HAD IT ALL PLANNED

SHE KNEW WHAT TO DO IN CASE OF FIRE.

When the Chance Came, She Kept Cool and Proceeded to Carry Out Her Intentions, With Somewhat Unexpected Results, However.

"So you had a fire at your house last week?" said the girl with the Madonna brow. "Did you lose much?"

"I did," sighed the young woman with the firm chin. "I lost my self respect, my peace of mind and a grand chance to get even with my husband. There was no insurance."

"Too bad," said the girl with the Madonna brow sympathetically. "I understand that your husband was as cool as a debutante at a tea, and—"

"Don't talk to me about my husband. I have sent for mamma and his step-mother to pay us a nice long visit. It will require at least three women to restore him to his normal condition after this, and all because— Look here, Adele, you have often heard me say what I meant to do in case of fire, have you not?"

"I have," replied the girl with the Madonna brow wearily. "You said that you would make an elaborate toilet; then, after waking every one in the building, collect all your valuables and walk calmly down stairs and out of the house. Did you?"

"Don't ask me so many questions if you expect me to be able to answer them," snapped the young woman with the firm chin. "I suppose any one may change her mind occasionally, may she not?"

"Why, yes, of course. For instance, Mae has decided that after all she will not marry that rich old widower.

ITCHING PILES...

Positively and permanently cured by Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is an absolute cure for piles, and has never been known to fail to cure the worst forms of this disease which has baffled medical skill for ages.

This statement may sound rather strong to persons who do not know the superior merits of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment, but it is perfectly true, and has been endorsed by the grateful testimony of thousands of men and women who have been cured by its use after years of suffering, and after trying many preparations and consulting the best doctors.

Mr. H. Bull, Belleville, Ont., says: "I take pleasure in stating that after thirty years of suffering with Itching Piles, Dr. Chase's Ointment has completely cured me. I tried every remedy that was advertised, with little or no benefit, but as I have told different persons affected as I was, Dr. Chase's Ointment made a perfect cure."

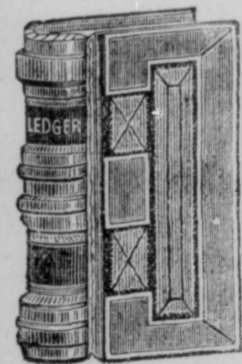

Dr. Chase's Ointment has a record of cures unparalleled in the history of medicine. It is guaranteed to cure any case of piles. For sale by all Dealers, or Edmondson, Lates & Co. Toronto.

CARVE LLBROS

Wasn't it lucky that she should change her mind about it just as his engagement to Miss Budd was announced?"

"Very. But just think! I was not even the one to discover the fire! You see, Jack was out, and I had hoped he had forgotten his latchkey, so I went to sleep early and slept the sleep of the innocent. Now Jack is telling people that if he had not remained at the club until 2 a. m. we would both have perished, sleeping, in the flames. How do you suppose I am ever to manage him after this?"

"I am sure I do not know, dear. It seems to me this world grows harder for poor women every day."

"It does; it does," sighed the young woman with the firm chin. "Well, I didn't hear Jack come in. He was hardly in bed before he smelled smoke. After all, it was lucky that he was the one to smell it. I might smell smoke all night before he would get up and investigate. Men are so selfish!"

"I know it, dear. Kathleen's husband tells her that she had her own way in regard to marrying him, and now he means to have his turn. When she complains to his mother, the old lady rather more than hints that dyspepsia, induced by Kathleen's house-keeping, is the cause of his ill temper."

"Mercy on us! And Kathleen?"

"Oh, she partially repays her husband by making him live on invalid's food, but her mother-in-law is still ahead."

"Of course. Well, as I was saying, Jack investigated and found dense smoke coming from the back of the house. He called up to me, and under the impression that he was calling me to come down and let him in, I very nearly went to sleep again."

"But you got up?"

"Oh, yes; when he rushed into my room shouting 'Fire!' I was as cool as I could be. I dressed carefully, opened my desk and got out my—"

"Jewel box? Oh, how calm you!"

"N-no. I found out afterward that it was my visiting list. How could I have performed my social duties without that?"

"Why, of course. I never thought." "Nobody thinks but me, it appears. Next I got out my best hatbox and—"

"Saved that lovely new hat! Oh, how nice!"

"Well, no; I didn't. The box turned out to be empty. I had left that hat on the back hall table, and the firemen apparently made a target of it. Jack is so heartless. He had always insisted that the bird on it was a duck, and now he declares that it sought its native element voluntarily."

"Pshaw! Just laugh at his joke and buy a more expensive hat."

"Humph! You don't know Jack. That joke will outwear a dozen hats. Where was I? Oh! Then, to show how cool I was, I actually went to the cedar chest for my sealskin."

"Humph! You must have been cool to want a sealskin in June."

"I was not thinking merely of the present. I—er—knew I should need it next December."

"Oh! And what else did you rescue?"

"Nothing. A horrid, interfering man rushed in, gathered up me and my burden and carried me, protesting, down stairs. While people were calling him a hero I discovered something queer about my dress."

"What was the matter? A scarcity?"

"No; a superfluity. In my anxiety to make a full toilet I had put on my yellow evening gown and over it my bicycle skirt, a chiffon wrap and an apron I had bought for the cook the day before."

"Humph! That was elaborate! Did Jack?"

"When my eye lit on him, I felt better, for I saw that he was not in a position to criticise my toilet."

"Didn't he think it wonderful that you thought of your sealskin at?"

"It wasn't my sealskin. I must have been somewhat excited, for I had mistaken a suit of his for it. By the time people were cool enough to notice he was dressed as if for the office, and now he is telling everybody how I had to sneak back to the house when the fire was out wrapped in a tarpaulin."

A Frenchman Finds Canadian Weather Had a Bad Effect on His Health

St. ESTACHE Que. Feb. 12.—Auguste Dubois landed here from France, a perfect stranger to the weather conditions prevailing in this country. The food also differed from that to which he had been accustomed, and his heart being weak, the change had a serious effect upon it. He went to a medical man who did him no good. He went to others with a similar result in each case.

"I had to go to Montreal," he says, "to work for the Grand Trunk in that city and met a man who was suffering the same as myself, but had started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. He told me they were doing him good. He was kind enough to give me a few of them. I took them. I feel much better. I procured a box, and fifteen days felt like a different man."

Are You Bilious?

A sluggish liver fails to filter the bile from the blood, and when the poisonous matter goes through the bowels in the circulation, the whole system is tainted and deranged. This is called biliousness and can be completely cured by Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which act directly on the liver, making it healthy and active. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box. The cheapest medicine in the world.

If people would surprise themselves let them apply themselves intently to some particular object.

Don't Tear Down—Build Up.

The old-fashioned theory of tearing down disease was entirely changed by the advent of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, which cures by creating new rich blood and nerve tissue. Through the medium of the circulation and the nervous system they strengthen and invigorate every organ in the human body.

Mr. W. G. Since coming to Toronto I learned of Dr. Chase's Ointment, I used but one box and have not been troubled with piles in any shape or form since."
