CITY COUNCIL will meet this evening at 7 o'clock.

LARCENY.—Two sailors, named Kelly and McIsaac, were arrested on Saturday evening, for stealing a coat from the North American Hotel.

RUN OVER.—A young woman named Carter was run over by a horse and carriage at the Athenæum Corner, on Saturday evening, and very seriously injured.

THERE are thirteen cases for trial before the Stipendiary Magistrate this morning, the greatest number of which are for drunkenness.

REPORTED DISASTER.—It is reported that on Friday last, during a heavy gale, three boats with their crews were carried off from Rustico beach, and that nothing has since been heard of them.

WE can plainly see the necessity of an additional police force after witnesing a crowd of "hoodlims" holding, undisturbed, a first-class "free and easy" at Mr. P. G. Frazer's corner yesterday evening.

A MAN named Edward Ryan was yesterday evening arrested for wandering about the streets in a state of lunacy. He occupies cell No. 2, and takes fits of singing, laughing, whistling, and dancing in a violent manner.

STONE crossings have been placed on Queen street, in front of the Market House, and on Grafton street, in front of the Apothecaries' Hall. We would suggest that one be placed on Richmond street, in front of Dorsey & Jost's store, connecting with the plankway leading to the Post Office.

"FOURTEEN KNOTS AN HOUR."—Captain Smith reports schr. "Margie Smith," Gloucester, Mass., left Kildare, North Cape, P. E. I., on Wednesday, 27th Sept., at 1.30 p.m., and arrived at East Point at 8.30 p.m., same day, making the distance in 7 hours—a distance of 95 miles. If there is any thing in the North Bay can overtake this, please publish.

SHOOTING MATCH.

As previously announced, the rifle competition of No. 6 Company of Volunteers took place on Saturday last. The weather was very unfavorable, a steady fresh wind blowing across the range all day. Besides, the day was cold; but, notwithstanding these difficulties, some high scores were made, and the match was a decided success. Below are the scores, with prizes and names of successful competitors:—

A WORD TO THE WISE.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner:

MR. EDITOR,—I wrote you some time ago—I trust to some purpose—about the tincture of filth which in Charlottetown passes muster for water. Now, if you please, about other matters, pro bono publico.

First, as to the crowding of wooden erections in your city. This must soon be stopped, else—peace to her ashes. Of two evils choose the least. Better a brick district than a burnt district. Consequent upon the prohibition, the city area would rapidly extend, affording to many more commodious quarters, more health and more comfort in compensation for present inconvenience. Next, as to the "laying off" of the suburbs. Old Charlottetown was planned before it was built. Is new Charlottetown to be buided before it is planned? Has not the systemless system been already inaugurated. Let not confusion be worse confounded. Then about the new streets. Are they to be wide enough for present needs, or for future requirements? If twenty feet or more can for a time be spared for front gardens, all the better. A peppercorn rental would secure to the public retention of title. A word about your front gardens. I speak of them as they were in August. They are pretty, very pretty, but they are not handsome. They are flat, prim, old-maidish. Viewed from every side they look the same. You see all at a glance, and a dead monotony is the distinguishing feature. The flower beds look like boxes of "artificials" at the milliners'. There are notable exceptions. Again, your front gardens lack summer houses. What more beautiful than a "scarlet runner," one combining utility and beauty. The taste that employs the teeth should not be ignored, even in ornamental gardening. A hungry man at a flower show would groan out, "Miserable comforters are ye all!" A garden without fruit and without shade may be pretty, may even be handsome, but it cannot be a paradise. Another noticeable need in Charlottetown is that of whitewash. Combine with salt, tallow and borax in due proportion, a lime-and-water wash is well-nigh lasting as paint, and even then cheaper than dirt. By the application to fences and outbuildings Charlottetown might be made "fair as the moon." England once gloried in her wooden walls, so may Charlottetown. Then how invaluable the protection afforded to property and to health. Speaking of health, let me suggest a cheap and ready way of ventilating your boarded up backyards in summer, a very important matter: Have the bottom of the fence a few inches from the ground, that heavy, typhus-laden vapors may not, for lack of a readier way of exit, enter the house through the back porch. This should be seen to before "Good Lord deliver us" is uttered.

A word to the wise is sufficient.

Yours truly,

A STRANGER.
