defensive conditions of the Baghdad Pact.

ECONOMIC REPORT

The Economic Committee through co-operation hope to bring about a more even distribution of wealth and eliminate poverty. The Baghdad Defence Pact countries are endeavoring through social and economic progress to avert dangers within, as well as co-operate in military matters against foes without.

The meetings reaffirmed the defensive nature of the organization The report of the Economic Committee which provided for regional co-operation and joint projects was adopted. They agreed to the promotion of trade within the area and to the establishment of a permanent counter-subversion organization.

OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS

The Prime Minister of Pakistan, Mohammed Ali, has announced a five-year plan designed to eliminate big land holdings, create 2,000,000 new jobs, boost production and increase earnings 10 percent. It will cost about $2,500,000,000.

The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations under their Technical Assistance Plan, sent out among others, Mr. J.P. Pelletier, M.A., Superintendant of the Experimental Station, St. Anne de la Pocatiere, Quebec, to Aran for two years. He was impressed with the great possibilities for improvement in agricultural work in that country.

The Baghdad Pact's Ministerial Council will hold their next meeting at Karachi, Pakistan in Jan. 1957.

Contract Let For Huge Planes

MONTREAL (CP) — A new multi-million dollar contract for giant CL-28 submarine - hunting planes being built by Canadair Limited for the RCAF has been placed with the company, it was announced Thursday.

The company had previously received a contract for some of the aircraft for the RCAF but the number of planes involved in either the previous order or the new one was not disclosed.

J. Geoffrey Notman, Canadair President, said the new order will extend the duration of work on production lines without increasing the rate of completion of the far-ranging land - based Maritime reconnaissance planes.

The CL -28 is patterned on the Bristol Brittania, which can carry 100 passengers.

Teachers Study Group Meeting

On Friday, May 25th, the teachers of Eastern Kings held a study group meeting in Souris High School with an enrollment of forty-two teachers. Mr. Francis White acted as chairman while Miss Kay Mooney fulfilled the duties of secretary.

Mr. Harold J. Hynes, who was heartily welcomed by the teachers, opened the meeting by introducing a study of the Grade VIII Metropolitan Achievement Tests. After pointing out the importance of following the regulations set down for the administration of these tests, Mr. Hynes assigned each teacher their required number. These tests are to be used as a guide for the teacher and not as a sole basis for grading.

An interesting talk and demonstration on the use of films in the classroom were given by Mr. Stanley MacInnis from the Film Library. Mr. MacInnis stressed the fact that the use of film strips in the classroom is of greater value as a teaching aid than the use of movies. He also stated that more than a thousand film strips will be available to all schools in the province at the beginning of the next scholastic year. Teachers were urged to interest their districts in the purchase of a film projector.

A lively discussion concerning the grading of pupils than took place. Another topic of vital interest proposed to the meeting by the local president, Mr. Jeremias Pineau, was the centralization of High School students and the problems arising as to the transportation of these students during the winter months.

It was decided that another meeting of the local would be held in Souris High School on Friday, June 1st to discuss Federation matters. The meeting closed with the Queen. BE

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Alyward, have moved out from the city to their residence in the village after residing in the city for quite some time where they keep an apartment.

Mrs. Peter Phalen, has returned home from the Charlottetown Hospital after undergoing a serious operation.

Princess Goes To Bat For Children

LONDON (Reuters) — Princess Margaret Thursday appealed to Britons to report "as quickly as possible" to the authorities any child whom they know is being ill-treated.

She spoke at the annual meeting of the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, of which she is president.

"It is terrible to think of a child's suffering being unnecessarily prolonged," Princess Margaret said "and any delay will mean that irreparable damage is done to the young, developing personality."

Brillant Career Of Island Doctor In U.S.

Once again, a famous son, in the preson of Dr. M.B. Docherty, returns to his beloved Island Province, and is vistiing his mother, Mrs. John Docherty, and his brother Cyrus, both of Cardigan.

Dr. Docherty has had a very interesting career. He is chief of The Dept. of Surgical Pathology at St. Mary's Hospital which along with the Mayo Clinic is part of the graduate school of the university of Minnesota.

He was born at St. Peters Road in 1909 and attended Iona (now Cardross) School for ten years. Except for three months when he walked three miles to school at Cardigan. In 1925 he received a scholarship and entered P.W.C., Which he attended for three years, receiving scholarships for each years work. Dr. Docherty recalled that while he attended P.W.C. he paid $2.50 a week for board and his landlady complained that she couldn't make money "Even at that."

At the end of his third year, by taking extra courses in physics and chemistry, and attending summer school, he was able to enter Dalhousie University and complete two years in one. He was graduated from Dalhousie in 1934 as a gold medalist.

TOOK MANY JOBS

To further his education, the Doctor held a very colorful variety of jobs. He taught school at Eldon for the summer months and for five years had a daily fish route, going from door to door selling codfish and lobsters. On Saturdays, he would go out with the cod fishermen who would allow him to keep and sell all the fish that he caught. These were depression years, and the young mans thirst for knowledge could not be quenched by the lack of financial assistance. Consequently, no job was beneath his dignity. In this he was helped by his late father, who instilled in him the need of persistence, and a job well done.

Dr. Docherty then went to Rochester, where he attended the University of Minnesota, as a fellow in surgery. During his post-graduate studies, Dr. McCarty, Chief of the Department of Pathology, persuaded him to change his major field to pathology, which he did, and in 1937 he received his master's degree in surgical pathology from the University.

Upon Dr. McCarthy's retirement in 1948, Dr. Docherty was recommended as the new chief of the Pathological Department and received the appointment.

Dr. M. B. Docherty

In 1952 Dr. Docherty attained full professorship. He states that there are 600 fellows in training at the Mayo Clinic, of which 300 remain on the staff. Of these, there are at least 6 maritimers at all times.

WRITTEN MANY ARTICLES

He has written over 200 articles for Surgical Magazines, mostly concerning cancer and allied diseases.

The Doctor is an Isand fan, and returns almost yearly to visit his old home. Upon being asked if he enjoyed living in Western U.S.A., he replied: "As soon as I crossed the Mississippi River, I found the pioneer spirit I left behind in P.E.I."

He is a man proud of his background and most humble about his great achievements, and Islanders are proud to claim him as a native son.

Dr. Dochertys hobbies include, Photography, sail and water conservation, ornithology, and he is a member of the Isaac Walton League of America. He is married, and has one adopted son. Besides his mother and brother at home, he has one brother Stewart, a doctor who is a research physicist with Corning Glass, Corning, New York. His father predeceased him several years ago.

Montague Town Council Meeting Last Night

At a special council meeting called last night, Mayor Bruce Yeo presided with Councillors, Clements, Green, Reynolds, MacGowan, Nicholson, and VanIder stine in attendance.

The Major discussion at this meeting concerned the town dump The dump is situated on the property of Mr. Joseph Vuozzo who was present at the meeting. Mr. Vuozzo and the Councillors came to an agreement whereby fences will be erected to allow dumping in certain areas only, and the dump to be reopened immediately.

It was moved by councelor Reynolds, and seconded by councillor MacGowan that Mr. Cyrus Shaw and Mr. Harold Landry be reappointed assessors for the year 1956.

A discussion followed concerning the breakage of store windows by gravel, being kicked up by moving vehicles. This is a quite frequent occurence and the council is seeking a remedy. The matter of street repairs was brought up and discussed and it was decided that action should be taken immediately. It was also decided to place additional fill at the new dam erected at the Burnt Bridge. This dam adds to the appearance of the western approach to the town, and the council and citizens concerned are to be commended for this improvement.

COOKING SCHOOL NEXT WEEK

MISS LAURA KENNEDY

For many years the cook book has been second on the non-fiction best seller lists. That's how important cookery is to our people and that's how important Dominion Stores believe it is to bring a series of free cooking schools to the homemakers of Charlottetown.

Starting next Monday and continuing through Friday, Dominion Stores will hold cooking schools sessions at Community Centre, June 4-5-7-8 from 1.30 to 3.30 P.M. and June 6, Wednesday evening from 7.30 to 9.30 P.M. Miss Laura Kennedy internationally known foods and cooking expert, will conduct the free sessions. Every session will be different, but the entire week will be given to new uses of the well known foods, quick and easy tips resulting in saving of time, energy, and money. Housewives may feel free to discuss food problems with this highly informed home economist.

There will be fun too, because Laura Kennedy has a guiding phrase "Fun with Food", and you will find her entertaining you as she goes along, telling you about economical dishes and full course meals at low cost. There will be prizes—15 bags of groceries every day, plus the foods cooked on the platform. On Friday there will be a grand prize, a special grand prize of a Frigidaire Electric Range given through the courtesy of R.T. Holman, Ltd.

There is no admission charge to any of the sessions, and nothing to buy. Dominion Stores presents these free cooking school sessions as a public service in the interests of local homemakers, and judging by the tremendous reception accorded Miss Kennedy in other cities throughout Canada and the United States, it is expected that the Community Centre will be crowded to a capacity for each cooking school session. So, plan to come early, bring a friend, and have "Fun with Food."
