

Buck Whitlock Bats And Pitches Falcons To 6-5 Victory Over Stars

Roy "Buck" Whitlock's triple into centre field in the top of the seventh was the winning stroke that gave the Northwest Falcons a close 6-5 verdict over the East End Stars at Memorial Field last night and broke up a three-way tie for second place in the City Baseball League race to put Falcons in sole possession of second and game down on the league leading Northeast Rovers.

Whitlock's hitting power not only brought in the tying run but was the cause of him crossing the plate himself with the winning counter to turn his own six-hit performance on the mound from a losing one into victory. Trailing Stars 4-5 going into the seventh, Buck lined a sizzler over the heads of the infield between second and short that went into centre for three sacks and brought in Joey LeClair who got to base on an error by third baseman Maurice Williams, and came home himself on an error by second baseman McKenzie.

The game was called after seven innings of play.

A winning hurler himself up until the fateful seventh, Lefty McAleer came through with a five-hitter but ended up the loser. Both pitchers struck-out five batters but McAleer showed less control than his adversary, giving up six walks, some proving costly, against two for Whitlock.

Young Cliff Ready of Falcons and Charlie Ready of Stars swung the heavy bats of the game, both collecting a triple and a single on three trips to the plate, while two of the fielding gems of the game were pulled by Joey LeClair, Falcon's third baseman.

Both teams played loose ball at times, Falcons chalking up seven errors and Stars five.

Officials for the game were as follows: — Umpires — Ev Toombs (plate), Jack Kane and Leo Doyle (bases).

One often hears the expression "This is a man's world", which of course is always a standing joke with any member of the fairer sex whether they are in position to disprove the point or not. But there are two young at present proving their point that women can be a real contender to such claims made by the male species.

The young ladies in question are Miss Mary McLennan of Alexandria, and Miss Evelyn Henry of Southport, who have recently been outstanding in their chosen fields of sport to bring much credit to the citizens of this Island. Competing in the Dominion Rifle Association championships last summer at Ottawa, Miss McLennan headed the Provincial representative team to be the first woman to ever qualify for the Canadian Bisley team, and at present is making an outstanding showing as a member of that team at Bisley, England, where the annual marksmanship classic is being held.

Placing 10th in the Daily Telegraph competition with a 49 out of a possible 50 score she was one of two Canadians to win prizes in that event, while two other accomplishments by the school teacher marksmen at Bisley so far, was her score of 88 as a winning member of the Canadian team in a friendly match at the 500 and 100 yard ranges, and her high score of 95 in the King's Prize, most prized event of the British National Rifle Association meet, which she barely eliminated her in the event. She was one of the top two Canadian shots to be eliminated. Another Island marksmen represented on the Canadian team, Sergeant G. A. Coles of Summerside, was eliminated in a score of 92.

Miss Henry, a graduate nurse this year from the Prince Edward Island Hospital School of Nursing, made history here last Sunday when she became the first to attempt and swim Northumberland Strait between Cape Tormentine, N. B., and Borden, P. E. I. A lover of many sports, including basketball and horsemanship, she is particularly known for her aquatic skill.

Just about one year ago, Miss Henry was the cause of a great deal of interest when she swam Charlottetown Harbor from Kepchoke to Rocky Point and return, negotiating the heavy running three-tide currents with powerful strokes, to start her mounting list of firsts for Island swimmers. There was much rumor at that time that she planned to attempt the Strait swim, but most felt it was too tough a project for any swimmer, a nine-mile distance against strong changing currents.

But the Island nurse had other ideas. Remaining quiet and unassuming over her swimming ability, which she put to good use here during Festive Week by winning her share of the honors at the special swimming meet held at Victoria Park, Evelyn made up her mind to try the Strait swim. Accompanied by her father, Stewart Henry and her brother Edwin, she travelled to Borden by car on Sunday where she was transported to Cape Tormentine in a motor launch by George Cereiti of Borden.

Without fanfare or publicity, she slipped into the water at Tormentine at 8:25 a. m. and after nearly nine hours in the water, she touched the wharf at Borden at 5:15 p. m. hale and hearty and completely untroubled. Her father and brother accompanied her in a punt and fed her fruit juices and one or two small sandwiches at intervals, without her once touching the boat. Carried off course during the gruelling swim by strong tidal currents, it was estimated that Miss Henry covered a distance of close to 15 miles, a feat that is not much short of the much publicized English Channel swims. Maybe that will be the next item on her list, who knows. But whether she does or doesn't Miss Henry is deserving of much praise and congratulations for her courage and swimming ability.

Jersey Joe Ready To Take On All Fighters

PITTSBURGH, July 19 (AP)—Still just "dad" to the six kids back home in Camden, N. J., 37-year-old Jersey Joe Walcott today happily promised to be a fighting world heavyweight champion.

Oldest man ever to win boxing's biggest prize by his stunning seventh round knockout of Ezzard Charles last night at Forbes Field, Walcott began a grand victory tour.

After visits to McKeesport, Pa., and Harrisburg Elks Club today, Jersey Joe will fly home tomorrow for a gala reception from some 100,000 Camden friends.

"I still can't believe it," said Walcott modestly. "I think I'm the luckiest man in the world."

He continued: "I have a wonderful family and the greatest manager—Felix Boocchicchio.

"Felix always preached to me every day in the world 'you're the greatest fighter'. Last night we convinced a lot of people."

The wheels already were turning for the September rematch which may be held in New York, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia or Atlantic City.

Boocchicchio would prefer Atlantic City in the new champion's home state.

"But I'll go anywhere," Jimmy Norris (International Boxing Club president) wants it, he said. "We are signed exclusively with the International Boxing Club."

Added Boocchicchio: "Charles deserves the right to the return like the contract says within 90 days. Joe Louis? We'd love to fight him again. He's next after Charles."

"Then we'll go right down the line. Rocky Marciano and all the rest. We want to do the boxing game as much as you can."

What about the knockout punch? Walcott said: "It was a left hook that travelled about six or eight inches. First I feinted a jab to the body and then hooked the left."

"When I hit him I said (thank God) this is it. When that punch landed I knew it was the end. Charles agreed that he never fought his own fight."

"I didn't get going," he explained. "I don't know why. I just couldn't get together with myself."

The ex-champion had his lip stitched and carried a mark under his right eye. Walcott was unharmed.

"I saw what hit me," said Charles. "I caught a count of five and I remember trying to get up. That was all."

The last time Charles was on the deck was in 1947 when Flizie Fitzpatrick floored him for nine. Ezzie came back to win that bout.

Rifle Shoot On Saturday

The fourth in a series of prize shoots being held by the Provincial Rifle Association in preparation for the annual P.R.A. Meet to be held here July 30th, will be held at the Squaw Point Range this Saturday afternoon commencing at 1 P.M.

The competitions on Saturday will be 15 rounds fired from both the 300 and 600 yard ranges, the former range commencing at one o'clock and finishing at 2:45 P.M.

The Saturday meeting will be divided into three divisions, one for senior shots, one for intermediate and one for green shots, with prizes to be awarded to winners in each class.

The usual large turnout of marksmen, which has been a feature of the three previous meets, is expected again on Saturday, and officials stated last night that some rifles are still available at the H.M.C.S. Queen Charlotte for those who wish to compete.

Meeting For Midget Players

Midget ball players who wish to compete in a City League in that division, will get their last chance to do so tonight.

The Department of Physical Fitness, who will sponsor the league, will hold a final meeting at Memorial Field tonight at six o'clock for all players interested.

Following tonight's meeting, registration of players will be carried out and anybody not there and ready to register will be out of luck as far as midget play is concerned.

Wouters Wins From Hayes

HALIFAX, July 19 (OP)—Roy Wouters of Vancouver, Canadian middleweight champion, won an unanimous decision over Norm Hayes of Boston in a 10-round exhibition bout here tonight. Wouters weighed 158½ and Hayes 158½.

The 19-year-old Bostonian battered Wouters to the canvas just before the bell in the first and then sent him sprawling again in the fourth with a right cross for a nine count. Wouters fought back doggedly and by the sixth was

Sport Echoes From Prince County

Gord MacKay is still in front in the exciting race of the S.A.A. League, but a new challenger to his crown has arisen. Instead of Dutch Underwood, who has slipped down in the list of 300 hitters, Bob Barlow of R.C.A.F. is the boy to be reckoned with. He is hitting .371 to MacKay's .359. Two C. & B. players entered the circle of sock, Mark Delaney and Coke Grady, each with .303. Don MacKenzie has been elected but is still on the front door step.

Lloyd Hicks, Moncton, became Junior champion with 259 for 54 holes. Thane Cody, of the River-side Club, won the crown last year before graduating from junior status. Ken Dougherty, St. Andrews, with 266, was runner-up to Hicks.

Perceval Streeter, Riverside, had a total of 237 and led the seniors.

The second hole-in-one in the history of the tournament was accomplished by Ralph Harley, Moncton, on hole no. 8. He finished in a third place four-way tie among the amateurs with a 72-hole gross of 310.

The following three members were selected to represent the two provinces in Willingdon Cup play: Stewart, Bert Balch, Riverside, and Walter Reed, Jr., of the Aroostook Valley Country Club. A fourth will be chosen after the Maritime meet at Charlottetown early next month.

Alternates are Harley, Cody, Peter Kelly, Fredericton, and Walter Gow, Riverside.

Balch followed Stewart with 309 while Cody, Gow, Harley and Reed had 310s. Kelly took one stroke more.

In the professional competition, Sinclair was three strokes behind Skinner.

Cecil Dowling, Prince Edward Island pro, had 309, Marc Sandow, Charlottetown, finished with 335 in the same competition. Totals for other Island players were: D. H. Saunders 328, Donald McDonald 242 (54 holes), Arthur McKenzie 244, F. H. McInnis 249, R. E. Jenkins 287, T. N. Rogers 291.

At a meeting of a supervisory committee to oversee minor baseball activities in Summerside, we went up to the recreation grounds where our coach, Bob "Chick" Whalen was conducting a school for young baseball players. We liked very much what we saw. There was an exceptionally large turnout of midgets, juveniles, and even a sprinkling of intermediates.

"Chick" had them broken up into groups with some of the older players helping him out with instruction. Some of the boys were at the sliding pit, learning how to "take a lead" how to start for the other base, how to slide in. Other boys were getting instruction in batting, while still others were given pointers in playing the outfield and infield. For example, we have seen a lot of ball players make a bobble when they had occasion to "charge the ball." Chick's advice was to just before reaching the ball so as to make sure it makes sense and should prevent many errors if followed.

What impressed us most about the school was the way the coach was teaching the older boys the fundamentals of baseball so that they in turn could teach the youngsters. This means that there will be a lot of Summerside boys well versed in sound baseball procedure in years to come and so "Chick's" teaching will remain with us long after the genial coach from Boston has gone back home.

Earl Smith, Prince Edward Island tennis champion, is defending his title in Charlottetown this week. Earl writes a very interesting sports column for the Pioneer in Summerside, and besides his tennis ability, he is one of Summerside's best bowlers and basketball players. All tennis fans and devotees of other sports as well in Summerside and vicinity will be pulling for Earl to duplicate last year's triumph in Island tennis.

Officials of the Abegweit baseball club announced here last evening that they will play an exhibition game with the Summerside R.C.A.F. ballsters at the Western Capital on Sunday afternoon.

The game will be the first of a series of exhibition encounters that the Abegweit Club are endeavouring to arrange to create additional ball interest here.

The R.C.A.F. club are expected to play a return match here the following Sunday, and it is hoped that the Moncton Legionnaires will be the visiting team here of Sunday, August 5th.

In view of the forthcoming game at Summerside on Sunday, the Abbie team will hold a practice session at Memorial Field tonight at 5:30, and the following players are asked to report for practice:—McCallum, Larier, McAleer, McLean, Carson, Ryan, Hennessey, Whitlock, LeClair, McKinnon, Lewis, McNeill, Howatt, Cairns, S. Ready, G. Flynn.

Claims Walcott Said He Was 41

CHICAGO, July 19 (AP)—A previous admission by the new world heavyweight champion, Jersey Joe Walcott, that he was 41 years old was recalled tonight by the Chicago Tribune. He is officially listed as 37.

"On the night of March 7, after he had been beaten by (Ezzard) Charles in his fourth chance at the title, Walcott, alone and forlorn in a Detroit hotel room, was asked about his age," the Tribune recounted. "There had always been some mystery about it. Was there any more need for secrecy?"

Walcott's answer, as carried in the wake of the news (column by Sports Editor 'Arch Ward), was: "Not any more, because I'm not going to fight again, unless it's for the championship. You can tell 'em the truth, I'm 41."

punishing Hayes badly with short punches. That was the turning point. Wouters scored repeatedly and Hayes slackened.

Stewart Wins Golf Championship

SAINT JOHN, N. B., July 19 (CP)—T. K. (Tommy) Stewart, St. Stephen, today succeeded Ben Inzer, Moncton, as amateur golf champion of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

The border town shotmaker finished 72 holes of medal play in the annual two-province tournament with a total score of 301.

He was only one stroke behind Archie Skinner, of the Aroostook Club at St. Andrew's who captured the professional and open titles from Don Sinclair, of the host Riverside Golf and Country Club.

Lloyd Hicks, Moncton, became Junior champion with 259 for 54 holes. Thane Cody, of the Riverside Club, won the crown last year before graduating from junior status. Ken Dougherty, St. Andrews, with 266, was runner-up to Hicks.

Chicago's gritty White Sox climbed to within three percentage points of Boston Red Sox, American League leaders, by nipping New York Yankees 2-1 Thursday.

The Red Sox still finding the road mighty rocky, lost to Cleveland 5-4, in the 11th inning when Tribe second baseman Bobby Avila scored from first base on Sam Chapman's single.

As a result, here's the way the teams stand:

	W	L	Pct.	GB
Boston	52	34	.605	—
Chicago	43	33	.562	—
New York	49	34	.590	1½
Cleveland	40	35	.528	1½

In the only other daylight action, Philadelphia Athletics and Detroit Tigers split a doubleheader, the A's winning the first 9-0 and the Tigers the second 4-3.

Two home runs by Clyde Vollmer almost won the game for the Red Sox. He sent them off to a 2-0 lead with a blast in the second inning. Then, with the score tied 3-3 in the top of the 11th, he smacked his second homer to give the Sox a one-run lead.

Cleveland, however, bounced back against Harry Taylor for two runs in their half of the 11th and gave Early Wynn his 10th triumph.

Avila's fourth hit of the game—a single—sent Bob Lemon across with the tying run. With two out, Chapman hit a pop fly that fell safe behind third base. Leftfielder Ted Williams, expecting the ball, but the tiny second baseman, with a burst of speed, kept right on running and beat Williams' late throw to the plate.

At Chicago, a two-run fourth-inning and Howe Judson's wobbly but effective 11-hit pitching brought the White Sox victory over the Yanks, their second in the three-game series.

Bob Dillinger knocked in the first Chicago run with a fly ball, and Nellie Fox sent No. 2 across with a bloop double.

First-baseman Lou Limmer's wild throw allowed the Tigers to tally a tie-breaking run in the eighth inning and win the second game against Philadelphia. In the first game, Philadelphia's rookie leftfielder Morris Martin shut out the Tigers on five hits.

The entire National League schedule of six games was washed out by rain and wet grounds.

GLASGOW, Scotland (CP)—Seven-year-old Billy Watson broke both his legs trying to aid a 75-year-old man who fell down a stairway. The man was not injured.
