Minor Hockey Banquet

The Summerside minor hockey program ended with a banquet at the Legion Home Saturday evening. Listening to comment from different quarters, we get the impression that the minor program last winter was a particularly successful one from the standpoint of good conduct, and there is no phase of minor instruction more important — they won the Island Bantam and Paperweight championships and missed out in the pee-wee and midget divisions, which is batting .500 and that's not bad, but though we don't endorse fully the old saw — it isn't whether you win or lose, but how you play the game; There is a lot of truth in it, and we've been hearing that Summerside small fry have played the game with credit to themselves last winter.

Learning to keep a cool head in explosive situations is probably more important than scoring "hat tricks." Learning to "pass the puck" and learning not to "pass the buck" are both valuable lessons in hockey and in life. Yon can really lay the foundations of good citizenship teaching kids hockey, as (we've heard) Forbes Kennedy told the youngsters while giving his address at the banquet. Hockey has other good points. Recently we were going over a list of IQ's and noticed one or our best minor hockey players had one of the lowest IQ's we've ever seen recorded. You can imagine this boy's frustration grappling hopelessly with his school problems. Is it not wonderful that there is something he can do which brings him the acclaim of the crowd.

Softball Meeting

Thursday evening we were at the local softball meeting, which was well attended. There was a great deal of discussion on widely ranging subjects and very little concrete action, but you couldn't help feeling that there was a good deal of enthusiasm for softball in Summerside, and that we would have another successful season. Eric Johnson, prominent sports personality, around whom interest and controversy generally flourishes, was considering throwing his hat in the ring, and Jim Jenkins, one of MacKenzies' brightest stars, might head a team hailing from St. Eleanor. Last year's champion R.C.A.F. team would be in, and Gumps Gay, Ulric Gallant and their Enman Drug aggregation would probably make it a foursome.

Indoor sports note — Johnnie Gallant, Roger Ahearn, Robert Keizer, and John Hopkirk are expected to play for Monarcs this season. No bangs — except on that big bass drum.

Yankees Coming Fast

We gave the New York Yankees till "Mother's Day" to reach the top of the American League, but they didn't quite make it. They came close, however, and if those brittle boys, Mantle and Maris, don't break anything else soon, the younger circuit will be all over except the batting and fielding averages. Skowron's still doing his best to halt the juggernaut. He hit another home run aginst the Yankees but this time the New Yorkers won the game. Poor Yogi, a guy most everyone likes, has everything to lose and nothing to win. If he brings the Yanks home in front, he's only doing what comes naturally; if he doesn't, there will be a new word in the dictionaries — Razzberra.

Hockey Banquet Held In S'side

SUMMERSIDE — "I am glad to be here tonight I would like to express my appreciation for the work being done in minor hockey," said Councellor Mollison, the first of several guest speakers at the minor hockey banquet at the Royal Canadian Legion Home Saturday night. Mr. Mollison represented the mayor of Summerside, (W. E. Jenkins who was unable to attend.)

Howard Waite, who headed minor hockey this year expressed thanks to all those who made the 1963-64 hockey season a success and went on to say "this free hockey isn't given for nothing, we expect something from it. We expect you boys to be loyal, honest, and clean living. "Mr Waite then proceeded to present trophies and awards to various players and teams.

Director for physical fitness for P.E.I., David Boswell, said "I want to offer a very sincere congratulations for a splendid season in minor hockey."

Mr. Boswell went on to say how physical fitness played an important part in minor hockey.

The biggest cheer was reserved for Boston Bruins star Forbes Kennedy. Forbes, who was besieged for autographs from a few hundred wildly cheering youngsters at the end of the program stated that he "was proud of the fact that I am from P.E.I." and passed along credit to Grant Grady, coach of this year's Summerside Junior Legionnaires hockey team for the splendid work he and the team did over the past year.

Kennedy advised the youngsters to "get your schooling first and then go into hockey" and reminded them to "learn to skate and shoot" if they want to succeed.

In closing out the program Gordon Kelly, who was largely responsible for minor hockey in Summerside this past year remarked: "It has been a pleasure this year to work with the boys. The big thing this year was co-operation from the boys."

BOWLING WINNER

Shown above is Charlottetown resident, Louis Smith, as he displays the trophies which he won in the Maritime men's five pin bowling championship tourney held at the Charlottetown Rollaway last week. The trophy on the left is for the most three hundred games and was handmade by Ron Summerville of Halifax and donated to the league. The tray is emblamatic of the high single score which Louis captured with a 257.7 count. Mr. Smith was a member of the Cornwallis team in the recent tournament.

Marlies Win Memorial Cup In Four Straight Games

By JERRY GLADMAN

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto Marlboros Saturday night trounced Edmonton Oil Kings 7-2 to win the Memorial Cup without really getting a chance to show just how good a hockey club they are.

The triumph gave the Marlboros the best-of-seven series in four straight games and their first Memorial Cup since 1956. For the Oil Kings, the loss ended their one-year reign as junior hockey champs.

The final game was similar to the second encounter of the series in which the Kings made a fight of it for two periods, only to fall down in the final session.

Seven players shared in the scoring for the victors with honors going to Peter Stemkowski, Grant Moore, Rod Seiling, Nick Harbaruk, Mike Walton, Gary Dineen and Champagne.

Max Mestinsek, a winger on Edmonton's number one trio with Butch Paul and Glen Sather, fired both goals for the losers.

NOT PRESSED

At no time during this game, as in the others, did the Kings press the Marlboros sufficiently to force them to extend themselves. The Toronto club played only as well as they had to for the win.

However, the Kings failed to live up to their advance press releases, tabbing them as the best club to come out of the West and the one to give Marlboros a barrel of trouble.

When the visitors began to press a little too much, Marlboro coach Jim Gregory looked to his bumping crew who, in turn, took the starch out of the westerners with a few well-timed body checks.

The first period saw the teams duel to a 2-2 tie and much better hockey than was displayed in the first three games. The home club scored the lone goal in the middle period but the visitors were still fighting hard.

In the final period the Marlboros decided it was time to pull away and did so by pumping home four goals without a reply. The Kings were still skating hard at the bell but there was no zip in their play and it was a thoroughly beaten club that retired to the dressing room while the Marlboros accepted the cup—emblematic of junior hockey supremacy in Canada.

SHOOTING WAS OFF

In the first two periods Edmonton had as many scoring opportunities as the host club but failed to find the mark through too much passing and erratic shooting.

Goaltending on both clubs was of the highest order in spite of the high score against the Kings. Raps against Edmonton netminder Russ Kirk were uncalled for in the light of the shots on goal. Marlboros had the edge in each period—14-10, 19-7, 16-11—for a total of 49-28.

Referee Frank Daigneault was called on to assess 18 penalties—nine to each side. Players on both clubs were on the chippy side and on more than one occasion threatened to break out in stickswinging duels.

Dineen, a former Olympic star, opened scoring for the Marlboros midway through the opening period. He picked off Seiling's rebound and fired the puck into the open side of the net.

SUMMARY

First period: 1. Toronto, Dineen (Seiling, Walton) 10:17; 2. Edmonton, Mestinsek (Sather, Paul) 13:29; 3. Toronto, Champagne (Watson, Dineen) 14:02, 4. Edmonton, Mestinsek (Sather) 18:58. Penalties—McKenny 2:04, Dupont 7:25, Fox 8:08, Chipchase 12:55, Seiling 16:05, Huck 17:44.

Second period: 5. Toronto, Walton (Moore, Selby) 15:46. Penalty—Marshall 18:02.

Third period: 6. Toronto, Stemkowski (Ellis, McKenny) 6:30; 7. Toronto, Moore (Walton, Selby) 8:14; 8. Toronto, Seiling (Champagne, Walton) 12:39; 9. Toronto, Harbaruk (Seiling, Walton) 17:59. Penalties—Seiling and Jones, 9:50; McKenny and Taschuk 10:12; Paul, 10:30; Marshall 17:10, Huck, Harbaruk 18:42, Champagne 19:35.

Fight Results From N. Glasgow

NEW GLASGOW, N.S. (CP)—Les Sprague of Amherst, Canadian junior welterweight champion scored a unanimous 10-round decision over Bobby Barrett of Boston here Saturday night.

Sprague, making his first start of the year, carried the fight to Barrett most of the way and scored heavily with a good left hand which kept the hard-hitting Bostonian off balance. Barrett had won his previous seven fights by knockouts.

Barrett out-weighed Sprague 150 to 145 pounds.

MAYS BELTS DOUBLE

Giants Nip Dodgers 3-2 To Maintain First Place

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

San Francisco Giants, with Willie Mays doubling home the winning run, beat the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers and star southpaw Sandy Koufax Saturday 3-2 and held first place in the National League.

New York Yankees, American League champions, again put on a home run display and whipped Cleveland 6-2 tying the Indians for second place, just one game behind the leading Chicago White Sox.

Koufax, making his second start since his recent forearm injury, pitched four hitless innings before the Giants scored all three of their runs in the fifth on three singles, a sacrifice fly and Mays' decisive two-bagger.

HIT HOMERS

Koufax went out for a pinch-hitter after six innings, but left-hander Bob Hendley kept the Dodgers from tying the score although he yielded homers to Tommy Davis and Frank Howard.

Just as he did Friday night, Mickey Mantle socked a first inning homer and the Yankees went on from there against Cleveland. Tony Kubek, Joe Pepitone and Hector Lopez of the Yankees also hit homers.

Philadelphia came up with three runs after two were out in the seventh inning to defeat Cincinnati 5-4 and stay on the heels of the Giants, one game back.

Tony Gonzalez singled home the tying and winning runs for the Phils after a walk, a single and Johnny Callison's double accounted for one run.

SCORES SHUTOUT

Vernon Law, on the comeback trail, pitched a five-hitter for Pittsburgh as the Pirates shut out Milwaukee 10-0.

Ken Boyer and Dick Groat each drove in two runs for St. Louis and the Cardinals defeated the New York Mets 5-1. The Chicago Cubs crushed Houston 9-1 with a seven-run uprising in the first inning.

Bowling Banquet Is Big Success

By JIM CULLEN

A banquet in honor of the closing of the 11th annual Maritime men's five pin bowling championship tourney was staged at Charlottetown's Queen Hotel on Saturday night.

Head table guests included: Walter Cox, deputy mayor, John Butler, city comptroller, Coun. William McNeill, Coun. Frank Zakem, Rundall Seaman, honorary president of the Maritime Bowling Association. Dave Boswell, provincial physical education director; Vic Williams, league president; George Kays, vice-president and Bill Doiron who acted as official scorer for the three-day tournament.

Mr. Cox, speaking on behalf of Mayor A. W. Gaudet, who was unavoidedly absent, extended congratulations to the winning team, Greenwood Bombers. On behalf of the Charlottetown City Council, which were the sponsors of the banquet, he said that "I feel this is the least our city can do for such a fine group of sportsmen and I hope that you will return to the Island during the near future to participate in some of the many festivities scheduled in honor of centennial year.

Mr. Seaman, who donated the trophy for the league championship and sponsored the Charlottetown Seaman's All-Stars in the recent tourney made the presentation of the championship trophy to the Greenwood Bombers team captain, Jim Bays.

Vic Williams, who was acting as MC for the occasion continued with the announcement of the various winners and Mr. Cox and Mr. Seaman alternated in the presentation of the awards.

LOCAL BOWLER STARS

A Charlottetown resident, Louis Smith, who was forwarded to the Cornwallis team by the Charlottetown Seaman's squad stole the show in the presentations. He captured the trophies for the most three hundred games and the high single award. This caused numerous sighs from the Charlottetown team when they realized what they had allowed to escape them. Louis could only shrug his shoulders and say "I still can't believe it" when questioned about his success.

The banquet was concluded with a speech from Dave Boswell on the part that bowling plays in the physical education of its participants.

Vic Williams, the captain of the Seaman's squad, president of the league and well known local sports figure indicated that this would be his last year in the tournament as a participant. If this is followed through the Maritime bowling circuit will be minus one of its best bowlers and a great competitor. Vic captured the high triple award in the recent tournament as he captained the Seaman's entry to the runner-up position.
