C.W.L. Social Action Group Holds Meeting in Ch'town

History was made for the Provincial C.W.L. in this Province yesterday when the Social Action, Child Welfare, Health and Nutrition Councils from 13 subdivisions of the C.W.L. of the Parishes met at the Knights of Columbus Home under the chairmanship of Mrs. J.E. Fleming.

with three of the representatives of 15 Parishes between Souris and Summerside who attended a briefing meeting.

Rev. George MacForman, Provincial Director of the C.W.L. in order that the conveners could get first hand knowledge of the scope of the work to be undertaken. This knowledge was contained in the informative addresses given by Father MacForman, Rev. Mother Loyola, Superior General, C.S.M. on Nutrition, Rev. Sister Mary Henry, Director of the Catholic Family Bureau at Charlottetown, and Mr. Eugene Macdonald, of Charlottetown Director of Child Welfare for the Department of Welfare.

Eleanor Duse, the famed Italian actress who died in 1924, refused to use makeup in any of her roles. Smelling salts generally consists of a mixture of ammonium carbonate with some sort of perfume.

SPOT NEWS

Leonard spots are definitely a grand touch for the smart clothes of the season and they don't have to come right off the back of that neckline. Now in a humane way, they are reproduced in materials to give the same effect in silks and other fabrics.

NORTH RIVER W.L.
The October meeting of the North River Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Ladner, and Roll call was answered by twenty-one members.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved. Reports of sick and school committees were given and bills paid. Correspondence was read which included letters from the Multiple Sclerosis Society and the Unitarian Services thanking the Institute for donations.

It was moved and seconded that each member bring or send their donations to the Centre Fund and the Protestant Orphanage to the next meeting. The matter of having music taught in the schools was discussed and it was decided to purchase a piano for each school and procure the services of Miss Elizabeth Foster as music teacher.

Plans were made to have a cake sale at R. T. Holman on Friday evening, October 31. The secretary had procured God Liver Oil capsules and several members purchased same.

Mrs. Earl Younger invited members for the November meeting. Roll call to be answered with dues. Lunch committee: Mrs. Ernest Ladner, Mrs. Earl Younger, Mrs. J. McKenzie and Mrs. Arthur Wheatley.

All close of meeting a very humorous contest was put on by Mrs. Ketr Warren, following which lunch was served by the hostess and committee.
