. John, N. B. Courier.)

A General Meeting of this Association, and of persons friendly to Protection on Agriculture, Domestic Manufactures, &c., took place on Thursday, the 18th January, at the Hall of the Mechanics' Institute. About five hundred persons were present. The object of the meeting was to appoint Officers, and to adopt other measures for promoting the intentions of the Association. Proceedings commenced by calling JOHN OWENS, Esquire, to the Chair.

Mr. Berryman, in moving the first Resolution, alluded to the value of the Association, which they had formed on a preceding evening, as tending to change the business of the Country, which had resulted in almost a general bankruptcy, to one of healthiness, and promotive of universal prosperity. Instead of our labours in the forest going to support the mechanics and tradesmen of other countries, while our own were unemployed, he hoped to see, through the instrumentality of this Association, our own industrious classes constantly and profitably engaged. It should be our aim, in the advocacy of these interests, that nothing of a selfish nature should animate us; for his part, he, as a citizen and a tradesman, felt for other citizens and tradesmen—he could sympathize with his fellow-men throughout the country in the dreadful effects of the depression which prevails, and on that account we should associate together to petition the Legislature that we may be allowed to work for ourselves. This, said Mr. B., is a young country, with all the imperfections and disadvantages attendant upon its youth and limited population, in the matters of trade and manufactures,—and he did not wonder, nor could any reasonable man, that foreign manufactures were cheaper than those of this country. And admitting that they were so, is it conducive to the prosperity of the Province to admit them for consumption here when our mechanics and artisans are suffering for the employment by those means withheld from them. Certainly the grand object of this association is to encourage the Farmers, the Fisheries, the Manufacturers and Mechanics of New Brunswick, by using all legal means, in obtaining full employment for every department of Provincial industry. We have resources equal to those of any other spot, and yet almost our whole population are in a state of bankruptcy; our interests, we have too much reason to believe, have been neglected in the Halls of Legislation. The time, it is hoped, will come, when the industrious classes will be able to send men from among themselves, who have community of feeling with them, and identity of interests.

Thomas L. Nicholson, Esq., moved that John Owens, Esq. be chosen President, which was carried by acclamation. Mr. Owens returned thanks, and proceeded to give his views on the matter before the meeting. This was the first meeting of the Association he had attended. His first enquiry, within his own mind, upon the matter being broached to him, was—"Is the cause a good one or a bad one?" He had given the subject a fair consideration, and had come to the conclusion that the cause was a good one, and therefore he had determined to support it. It was built, he thought, on a good foundation. The time, said he, has not come when we can carry on Free Trade in this country. When the great manufacturing countries of the world adopt the principles of
