MERRY MARRIAGE BELLS.

The pretty little chapel of the Convent de Notre Dame was the scene of a fashionable wedding at five o'clock this morning. The chapel was appropriately decorated for the occasion, the bride having been a pupil of the Convent, and being very popular with all. Miss Mary Elizabeth Dorsey, eldest daughter of James Dorsey, Esq., of this city, and James J. Johnston, barrister and attorney-at-law, son of John Johnston, Esq., also of this city, were the contracting parties. The groom was supported by Dr. J. K. Dorsey, brother of the bride, and Miss Katie Johnston, sister of the groom, attended the bride. The bride wore an exquisite bridal gown of white satin, trimmed with orange blossoms, and a white veil, surmounted by a crown of orange blossoms and secured by a diamond pin, fell gracefully over her head. Dainty white slippers peeped from under her gown, and under white-gloved hand she carried a bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor looked charming in a costume similar to that of the bride. The two flower girls, Misses Ella J. and Ethel A. Dorsey, were simply attired in dresses of pink crepon with large cream Legation hats and cream kid slippers. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. D. B. Reid, assisted by Rev. P. A. McElmeel, of Kelly's Cross, and J. F. John, Esq., brother of the groom. As the procession moved up the aisle to the altar rail the strains of the wedding march were heard, and during the ceremony Miss Joseph Smith sang some beautiful solos. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties, and at its conclusion the bride's parents, on King Street, where a private breakfast was given, only the families of the contracting parties and the officiating clergymen being present. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston then took the early train en route to Boston and New York on their bridal tour. The bride was the recipient of a great many beautiful presents. THE EXAMINER extends best wishes for health, happiness and prosperity.

TEMPERANCE.—The Sons of Temperance will receive a friendly and fraternal visit this evening from Ever Onward Division at Wright's Hall, Prince St. Remember the hour, 8 o'clock, sharp.

GO TO IT.—Remember St. Peter's SS picnic on Wednesday to Red Point. Steamer leaves Ferry Wharf at 10:30 a. m., and at 3 p. m. leaving in time to arrive in Charlottetown at 5 o'clock in the evening.

HORSES SHIPPED.—Oliver Mason shipped fifteen horses to Chas. F. Trask, of Gardiner, Me., on Saturday; and Mr. Adams, of Halifax, took away seven in the St. Lawrence on the same day.

THE RIFLES.—The return match between the Pownal and Montague teams will be shot on the range at Montague on Wednesday, beginning at seven o'clock. The Pownal team will leave for Montague tomorrow morning.

SUPREME COURT.—The case against William Larter, charged with procuring drugs with intent to procure abortion, was given to the jury at half-past one this afternoon, and at a quarter to five o'clock they returned a verdict of "Guilty."

DON'T FORGET IT.—Mrs. Harrison's Concert in Summerside to-morrow evening promises to be a great success. The programme prepared for the occasion is excellent. The people of the Western metropolis should not be slow to take advantage of this rare treat.

COME, HURRAH! for the Rosebery Tea at Kinkora on July 10th! It promises to eclipse all other gatherings of the season. All preparations have been made to feed and entertain at least 6000 people. Every thing is in apple-pie order for the 10th. So don't forget the date.

FROM HALIFAX.—The steamer City of Ghent arrived here yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock, from Halifax. She brought a full general cargo and Rev. Mr. Brine and two children and Mr. Osborne as passengers. She sails again at 2 o'clock, for Summerside, thence to Halifax.

EVERY HOUSEHOLD should have a representative at the Rosebery Tea at Kinkora. New and superior attractions, which it will be a mistake to miss. Cheap fares all over the line of Railway, only 15 cents from Charlottetown and return. Tickets return apart to-morrow Tuesday for the tea at Kinkora.

THE GREAT EASTERS TEA.—The Great Eastern Tea Party comes off to-morrow at Carlgan Bridge, under the management of the Roman Catholic congregation at that place. Beautiful scenery, nice drives, fishing, etc., will make this picnic delightful. The League of the Cross Band will be in attendance.

ACCOMMODATION WANTED.—More light and a hand stand are badly needed in Queen Square Gardens, if the band is to continue playing there in the evening. It is exceedingly difficult to read music in the dark, and it is decidedly unpleasant to be obliged to stand for two hours in the wet grass.

MUSIC ON THE SQUARE.—The following is the programme for the Band concert on Queen Square this evening: Overture—Cross of Honor. Waltz—Ninette. March—Washington Post. Schottische—Fascination. Waltz—Daisy Bell. March—American Cadet. Polka—Fairy Footfalls. Waltz—Rippling Stream. March—The Attack. God Save the Queen.

MILK TEST.—Mr. Dillon applied scientific tests on Saturday to the milk supplied to Winslow Road Cheese Factory. Most of it found to be of excellent quality; a few specimens were found to be unusually rich; but one person was proved to be supplying milk that had been skimmed, and another milk that had been watered. Mr. Dillon declines to name names this time. It is needless to add that the credit of the Province, as well as justice between men, requires that the creamer shall supply milk as it comes from the cows; and that Mr. Dillon is to be commended for his vigilance in this regard.
