CHAPTER VI.

Soon, half drowned by the voices of the captains mustering the enemy below, he heard another sound rising from every quarter of the city, but deeper and more sustained, where the great columns marched.

As they came nearer, he became confident, then eager. Suddenly, everything—objects far and near, the old palace and the hated flags, the lake and the purple distance, and the unflecked sky—all melted into mist, for he looked at them through tears.

While he indulged the heroic weakness, Io and Hualpa rejoined him. About the same time Cortes and some of his cavaliers appeared on the azoteas of the central and higher part of the palace.

And as he swore, here and there upon the adjacent houses armed men showed themselves; and directing the heads of columns came up, and, turning right and left at the corners, began to occupy all the streets around the royal enclosure.

If one would fancy what the cavaliers then saw, let him first recall the place. It was in the heart of the city. Eastward arose the teocallis, a terraced hill in fact, and every terrace a vantage-point. On all other sides of the palace were edifices each higher than its highest part; and each fronted with a wall resembling a parapet, except that its outer face was in general richly ornamented with fret-work and mouldings and arches and grotesque corbels and cantilevers.

As the columns marched and countermarched in the streets thus beautifully bounded, they were a spectacle of extraordinary animation. Over them played the semi-transparent shimmer or thrill of air, so to speak, peculiar to armies in rapid movement—curious effect of changing colors and multitudinous motion.

priests, bare-headed and frocked, and a corps of musicians, of whom some blew unearthly discords from couachs, while others clashed cymbals, and beat atabals fashioned like the copper tam-tams of the Hindoos.

And as they marched, the ensigns tossed to and fro; the priests sang monotonous canticles; the cymbalists danced and leaped joyously at the head of their companies; and the warriors in the ranks flung their shields aloft and yelled their war-cries, as if drunk with happiness.

As the inundation of war swept around the palace, a cavalier raised his eyes to the tall "Valgame Dios!" he cried, in genuine alarm. "The levies of the valley are not enough. Lo, the legions of the air!"

On the azoteas where but the moment before only the 'tzin and lo' were to be seen, there were hundreds of caprisoned warriors; and as the Christians looked at them, they all knelt, leaving but one man standing; simultaneously the companies on the street stopped, and with those on the house-tops, hushed their yells, and turned up to him their faces countless and glistening.

"Who is he?" the cavaliers asked each other. Cortes, cooler than the rest, turned to Marina: "Ask the princess Nenetzin if she knows him."

And Nenetzin answered: "The 'tzin Guatamo."

As the two chiefs surveyed each other in full recognition, down from the sky as it were, broke an intonation so deep that the Christians were startled, and the women fled from the roof.

"Ota!" cried Alvarado, with a laugh. "I have heard that thunder before. Down with your visors, gentlemen, as yo care for the faces your mothers love."

McLEOD & McKENZIE, STAR MERCHANT TAILORS, The Original and Peerless Artists of Our Day.

THE ABOVE HAS BEEN A SETTLED FACT FOR YEARS, and to keep before the public what is so well known to every good dresser in this Province, may seem superfluous. But as a good dinner tends to give a quietus to the disturbing influences within the inner man, so a thorough knowledge of our capabilities will give a quietus to anyone who may have had the good fortune of being dressed by us. The sun rises and sets, and it appears to the ordinary judgment that the sun revolves around the earth instead of the earth revolving around the sun; so we, through the immense strides we have taken in our art, would appear to the uneducated to be moving around our many friends, instead of their moving around us; like the sun imparts its warm rays to revive drooping nature, so we are the benefactors of our people, by aiming high and attaining to a STYLE and FINISH in our Garments, which cannot but commend us as the MERCHANT TAILORING PHILANTHROPISTS of our day. Are you anxious to test the foregoing? Come in, then, and see our line of Goods, which are superior, in every sense of the word, and we will fit you out with a Suit which will doubtless draw the loving remark from your best girl that she has "the best dressed young man in town." Call early, if you must have it before 1st July. HATS and FURNISHING GOODS in the LATEST STYLES. McLEOD & McKENZIE, FASHIONABLE MERCHANT TAILORS.

WELL'S RICHMOND'S CELESTIAL COMPOUND

ACTS AT THE SAME TIME ON THE NERVES, THE LIVER, THE BOWELS, and the KIDNEYS. This combined action gives it wonderful power to cure all diseases.

Why Are We Sick? Because we allow the nerves to remain weakened and irritated, and these great organs to become clogged or torpid, and poisonous humors are therefore forced into the blood that should be expelled naturally.

PAIN'S CELESTIAL COMPOUND WILL CURE BILIOUSNESS, PILES, CONSTIPATION, KIDNEY COMPLAINTS, BRUISES, RHEUMATISM, FEMALE WEAKNESS, BRUISES, NEURALGIA, AND ALL NERVOUS DISORDERS.

By quieting and strengthening the nerves, and causing free action of the liver, bowels, and kidneys, and restoring their power to throw off disease. Why suffer Bilious Pains and Aches? Why tormented with Piles, Constipation? Why frightened over Disordered Kidneys? Why endure nervous or sick headaches? Why have sleepless nights? Use PAIN'S CELESTIAL COMPOUND and rejoice in health. It is an entirely vegetable remedy, harmless in all cases. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1.00. Size for 50c. WELLS, RICHMOND & CO., Proprietors, MONTREAL, P. Q.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturer of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure. SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharge falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, and offensive. The eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, sneezing or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with sores from ulcers. The voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is less energy, without mental depression, a headache, cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians. By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "not in the head," Coryza, and Catarrh of the Throat. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony," from Catarrh. Prof. W. HAUENBERG, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said: 'My only chance was such a bad one, that every day, to my surprise, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and sneezing from ulcers, almost strangled me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent.'"

"Constantly Sneezing and Spitting." THOMAS J. IRISH, Esq., 302 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly sneezing and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only cure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure." Three Bottles Cure Catarrh. ELI ROBBINS, Rungten P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen, and sound and healthy."
