Golden Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. Corcoran

—The fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Corcoran was quietly observed on Monday, November 27th. They were married on November 27th, 1900, at Sacred Heart Church, Alberton, by Reverend Fr. A. E. Burke, parish priest.

To mark the occasion, a delicious goose dinner, prepared by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Norbert Corcoran, was partaken of by immediate members of the family. The guests included the bride's maid and groomsmen of fifty years ago, Mrs. Holson Gaff of Coleman and Mr. Brenton O'Connor of Alberton, also Reverend M. J. Kooner, parish priest at Bloomfield. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. John J. Corcoran and daughters, Hazel, Lorraine and Norma. Mrs. Harold MacGregor and daughter Bonnie, Halifax, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin MacGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Lance Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Corcoran, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Corcoran, Mr. and Mrs. William O'Brien, Mr. Joseph McLellan and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Corcoran.

The table was beautifully decorated with gold and graced by two wedding cakes. A three-tier one made by Mrs. John J. Corcoran, and a two-tier one made by their daughter Sister Mary Ambrose of the teaching staff of Kinkora Convent.

The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and singing by Mr. Lance Dalton, Mrs. John J. Corcoran, Norma, Hazel and Lorraine Corcoran, and tap dancing by Bonnie MacGregor.

The esteemed couple were the recipients of numerous gifts and messages of congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran were previously entertained at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Melvin MacGregor and Mr. MacGregor, Burton, Lot 7, where they were presented with gifts from the family.
