THE QUEBEC DIFFICULTY.

The Views and Opinions of Principal Grant.

In the course of his great speech at Toronto, Principal Grant said:—

"What, then, is most needed to help us in the great and inspiring work of making a nation in which unionists and separatists alike can engage with all their hearts? At home a better understanding and larger tolerance of each other, and, with regard to other countries, such an attitude as shall ensure their respect. Let us consider what these two needs involve. First, Canada is a hard country to govern and to unify. It consists of geographical districts separated from each other by unfruitful wildernesses. In spite of obstacles the success of confederation has been remarkable to all who know how long it takes to make a country, and who know anything of the slowness with which the old thirteen North American colonies grew into unity. Cordial co-operation between the English and French speaking Canadian is, of course, our great necessity. That must be based on justice, and on the limitation as far as possible of hostile and irritating forces, and of everything that would interfere with a good understanding between the two. Admittedly, the status recently given to the Jesuits has introduced a new element that cannot be disregarded. We can afford a good deal of wholesome neglect, but we can afford to neglect neither the unbroken testimony of history and the testimony of Roman Catholic nations and the Roman Catholic church to that remarkable order, nor the remarkably fine field for its tactics presented by the racial, religious and financial position in Quebec, in connection with the present relation of the province to the Dominion. Whatever else the order may be, it glories in being the implacable and disciplined foe of Protestantism, while, whatever else Canada needs, she demands peace between Protestants and Roman Catholics as a necessary condition of strength and unity. Individuals may revert to this side or that, but sensible people know that it is hopeless to turn a Protestant people back to Romanism, and just as hopeless to convert a Roman Catholic people to any of the existing forms of Protestantism. This may sound Laodicean to bigots, fanatics and visionaries, that is, to all who identify Christianity with the organization or church to which they themselves belong. It is none the less the simple truth, demonstrated by three and a half centuries of history. Proselytism on either side, no matter how unscrupulous, no matter what the expenditure of money, will detach only individuals, and these, as a rule, not worth much. It does so at the expense of checking internal movements. It excites irritation, arrests development and strengthens reaction. It is only since the Protestant churches have ceased to proselytize actively from each other that they have become friendly and are approximating.

[CONCLUDED TO-MORROW.]

News Notes.

Cape Girardeau, Mo., has had two shocks of earthquake.

Dillon and O'Brien have sailed from Havre for America.

Earthquake shocks have been felt in Bosnia and Carinthia.

The British Parliament will re-assemble November 25. This is official.

The Pope has instructed the French bishops to avoid a conflict with the French government.

Birchall's trial cost Oxford county $2,500. The counsel were paid by the Government, making the total cost $8,000.

Another woman has been murdered in London and the body mutilated. The Jack the Ripper scare is thus revived.

Two Mexican sheep herders have been murdered and their bodies horribly mangled by Indians near Silver City, New Mexico.

An armed mob at Augusta, Ga., tied General Williams, a negro, to a tree and riddled him with bullets, for shooting a five-year-old boy.

German capitalists have promised to subscribe 15,000,000 marks to aid Baron Wissmann's project to construct a railway from Dar-es-Salaam to Bagomoyo, Africa.

A special to the New York Tribune from San Francisco says: "The overland trains to this city from the east have been from two to ten hours late nearly every day for a month. This is due to an unparalleled series of accidents on the Union Pacific. In twenty-five days there have been twenty-seven wrecks on the main line of this road and its branches."

The British Columbia Indians have their defenders. The evidence given at a recent missionary gathering of the revolting habits of the aborigines is contradicted by a Victoria gentleman, who says: "I never heard of any cannibalism at any time, cannibalism, as I understand it, being the killing of people for the sake of eating them. The nearest feast to it was a practice at the medicine feasts, more than 30 years ago, and never since, of killing a slave or exchanging a corpse and using the body in the savage religious ceremony. An arm or some other member would be torn out, and the pretence made of eating it, though in reality it was never devoured. This practice prevailed among all the tribes of the coast, from Cape Mudge up to the Alaskan boundary."

A Warning Ament Cheese.

Prof. Robertson, the Dominion commissioner, thinks that the following tendencies appear to menace the permanent success of our cheese industry:

1. The employment of inexperienced, incompetent men to manage the inside work of the factories.

2. The senseless cutting down of the remuneration of the makers, until the able men are leaving the occupation.

3. The inevitable penny-wise and pound-foolish policy of using factory furnishings of poor quality, simply because they happen to be a little lower in price.

So much additional trouble, loss, worry and disappointment result from the putting men without aptitude or experience in charge of large factories that I strongly urge, says Prof. Robertson, the proprietors to exercise the utmost care and caution, and invariably to inform themselves as to the fitness of an applicant by enquiry from a reliable expert or cheese-buyer. No factory should incur needless risk of loss of reputation, of patronage, of prestige, of price or of profit.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's

Soothing Syrup has been used by mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes so "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. april8'90dyeodwkyly
